Ligon, with Beaufort Harbor by Navigable Rivers and Sounds. Of the Harbor at licaufort, we believe it is unneces-like to have the pleasure of showing them through, was first attacked while quite young. He would have one or two stassis at one attack at first; but is he grew older, they seemed to increase likewise. Up to the time he commenced taking your Pills he had then: very often and quite severe, prostrating him body and mind. His mind had suffered seriously: bat now; all happy to say he is cured of those Sts. He had enjoyed fine health for the last five months past. His mind has also returned to its original sprightliness All this I take great pleasars in tommunicating, as it may be the means of directing others to the remedy hat will cure them. You respectfully, &c. W. P. LIGON.

will be so, but such a state of things we may tensonably look for, especially as our people all over the Country have depended of late years entirely too much upon credit. And where credit abounds to any great extent extravagance runs riot and sooner or later involves individuals and communities in ruinous bankruptcy. The pressure however we do not think can last very long as the crops are abundant throughout the country, and will necessarily to a great extent bring about a revolution in our monetary affairs.

Can you tell me why A deceitful eye Can better descry Than you or I Upon how many toes A pussy-cat goes: ANSWER.

The eye of deceit Can best count-er-feit, And so I suppose Can best count her toes.
