Swannanca, nymph of beauty
I would woo thee in my rhyme,
Wildest, brightest, loveliest river, Of our sunny Southern clime! Swannanoa, well they named thee, In the mellow Indian tongue; Beautiful* thou art, most truly, And right worthy to be sung.

I have stood by many a river, Known to story and to song-Ashley, Hudson, Susquehanna, Fame to which may well belong ;-I have camped by the Ohio, Trod Scioto's fertile banks, Followed far the Juniata, In the wildest of her pranks,-

But thou reignest queen forever, Child of Apalachian hills, Winning tribute as thou flowest, From a thousand mountain rills, Thine is beauty, Strength begotten, 'Mid the cloud begirded peaks, Where the Patriarch of the mountains, ‡ Heavenward for thy wat of seeks.

Through the issuels and the beaches. bright thy silvery coreat shines, Sleeping now in grand basins, Overhung by trailing vines, And anon careering onward, In the maddest frole-mood. Waking with its sea-like voices, Fairy echoes in the wood.

Peaceful sleep thy narrow vallies, In the shadow of the hills, And thy flower enamelled border, All the air with fragrance fills, Wild luxuriance, generous tillage, Here alternate meet the view, Every turn, through all thy windings, Still revealing something new.

Where, O! graceful Swannanoa, Are the warriors who of old, Sought thee at thy mountain sources, Where thy springs are icy cold— Where the dark browed Indian maidens, Who their limbs were want to lave, (Worthy bath for fairer beauty.) In thy cool and limpid wave?

Gone forever from thy borders, But immortal in thy name, Are the red men of the forest! Be thou keeper of their fame! Paler races dwell beside thee; Celt and Saxon till thy lands, Wedding Use unto thy Beauty-Linking over thee their hands.

Swannanoa, well I love thee, Though a stranger on thy banks, Would my humble rhymes were worthier Of thy beauty and my thanks; Swannanoa, mountain river,

Would I had a lodge by thee, With a gentle wife to grace it-Could a poet happier be?

JACQUES DU SUD.

Swannanoa, in the Cherokee, signifies beautiful. Black Mountain.

SWANNANOA.

Dedicated to MRS. J. F. E. HARDY. If there be one who's sick and weak, With hectic rose upon her cheek, And wishes health, then let her go

And taste thy waters, Swannanoa Thy beauteous waters as they roll No lovelier sight this world can show ! Than thy bright waters, Swannanoa.

'Twas here in the primeval days, Amidst thy reeds and blooming bays, The stately stag and bounding doe Drank thy waters, Swannanoa.

'Twas in this beauteous western wild Reamed the Indian, nature's child; Here on thy banks he bent his bow, And drank thy waters, Swannanoa.

There's beauteous shrubs and flowers and trees, There's perfumes floating on the breeze, nd gentle gales of incense blow

Upon the banks of Swannanoa. And beauteous fields of golden corn The valleys and the hills adorn; There's mountains high and low Upon the banks of Swannanoa. With some fair maiden by my side, I'd launch my bark upon thy tide;

Adown thy waters I would row, And sing thy praises, Swannan a! DENTISTRY.

TH MEDICINE OF THE MILLION PHILOSOPHY AND FACT.

THE EXCITING CAUSE OF SICKNESS. The blood is the life-sustaining agent. It furnish es the components of flesh, bone, muscle, nerve and in tegument. The Stomach is its manufactory, the veins its distributors, and the intestines the channel through which the waste matter rejected in its productions is expelled. Upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels, these Pllls act simultaneously, relieving indi-gestion, purifying the fluids, and regulating the ex-

THE NATIONAL COMPLAINT. Dyspepsia is the most common disease among al classes in this country. It assumes a thousand shapes, and is the primary source of inumerable dangerous maladies; but whatever its type or symptoms, how-ever obstinate its resistance to ordinary preparations, it yields readily and rapidly to this searching and unerring remedy.
BILLIOUS AFFECTIONS.

The quantity and quality of the bile are of vite importance to health. Upon the liver, the gland which secretes the fluid, these Fills operate specifically, in-fallibly rectifying its irregularities and effectually curing Jaundice, Billious Remittants, and all the va-rieties of disease generated by an unnatural condition of the organ.

BOWEL COMPLAINTS. Unless the bowels perform their functions properly, the whole body suffers. Tens of thousand die annually of Dysentery. Diarrheat, Chronic Constipation, and other diseases of these waste pipes of the system. The effect of the Pill upon all intestinal disorders, whether casual or epidemic, is a phenomenon in medicine. By following the printed dir ctions, the most alarming eases of bowel complaint are promply controlled. A WORD TO FEMALES. The local debility and irregularities which the e pecial annoyances of the weaker sex, and which, when neglected, always shorten life, are relieved for the time being, and prevented for the time to come by a course of this mild but thorough alterative. Holloway's Pills are the best rem dy known
