

THREE DAYS FROM EUROPE!
ARRIVAL OF THE VANDERBILT
New York, July 15.—The steamer Vanderbilt has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 4th. The steamer and crew are among her passengers. The latter comes to make arrangements for Prince Napoleon's visit.

The Africa; Prince Albert and North Briton had arrived out.
There have been numerous failures in England amongst the London merchants. The aggregate liabilities were £1,500,000.
The American houses in Liverpool in the hide trade were not compromised.
Fresh disturbances have broken out in Naples. The police stations were sacked and pillaged and the king killed. The king had arrived there, and ordered the immediate formation of a national guard.
An ambassador from Naples was expected soon at Turin, with a proposition for an alliance with Sardinia in Italy.

Garibaldi's ministry were unpopular.
There had been fresh masses in Sicily.
Prince Napoleon succeeds Jerome as President of the Privy Council.
The Neapolitan minister at Paris had resigned. The Portuguese minister at London had also resigned.
LATEST.—MARSILLIES, July 4.—There was a skirmish on the 30th near Messina between a detachment of Garibaldi's and a portion of the Royal troops.
Garibaldi has appointed a new ministry, with Signor Natolie for Foreign Affairs.
MADRID, July 3.—Morocco has paid the first instalment of the indemnity.
An understanding will be arranged between Sardinia and Naples, relative to the common interests of their crowns in Italy.

COMMERCIAL.
LIVERPOOL, July 4.—Cotton—Sales for three days 25,000 bales, the market closing with a downward tendency, and quotations barely maintained.
LATEST.—Sales of Wednesday estimated at 10,000 bales—prices irregular but quotations generally unchanged.
The weather is favorable for crops. Flour very dull at a decline of 6d 1s. Wheat dull at a decline of 1d 2d. Corn has a downward tendency, and holders are pressing on the market at 1s 1d decline. Considerable sales of yellow at 3s 1s, white 3s 6d 1s 3/4. Beef and pork heavy, and a considerable reduction necessary to effect sales. Bacon firm, Lard steady. Rosin steady at 4s 5s 6d. Spirits Turpentine dull and nominally 32s a 32s 6d. Sugar firm. Rice steady.
Consols 3 1/2 a 3 1/4.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.
ARRIVAL OF THE "CITY OF BALTIMORE."
New York, July 15.—The City of Baltimore has arrived in Liverpool dates later intelligence.
The sales of cotton for the two days footed up 20,000 bales, the market closing with a declining tendency. Some say with a declining of 1/4 for the week. Breadstuffs were steady. Provisions very dull. No additional failures had occurred in the leather trade.
Among the previous failures is the house of Streetfield, Lawrence & Mortimer, whose liabilities are upwards of £1,000,000—Smith, Patient & Smith, £200,000—Herbert, Smith & Co., £150,000—W & C. Mandy, £70,000—Haker £40,000, and A. Waring £30,000.
English hides had depreciated 20 a 40 per cent. under forced sales.
Garibaldi was quiet. The reported concessions by the King of Naples had disappointed him to precipitate annexation to Sardinia.
It was reported that the King of Sardinia had declared an alliance with Naples, but Napoleon was urging upon him a dea consideration of the Neapolitan overtures.
Lord Russell in Parliament admitted that England and Russia had assented to the proposed European Conference.
The Parliamentary Contests committee had made a supply report which was very damaging to the railway company.
Trade in London was very dull. Three firms connected with Manchester had failed.
Garibaldi had applied to his friends in London for two steamers armed with Armstrong guns.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA AND OREGON
PER THE OVERLAND MAIL.
The Supreme Court of California has decided adversely to the Peter Smith Land titles in San Francisco, except as to the title of which the court are confirm. The result of the decision is favorable to settlers in the neighborhood of San Francisco, but destructive of the schemes of real estate speculators in the various towns of the State.—Millions of money are affected by it.
Official returns give the Oregon election given Shield, the D'Emmett candidate a majority of 70.
Fine copper mines have been opened in Northern California with excellent prospect.
The markets were utterly stagnant, with a still downward tendency.

BOSTON, July 14.
The friends of Mr. Douglas are making preparations to give him a grand reception on his arrival in this city. It is understood he will attend the commencement at Harvard College on Wednesday, and accept the invitation of the Lances to dine with them on that day.
Vice President Brockridge and his family, who left Baltimore on Saturday, arrived here on the same evening and concluded to remain here over Sunday. He will continue the journey westward on Monday morning. He was provided with the special traveling car of President Garret, for himself and family, and expressed himself as highly pleased with the kindness and courtesy extended to him both at Baltimore and on the route.

