THE HARPER'S FERRY EMENTE-A CON-FESSION.

John Copeland, the mullatto prisoner from Ober-lin, Ohio, has made a full confession to the United States Marshal, of Virginia, and Marshal Johnson, of the Northern District of Ohio. He has given the names of the parties at Oberlin who induced him to go to Harper's Ferry, and who furnished the money for his expenses, &c. He also states that a movement of a similiar character was contemplated in Kentucky about the same time. Many persons in Northern Ohio, whose names have not heretofore been mentioned, are directly implicated. The confession is withheld from the public until after the trials are over, by order of Gov. Wise.

I was shown to-day, by Mr. Johnson, Marshal Northern District of Ohio, a large number of important letters implicating Gerret Smith and a number of prominent men of Oberlin, Cleveland, and other portion of Ohio. Among these letters is also the following :

A young minister, dining after service with it necessary to apologize to his host for this very substantial dinner, 'You see, I am always very hungry after the preaching." The old gentleman, not thinking his pulpit performance first rate, having heard this apology two or three times, at last replied "Deed, sir, I'm no surprised at it, considering the trash that comes aff your stomach in the morning." In the parish of Lunan existed a habit of sleeping in church much to the minister's disgust, who on one unlucky Sunday afternoon endeavoured to stir up his hearers by an earnest objurgation concluded with the pointed fact, "You see even Jamie Fraser, Among the Arago's passengers are Mrs. Mason and family.
