COME TO THE FAIR. The Sixth Annual Fair of the Cumberland Coun ty Agricultural Society, will be held at Fayetteville

on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 2d, 3d, and 4th days of November next.

The Annual Address will be deliver on Thursday by W. W. Holden Esq., of Raleigh. The Executive Committee takes pleasure in announcing that the Society is now in a more prosperous condition than at any previous period of its history. No pains will be spared to make the arrangements for the Fair comple; and we now appeal to the people of our Countey to come forward and prove that they have county pride enough, with in-dustry, enterprise and public spirit to back it, to make this Fair excel any previous one and to rank far ahead of any other County Fair in the State.

The importance of such an institution for advancing the interests of the Farmer, the Mechanics and the Manufacturer, cannot be doubted. It has for its object the creation of an honest and laudable spirit of emulation among them, by increasing their efforts to excel in their respective departments. This is an age of improvement and progress, and it is the interest of all to keep pace with it. One important step in accomplishing that object is to build up and sustain exhibitions of industry and enterprise where all may meet together, view each other's works, compare notes, increase in knowledge, and take fresh courage in their respective pursuits. An in- Foreign and Domestic stitution having such objects in view cannot fail to

We trust that our citizens generaly will exert themselves to make every department of our exhibition com- worth the attention of buyers, who are invited to call and examine for themselves. We look to the ladies to fill Floral Hall. They J. B. STARR. have always performed this part well, and as the time is rapidly approaching, we hope they will be ready again to prove that those who look to them in good cause never look in vain. We invite the citizens of the surrounding counties to come and compete with us for the premiums, and we assure them we will endeavor to give satisfac-
