PROSPECTUS

THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN.

The Presbyterian Church in North Carolina has long labored under a serious disadvantage from the want of a journal to advocate her claims and represent her interests. It, is estimated that only 1000 Presbyterian Weekligs are taken in the bounds of our three Presby ries. We have 13,000 Communicants, and is safe to infer that there are 30,000 Presbyterians in principle in the State. Our Synod stands fifth in the Union in point of numbers, and her membership is greater than that of neither of which has a membership so large as ours, publish the Central, and the Southern Presbyterian, for the benefit of their people.
