Rock me to Sleep.

Backward, turn backward, oh, Time in your flight, Make me a child again, just for to-night!

Accident at the Capitol.—During the display of fireworks at the Capitol last night, a gentleman by the name of Tinsley was crowded off the upper promenade, and falling on the left side of his face,

He was severely, though it is thought not fatally, injured. He was taken into the treasurer's office, and promptly received medical attention.

N. Y. Union and American.

Who never relaxes his sportiveness is a wearisome companion; but beware of him who jests at everything! such men disparage by some ludicrous association, all objects which are presented to their thoughts, and thereby render themselves incapable of any emotion, which can either elevate or soften.

Life is what we make it. Let us call back images of joy and gladness rather than those of grief and care. The latter may sometimes be our guests to supper and dine, but let them never be permitted to loiter.

It was said of a great writer recently deceased, His life is a lesson; an incentive and example. Truth, purity, unaffected humility combined with steady, persevering, wisely directed labor, characterized his whole career.

Avarice in old age, says Cicero, is foolish; for what can be more absurd than to increase our provisions for the road nearer we approach our journey's end?

Those who endeavor to imitate us, we like much better than those who endeavor to equal us. Imitation is a sign of esteem, but competition of envy.

Faithful, unselfish, and patient, like yours.
Not like a mother can charm away pain.
From the sick soul and world-weary brain; Slumber's soft calm o'er my heavy lids creep—Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

From the Journal.
In pursuance of a call made through the papers of the Union and American, a large and enthusiastic assemblage of the citizens of the County of New Hanover, and upon motion of Dr. J. Berry of Fayetteville, N. C., the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the election of a President and Vice President by the Republican party of the North, upon grounds purely sectional, and altogether hostile to the rights and interests of the Southern States, cuts off the last hope of preservation of our Union; and that it is consequently the imperative duty of the State of North Carolina to prepare for assuming her position as an Independent Sovereign.

Resolved, That a Convention of the people of North Carolina should be called without delay, for the purpose of deliberating upon the best mode of maintaining the dignity and honor of the State in this great crisis of her history; and for providing for her withdrawal from the Confederacy of the United States.

Resolved, That in view of the perils by which we are surrounded, we consider it the imperative duty of our Legislature to proceed speedily to enact a law authorizing and arm the militia of the State.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be communicated by the Hon. the Governor to our Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, to be by them brought before their respective Houses.

Resolved, That the proceedings be published in the papers of the town, and that they request the papers throughout the State to copy.

On motion of O. G. Parsley, Jr., Esq., the meeting adjourned.

THE BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.—MR. PHELAN THE VICTOR.—The last game of the billiard tournament, says the New York Times of Friday, was played yesterday at the billiard rooms, Fourteenth street, Union square. The game, according to announcement, was between Dudley Kavanaugh, champion of the prize cue, and Mr. Phelan. The room was crowded with gentlemen and ladies. Messrs. Phelan and Kavanaugh were warmly applauded upon a winning the arena, and also at times during the game.

The greatest interest was shown by the audience during the fluctuations in the game, which, for the first two hundred points, was greatly in favor of Kavanaugh, Phelan seeming out of practice. As the game progressed, both came out within a few points of each other upon completing each hundred, up to the six hundred, when Phelan took a decided lead, and kept winning the game by sixty points, out of a total of 750. In his play Mr. Phelan showed some splendid combinations, by which he made the most difficult caroms after taking four or five shots. His ability to nurse the balls, and when they were standing in many instances, was the most striking feature in his play. He was very careful in every point of the science of billiards. Thirty innings were played, averaging twenty-five points. Phelan's highest runs over 40, of which there were several, were 51, 64, 59, 51, 69, 63, 51 and 58—total 750. The prize cue will be presented to Mr. Kavanaugh at two o'clock to-day, by Mr. Phelan at his room, corner of Tenth street and Broadway.

THE BIRD AND THE MAIDEN.—A summer bird that has lingered late in the autumn, leaving its timid footprints in the first fall snow, ever reminds us of that delicate fair one in light thin slippers, and a cold icy pavement. The bird, however, can escape to a warm clime, and in the spring he can reappear, and out the lady is or that journey which, though no return. The music of the bird may gain, when den its native tree, but her voice will not gain the hearth of her home. The barges of sorrow and the slowly returning breeze will soon tell what that shipper had done. It has taken you, you, in the bloom of life one that we loved, but who can not listen to the voice of admonition. Her bright days are now passed, the light of her countenance has faded, and the grave carries the deep couch of her repose. But a voice speaks tenderly from the grave to those whom she left behind; it whispers the admonition which she disregarded. Shall the words be not heard. It is a sister's voice that pleads.

RHINOCEROS SHOT.—Readers of natural history will be aware that it is stated that the hide of a rhinoceros will resist a bullet. This fact was put to the test, at Dan Rice's circus on Saturday night.
Capt. Travis, the famous marksman, fired a bullet at the animal on exhibition at the show; it fell to the ground flattened by contact with the thick skin.
The animal did not even move when he was struck.

If we wish our children to receive high things simple, and pure, and lovely, we must set the example.

Light & Bradburys'
Patent Insulated Full Iron Frame new Scale.
Grand and Square Piano-Fortes.

The Insulated Iron Frame preserves the original tone of the instrument in all its parts, and secures it for all time against that most disagreeable tinniness of tone invariably found in all other Iron frame Piano-Fortes. It greatly strengthens the case and keeps the Pianoforte much longer in tune. It gives the instrument a purer, fuller, richer and sweeter tone. It adapts the Piano to all climates and to all changes of atmosphere and in all respects it is pronounced by the most celebrated artists as the greatest improvement of the age in Piano-Forte construction; producing an instrument acknowledged to be superior to all others made in this country or Europe.

A few testimonials in regard to the superiority of our New Scale Patent Insulated Piano-Fortes.
I have examined the Piano-Fortes of Light & Bradburys with entire satisfaction. I know not that there are any others better, either in our own country or elsewhere.—DR. J. W. LITTLE, In "Clearness, richness, and volume of tone, delicacy, elasticity of touch, and fine repeating action, I have never played upon their equal."—H. A. WOOLSEY, In "volume, richness, evenness, and purity of tone and in delicacy of touch they certainly excel, and in a that beautiful singing quality so desirable yet so seldom found."—Wm. A. LITTLE, I have never played upon so rich and heavy a tone Square Piano-Forte.—ARTHUR NAPOLSON, I am astonished and delighted with the New Scale Iron Frame Piano-Fortes made by you. There must be a splendid future for Light & Bradburys' Piano Fortes.—Geo. F. ROY,
I have never played upon so fine an instrument."
Geo. F. BISHOP,
I consider them as to beauty, richness, fullness and equality of tone, as well as their agreeable, elastic touch, equal if not superior to any Pianos made in this country or Europe.
In power, quantity, and equality of tone, they certainly excel; while for that peculiar rich and singing tone so invaluable as an accompaniment to the voice, I have never met their equal.—D. BUSTIN, They have all the requirements for a superior instrument of both classical and modern compositions."

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it permeates the whole body, and may burst out from its attacks, not in three or four, but in many different parts of the system. It is communicated by hereditary taint, and lively habits, the depressing vices, and above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever is its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, and is transmitted to children from the third and fourth generations; indeed, it seems to be the root of all the diseases which visit the human race. It is the cause of the scrofulous constitution, which renders the system liable to a variety of diseases, and is the source of all the scrofulous diseases, which are so common in this country. It is the cause of all the
