BY A. S. A. Give me a possession of a burying place.-GEN. 23: 4.

A burying place! A rest for one, Whose earthly pilgrimage is done; Whose wearied body seeks relief From mortal toil, and pain, and grief; With peaceful hope, in silence here, We leave the form of one most dear.

A burying place! In cheerful trust We give to earth associate dust, Like seed within its bosom cast When time's revolvings all are past, To rise to light and life anew, Enrich'd with a celestial hue.

A burial place! Thy sun has set. A gentle radiance lingers yet, Its softly sweet engaging smile, Encourages our hearts the while; And seals to those, who lov'd thee here, That thou hast pass'd " the Gate of Fear."

MISCELLANEOUS.

A French writer very finely observes-"To J. B. STARR. dream gloriously, you must act gloriously while you are awake; and to bring angels down to converse in your sleep, you must labor in the cause of virtue during the day."

Spurgeon sometimes comes out with a good thing. "Brethren," said he, "if God had referred the Ark to a committee on naval affairs, its my opinion it would not have been built yet !'

PHILOSOPHERS .- There are very few original thinkers in the world, or ever have been: the greatest part of those called philosophers have adopted the opinions of some who have gone before them .- Stewart.

Cool Advice .- A young spark, who boarded at one of the principle hotels in San Francisco, had managed for a long time, by one artifice or another, to postpone the payment of his bill. At last the landlord became quite impatient, and stepping up to his juvenile boarder, slapped him gently on the shoulder, and asked him for some money. THE NORTH-CAROLINA

STATIST AND MAGAZINE OF USEFUL

INFORMATION. The undersigned proposes to publish in the City of Raleigh, a semi-annual JOURNAL, of the above title, devoted exclusively to the dissemi nation of statisticall information. The want of such a Journal is felt by every intelligent citizen, who desires to become at all acquainted with the resources of the State, our present condition, future prospects, &c., and by none so much as by our Legislators.

That we have no regular system of statistics, cannot be attributed to any want of material. There are large amounts of valuable and interesting information scattered through our Legislative and Executive Documents and Records. BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory.)