MOBILE, July 16.
The U. S. Steam Frigate Brooklyn from Vera Cruz, 11th, arrived here yesterday. Minister McLane is a passenger in her and he proceeds immediately to Washington.
Political and military affairs in Mexico were unchanged. Miramon was at Lagos endeavoring to reach the city of Mexico.
All the foreign ministers except the Spanish still refuse diplomatic intercourse with the Miramon government.

NEW YORK, July 16.
FIRE IN NEW YORK—ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY FAMILIES HOMELESS—Some thirty or forty wooden buildings, mostly on the corner of Washington street, were burnt to-day at night. They were mostly occupied by cartmen, whose horses were at work at the time, and thus escaped. One hundred and fifty families are made homeless by the disaster.

WASHINGTON, July 17.
A POLITICAL DOCUMENT.—Taylor, of Louisiana, Senator Pugh, of Ohio, and Mr. Rust, of Arkansas, in behalf of the Douglas National Executive Committee, have issued an Address and explanation and counsel to the Democracy of the United States. They declare as the universal statement of the supporters of Douglas and Johnson that no compromise proposition is admissible; that they have made no proposition to a joint election in any State, and they exert an indignant rejection of such propositions whenever and wherever made. If they say, we have any friends in any State, let them call a State Convention at once and nominate a full election ticket to the exclusive support of Douglas and Johnson.—They also declare, notwithstanding, because to acknowledge the right of a majority to dictate their own terms of co-operation; and thus suffer them to violate the solemn professions of the Democratic party and trample underfoot the Democratic pledges, would be to disband the national organization.

AMERICAN AS A COOK.—It appears that "Honest Abe" has, among his many accomplishments, considerable skill in the culinary department of life. This facility he acquired on board a British frigate, Mississippi, where he occupied the useful if not very dignified position of "cook." His success thus far as a kitchen politician, is pretty well explained by the following anecdote. We need fear, however, that he will prove unequal to the coming emergency; in which case the Republican broth will be spoiled. We shall not mourn.—N. Y. Day Book.

HON. S. A. DOUGLAS AT HARTFORD.
Hartford, July 16.—Senator Douglas arrived here this evening on his way to town. He was received at the cars by two military companies, and guns were fired in the Park in his honor. He was also handsomely met by a large number of people without regard to party.
The bill for the entertainment of the Japanese amount, collectively, to $125,000, while only $30,000 were appropriated by the city for that purpose. The bill of the Leland, of the Metropolitan Hotel, amounts to $95,000. The Japanese have thus far got the best of us, their entire expenses, from the time they left Japan until they once more land on their native soil, being borne by our federal government and the cities in the United States which entertained them. The most sagacious and far-seeing merchants of New York think, however, that we shall be amply repaid by the large profits which the trade which will shortly spring up between the two countries.

During their stay in New York, the members of the embassy made a much better impression upon our business men than upon any other class of our citizens. Machinery, weaving, silk-butching, &c., interested our oriental visitors far more than the concerts, balls and processions gotten up in their honor. They also showed a marked preference for goods of American manufacture which was of course flattering to our vanity; and that this preference was not feigned is evident from the fact that they purchased a large amount of private line goods, and on speculation, I saw several of them, on the day before they sailed, in various large stores, completing their arrangements for being supplied with such goods as they might order from home. They were very keen and astute.

NEW YORK, July 18.
DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT AN ESCAPE.—Six of the convicts attempted to escape from Sing Sing Penitentiary to-day. One of them, named John Kenn, was killed. The ringleader was knocked senseless.
WASHINGTON, July 17.
DELAWARE POLITICS.—A Union rally was held in Delaware at Dover to-day, when the following Executive Ticket was formed: Henry Dupont, of New Castle county; J. P. Mills, of Kent county, and C. M. Cullen, of Sussex county.
Resolutions endorsing Bell and Everett were adopted. A resolution to nominate a representative to Congress created a stormy debate.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad Company, was held in Raleigh on Thursday last. Dr. W. H. H. was called to the chair, and Mr. Webb and E. R. Stanly, Esqrs., were appointed Secretaries.
The Hon. D. M. Barringer, Robt. P. Dick, W. M. T. Dortch, Paul Cameron, John L. Shaver, P. B. Hawkins, Saml. Hargrove, and J. D. Bellamy, Esqrs., were appointed directors on behalf of the State. Giles Mebane, Alex. McRae, C. F. Fisher and Richard Ashe, Esqrs., were elected directors by the Company.—Raleigh Press.

