The Anglo-Saxon in.

GENERAL DISSATISFACTION IN ITALY AND FRANCE!

The Peace Everywhere Denounced.

GREAT EXASPERATION AT TURIN—NAPOLEON CHARGED WITH BEING A TRAITOR!

FASTNET POINT, JULY 26.—The steamer Anglo-Saxon, from Liverpool, with dates to the 20th, for Quebec, passed here this evening, and was boarded by the agent of the Associated Press.

There is nothing additional by this arrival in regard to the basis of the recently concluded peace between France and Austria.

The feeling of discontent in regard to the peace was apparently increasing, particularly in Italy.

The Emperor Napoleon had arrived at St. Cloud.

The Queen of Portugal is dead.

The Post's Paris correspondence says that both Emperors are convinced that the basis or the conclusion of peace which they hastily agreed upon is, in many respects, impracticable.

The English journals continue to ridicule the terms of peace.

The Post, Lord Palmerston's organ, attacks the proceedings at Villa Franca.

In the House of Commons Mr Hersmar gave notice of a resolution that works for the country's defence be provided for otherwise than by the annual vote of Parliament.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says the representatives of Austria, France and Sardinia will soon meet at Zurich and conclude a treaty of peace. There is to be no Congress, the two Emperors having agreed to settle their difficulties without the intervention of neutral powers.

FRANCE.

The unanimous report of peace is said to have caused signs of commercial improvement in France. The Paris flour market was dull, and wheat lower.

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald says that the greatest activity is apparent all along the French coast. The Channel coast is being fortified, and from Cherbourg to Dunkirk earthworks are being constructed every three hundred yards.

The Paris correspondent of the News says there is a feeling of disappointment, and even indignation, against no one who took a sincere interest in the object of the war, and that the Emperor is seriously lowered in the opinion of all classes.

The rentes closed on the 19th at 68f. 20c.

The Emperor arrived at St. Cloud on Sunday morning, the 17th inst. The Empress with the Imperial Prince, and also the ladies and officers of the household, were in waiting to receive him. For more than an hour at the railway station the little Prince wore his Corporal's uniform, and had a laurel crown in his hand ready to give his father on his arrival. As soon as the Emperor arrived he kissed the Empress, then took the Imperial Prince in his arms and held him for some minutes.

He afterwards gave his arm to the Empress and proceeded in a carriage to the chateau. At noon the Emperor attended mass and immediately after received his Ministers. In some quarters there was an appearance that a reassuring manifesto from the Emperor was looked for.

Prince Napoleon was expected to reach Paris on or about 19th or 20th July.

ITALY.

There are strange indications of discontent in some parts of Italy. At Florence there is great agitation. The provisional government had issued a proclamation, describing the peace as betraying the finest hopes—that the Tuscan government participated in the consent of the people and That she will not be implicated in the vote and indemnity of Austria and the Pope will not be.

Count La Marmora says a French corps of forty thousand men will remain in Italy until the reorganization of the army, according to the treaty of Villa Franca.

The Florentine correspondent of the Daily News says that much Piedmontese troops were going to Florence with Napoleon's consent, to maintain order and take them to Piacenza, in case of intervening by the help of the Tuscan army. Prince Napoleon, the Imperial Commissioner, had arrived at Florence. The United States Envoy had a public audience of the Duke of Tuscany.

[illegible] Parma and Tuscany [illegible] from extermination. [illegible] and Parma and [illegible] the [illegible] of the Pope says it has [illegible] Romagna, as a French army [illegible] the Romagnese [illegible] the same as a peace just concluded [illegible] Orders have been given to some French [illegible] Romagnese and their property at [illegible] Rome.

[illegible] fleet