There can no better medium for advertising than through our columns, as our paper goes daily into the hands of its many readers, thus keeping them ever reminded of our advertising merchants and as the chief reason for constant advertising is to have the advertisements read as often as possible, the advantage of advertising in THE DAILY ARGUS is at once evident, as our patrons will have their advertisements read fresh every day. LOCAL BRIEFS.

Every day brings new subscribers to THE ARGUS; many of whom are old ones coming back—coming back to their Democratic moorings again.

Messrs. T. W. Stocumb, J. C. Slocumb, E. G. Porter and Master John Stocumb left yesterday for Richmond to attend the Davis Memorial services to-day.

How about the thoroughfare along John street from Walnut street southward two squares? Was it not to be paved, as one of the main market streets, before others?

The town of Fremont, this county, which has been "dry" for several years, will hold a "local option" election next month.

The best bicycle record in this vicinity was made on the track Friday evening by Messrs. E. B. Borden, Jr., and C. B. Miller, who scored a run of 5 miles in 19 minutes.

Mr. A. Well, of Wilmington, who lived in Charlotte during the war, and whose home there was a welcome asylum for President Davis, when the latter was homeless, was in the city yesterday.

The new city ordinances are in the hands of our printers and will appear in a few days. In the meantime the present city "statutes" prevail and all violations thereof will be dutifully adjudicated by the Lord Mayor.

FOLLOWING the destruction last week of Winston's largest tobacco factory—that of P. M. Hanes & Co.—by fire, comes the news that the next largest tobacco factory of the town, that of H. H. Reynolds, has failed for something over one hundred thousand dollars.

It will be greatly regretted by the many friends of Miss Foote in this city, that she is soon to leave Goldsboro for Wilson, Mrs. S. I. Griffin having decided to close her millinery branch store here and centre all her force in her Wilson store. To this end she is now offering her goods here at cost for the next week.

The police gave chase to a derv key Sunday who was wanted for stealing a suit of clothes from Mr. Bob Jones, about three weeks ago. He was on the alert, however, and "got a move on him" before the officer could come upon him, and made good his escape for the present.

SOME dry goods, pilfered from the store of Messrs. Hall & Edmundson Saturday night, were incidentally found by a passer by, Sunday afternoon, secreted under one of the street bridges on Walnut street near the court house. The culprit has not yet been fully determined upon, although the police are working up the case.

Two white men, somewhat intoxicated, and rather indefinite and uncertain as to their names and abodes, though finally settled upon as being from the neighborhood of Ball Head in Greene county, were caught in the act of cutting out of the wood holdings of the glass front of Mr. L. D. Giddens jewelry show window Saturday night about 11 o'clock. The case was adjusted in the Mayor's court yesterday morning.

THE remains of Mrs. Ida M. Poole, wife of Mr. W. R. Poole, of Clayton, who died at the home of her father, Mr. Jenkins, at Fremont, Friday, passed through this city yesterday en route for Clayton for interment. She had been declining her health for a length of time and her death was not unexpected. She leaves several children and many friends to mourn her death.

LUM Keng, the Chinese laundryman of this city, Tuesday applied to the Register of Deeds for license to marry a negro girl; but the Register declined to issue the coveted document on account of the age of the girl, who is too young to contract for herself without the consent of her parents; and as she is the ward of her grandmother, her father being dead and her mother doing service in Washington, D. C., the license could not be secured, until the mother is heard from in writing giving her consent. It is a novel procedure all round.

It has been suspected for quite a while that there is an organized band of thieves—or "hookers"—that operate along the lines of the Railroads and that have accomplices in every town of any size where it is likely that they can secure desirable booty. Officer Swearingen, who never lets a suspicious circumstance or character pass unawares, scooped a colored man here Monday evening for "investigation" and while he was investigating it was found that the negro was wanted in Wilmington on numerous grave charges. His name is Allan Williams and the Wilmington authorities sent for him yesterday evening.

CAPT. R. P. Howell is off to West Point, to attend the commencement exercises of the U. S. Military Academy, from which his son George graduates this year. The exercises will open on June 1st., and conclude June 10th.

THE death of the estimable wife of our good friend and courteous Mr. Moses B. Britt, whose serious illness was announced in THE ARGUS several days ago, occurred at their home near Fremont Wednesday last, aged 32 years, of consumption. She was an exemplary Christian, and greatly beloved by all who knew her. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of his hosts of friends in his irreparable loss.

