A Panther Hunt in Kentucky.

A Lexington correspondent in the good old Kentucky State, sends us the following random sketch of one of his army hunting adventures, which will be found replete with the true sportsman-spirit. We shall be pleased to hear from the writer again. He must be one of the veritable Hunters of Kentucky that we used to read of (and sing of) in Woodworth's popular song. In my winter-home in the tangled wilds of the far Arkansas, during the last months of 1852, I was reveling amid the hardy pleasures of a hunt-summoned forth for the huntthe eager, high-bred pack, who burst from their kennels in tumultuous joy, making the old primeval woods ring with loud and deep-mouthed bayings. How beautiful your lives might be made, ye who have powyour sojourn here? Have you ever made your name a household word, or have you lived but to build houses and buy merchandise, and erect rupt and perishing self? How are you to answer these questions when you stand up before the Omnipotent? Not then with a laugh or sneer, or a cold marble face, for the thousands of opportunities that you have murdered will rise up in that hour to condemn you. Lineus, the great botanist, had in his house table of the great botanist, a number of plants were arranged, which, opening their flowers at

HAY FOR COWS IN SUMMER .- An observing, intelligent and successful farmer informs us that he is in the practice of feeding his cows with hay in summer, particularly if the season is such as to afford flush pastures. His reason is that a full, rapid and vigorous growth of grass gives to cattle that feed upon it a desire for something to absorb the excess of the juice GROUND OATS FOR HORSES. - Ground oats of their food. Dry hay they devour greedily, and though in ever so small quantities, evidently with the most beneficial effects. Every farmer must have observed that in dry seasons, horses, cattle and sheep keep in good condition upon herbage parched and apparently scant, while in wet seasons, in all pastures, though always full, the process of fattening with them was slow. A know-nothing having observed that Fill- Dry fodder in such cases is required to give more stock was looking up, the Memphis Ap- substance and tenacity to the green, and can

* COL. JIM LANE IN A TIGHT FIX .- Col. Jim Lane, the wife-deserting, free-State hero, was making a speech in Iowa'a few days since, and denounced the Kansas Legislature as bogus. "Colonel," said a man in the crowd, "let me ask you a question." "Go on," said Lane. "Well, Colonel, if that Legislature was bogus, what made you apply to it for a divorce from your wife?" Confused and "put out," the gallant Colonel sat down! This is the man whom Col. C. K Watson carried a "hostile" message for.

BE SYSTEMATIC .- It will add much more to your convenience than you can imagine. It saves time, saves temper, saves patience, and saves money. For a time it may be a little troublesome, but you will soon find it easier to' do right than wrong; that it is easier to act by rule than without one.

Be systematic in everything; let it extend to minute trifles; it is not beneath you. Whitfield could not go to sleep at might if, after retiring. he remembered that his gloves and riding whip' were not in their usual place, where he could lay his hand on them la the come in any emergency; and such men are the men' who' leave their mark on the world's history.

Systematic men are the only reliable men; they are those who comply with their engagements. They are minute men. The man who he engages to do; to do it well, and to do at the very time promised; consequently he his hands full.

USE OF LIME IN PLANTING TREES,-In soils deficient of lime, in any considerable degree the use of about four bushels to the acre, applied
