NORTH CAROLINIAN. FAYETTEVILLE, N. C.

THE CONVENTION. The Democratic convention of Cumberland and Harnett, held in this place on Tuesday, was one of the largest, most harmonious and enthusiastic, ever held in the counties.

OPPOSITION.—There was about a dozen "Whigs and Americans" assembled at the Town Hall last night to hear various speeches made by various partisans of that stamp—the great speaker being Mr. Poisson, of Wilmington.

COMBINATION PLOW. Some of our enterprising men have bought the patent-right of the great combination plow, patented by a gentleman in Warren, N. C.

For the North Carolina DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION. The Democrats of Cumberland and Harnett assembled in Convention in the Town Hall at 12 o'clock, on the 15th inst., all the precincts were represented.

CONVENTION ASSEMBLED and the committee appointed to apprise Mr. Shepherd of his nomination, reported through their chairman the following letter:

On motion the declaration of Mr. SHEPHERD was accepted and the convention proceeded to ballot for Senator. The following persons were put in nomination: Col. A. Marchison, D. Shaw, C. G. Wright, J. McKethan.

On motion of A. M. C. Kethan, Esq., the convention of Cumberland and Harnett adjourned, and the Cumberland County convention was organized by calling G. W. Lawrence to the chair and appointing A. T. Banks Secretary.

On motion of F. N. Roberts was nominated by acclamation as candidate for Sheriff of Cumberland. The mention of Mr. Roberts' name, was greeted with deafening applause, and he was unanimously declared the candidate.
