

I Would not Depart. Fortune may deny me

The ease that many have, She may deny the means to "spree," Or chance to join in revelry,-May take back all she gave.

She may refuse for me to have A single friend on earth-Refuse a helping hand to save My body from an ley grave, When lingering in death.

But while it is permitted me To tread the flowery sod, To look upon the billowy sea, And hear sweet notes of psaltery Burst forth in praise to God.

And then behold each twinkling star, And view the milky-way; Observe the sun in golden ear, Who marks in peace as well as war, To man each passing day;

This life will not a burden be: For with a warm true heart, I'll live, admiring earth and sea; And though mankind may frown at me, Still would I not depart.

CAN EPILIPSEY BE CURED?

We thing the following letter from a respectable citizen of Mississippi will answer the question, and remove all doubts from every unbiased mind:

GRENADA, Miss., June 5, 1855

Dr. Seth S. Hance, Baltimore Mrt.—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in relating a case of spasms or fits, cured by your inualvable Pills. My brother J. J. Ligon, has long been afflicted with this awful disease. He was first attacked while quite young, He would have one or two spasms at one attack at first; but as he grew older, they seemed to increase likewise. Up to the time he commenced taking your Pills, he had them very often and quite severe, prostrating him body and mind. His mind had suffered seriously; but now; I am happy to say he is cured of those fitd. He has a joyal fine health for the last five months past. His mind has also returned to its original sprightliness. All this I take great pleasure in communicating, as it may be the means of directing others to the remedy that will care them.