In a motion to the above, we learn that Mr. Fisher declined a reelection, but it was insisted that he should remain in his present position, and he was therefore re-elected President of the road without opposition. J. W. Thomas, of Davidson, represented the State.
A dividend of three per cent. has been declared to Stockholders after paying into the State Treasury a dividend of 10 per cent. on the one million dollars of preferred stock.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR EYES.—One of the most eminent oculists in the city has for some time been engaged in the manufacture of a new kind of eyeglass, which he has spent some thousands of dollars in vain, and lost years of time, in consequence of getting up several hours before day and standing by artificial light. His eyes will never get well.
He has lately discovered a new way of looking at things for life, by the top fine use of eye-sight in reading fine print and doing fine sewing. In view of these things it will be well to observe the following rules in the use of the eyes:
Avoid all sudden changes between light and darkness.
Never begin to read, write or sew, for several minutes after coming from darkness to a bright light.
Never read by twilight, or moonlight, or on a very cloudy day.
Do not sit or stand directly in front of the light, or window, or door.
It is best to have the light fall from above obliquely over the left shoulder.
Never sleep on the side on which you are reading, or writing, or sewing, or doing any other work which requires the use of the eyes.
Do not use the eyes so long that it requires an effort to discriminate.
The moment you are instinctively prompted to rub your eyes, stop at once, and close them for a few minutes.
If the eyes are glued together, or if you cannot do anything else, then rub them with the saliva with the finger—it is the speediest dilutant in the eye, and it will clear your eyes and face in warm water.—Hills Journal.

Our New York Correspondence.
NEW YORK, July 16, 1860.
ERROR OF THE CAROLINIAN: You must not expect anything definite, reliable or certain, as to the probabilities of this city just now, everything is uncertain. I have never seen less enthusiasm manifested, either by politicians or the people at large, during the summer preceding a Presidential election. The rank and file of the democracy can scarcely realize as yet that there are actually two Presidential candidates of their party in the field. We are rubbing our eyes to make sure that we are actually awake, and not dreaming. The general sentiment of New York democrats who take an interest in politics, is that it is best to wait, and not to have any of the candidates of the party to assist in from republicans and recommendations calculated to irritate the sore that may yet possibly be healed before next November. I believe myself, that it is best to give the leaders of the party every opportunity of devising some means of beating Lincoln. I shall therefore, have little or nothing to say on politics, one way or the other, for a few weeks, for fear of contributing, in however indirect and humble way, to the success of the democratic party which threatens to deliver us over to the tender mercies of an abolition President.
All who can afford it have started or are about to start for the country, and a great many who cannot afford it are of equally strong opinion. During the Spring and Autumn months, the country is very pleasant, and I have never been able to find any place in which so many outlets to the disagreeableness of the dog-days can be found as in New York. With bays and rivers all round us, our magnificent country, with its parks, its mountains, its steamers leaving the city for every port, its fine parks, its public libraries, the most commodious, elegant and well-ventilated theatres, concert rooms and hotel parlors on the continent—with everything that nature has provided and human ingenuity has invented, it is no wonder that the country is so popular. I have never been able to understand why it is that during the very season at which it is unquestionably the most comfortable place on the continent, however, let those go who wish to. We never miss them. Twenty or thirty thousand persons more or less in New York neither desire nor need the facilities of our metropolitan life. This annual exodus adds retail business, of course; and this year the visitors to the Great Western will spend more money here than our resident citizens who have gone off to use watering places would have spent and they stand at some of our watering places. Hicks, the pirate, was out on Friday on Bell's Island, between the Battery and Staten Island, in presence of some twenty or twenty-five thousand people. Every boat, sail, row, screw, barge and steamer that could be got out was characterized by speculators to survey passengers to the bay, from which the execution was to be carried out. Many of these steamers had on board like passengers or sailors, the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton bands were also advertised as provided for the occasion. Hicks, in an autobiography, published since his death, confesses to have been the author of the Bell's Island execution. The "Bonnie Boy" has arrived with Jack Macdonald, his trainer. Heena is determined to fight Morrissey once more, if there is such a thing as getting the latter to consent to the arrangement. Although Morrissey is a very good fighter, and has been which he has been in the most distinguished and distinguished in the execution, and at the close of the "performance," to complete the day by a trip to the fishing banks. Cotton