THE death of little Eliza Edgerton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Thompson, occurred yesterday at noon, at their home on John street, age 11 months and 24 days. The bereaved young parents have the inexpressible sympathy of their many friends in their sad visitation. But when we know that "unless we become as little children" we can never see His face, which is the joy of the elect, we should not sorrow for the baby that is called unto Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The funeral will be held from the home this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. B. R. Hall, officiating.

THE Wilmington Messenger of yesterday, in copying the notice of THE ARGUS in regard to the selection of Mr. R. A. Creech for Assistant Postmaster here, gives utterance to the following kind expression: "The above is taken from the Goldsboro Argus of yesterday and will be read with pleasure by Mr. Creech's many friends in Wilmington. For many years he was connected with the Messenger as book-keeper, and he proved himself capable, efficient and painstaking in the discharge of his duties. Just such a man will make a good assistant postmaster at Goldsboro, and the postmaster and the city are both to be congratulated upon the selection."

AN ENJOYABLE EVENT.

THE "Wooden Wedding" reception tendered by Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Hoffmann Monday evening, which, owing to the weather, was held in the spacious dining hall of the Arlington, instead of on the lawn of Col. J. A. Washington's home, as at first intended, was indeed a most brilliant and enjoyable occasion—delightfully informal and largely attended by their numerous friends in this city. And the high appreciation in which these good people are held in this community was made manifest to them by the splendid galaxy of "wooden" presents, superb, beautiful and useful that graced the occasion, from the magnificent side-board, the gift of the "Goldsboro Rifles," to the curious "Columbian Clock" that ticked the pleasant hours away.

A very pleasing feature of the evening was the visit of the Goldsboro Rifles in full dress uniform, Mr. Hoffmann being their revered chaplain. Besides their beautiful present above mentioned, "the boys" marched into the hall with a wash-tub as a bass drum and a water bucket for a snare drum, and each member wearing a clothes pin on the lapel of his coat, which they afterwards deposited in the afore-said "drums" placed before their chaplain, with whom and his wife each member shook hands as the company filed by. The refreshments served in lavish abundance were highly enjoyed, as was also the delightful poem of Mr. Hoffmann to his wife on the anniversary, which was read at the feast.

The Overflow.

VICKSBURG, May 29.—There are at least ten thousand homeless and hungry people in East Carroll, Morehouse, West Carroll and Madison Parishes, La., and the suffering and privations they are undergoing is appalling. With the exception of a few small elevations, the whole of the northeastern portion of the State is under water. Forty-four negroes were rescued from a perilous position near Swan Lake, East Carrollton Parish, Sunday night. They were almost insane from hunger, having been without food four days. Two children died Friday from exposure. Their bodies were wrapped in blankets and thrown into the raging waters, there being no dry ground in which to bury them, nor implements with which to dig graves. An old hermit was rescued four miles from Swan Lake, who had been without food three days. When found he was sitting astride of his home, munching the meat from the bones of his dog, which he had been compelled to kill. Gov. Foster has sent all the tents at his command to the sufferers at Lake Providence.

NEWBORN Journal: The potato shipping season is fairly upon us. The first shipment of consequence was Friday, 500 barrels by the steamer John W. Garrett, the next day the steamer Newark had 2,000 barrels of potatoes, (besides 1,000 barrels each of cabbage and beans) and quite a large proportion of the seven cars of truck carried by the A. & N. C. R. R. into Goldsboro was potatoes. The next day the railroad had a train of ten cars with an increase in the packages of potatoes and the steamer shipments were full.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN.

Mr. J. A. Stevens gives facts and Cites Authorities that cannot be controverted.

The demand for Mr. Stevens' card has been so great that we find it necessary to republish it in this issue.—Ed.

Editor Argus:—On April 26th, 1893 I sent you for publication an article containing my views upon the resolutions recently adopted by the Wayne County Alliance, and also some comments upon the action of the legislature in amending the charter of the Alliance.

Since that time I have been roundly abused by the Caucasian and Pro Farmer, but the principal reply to me has been abuse. The statement in my communication that raises the biggest howl is this: "A great many of the lecturers of North Carolina last year were third party candidates. And still they were paid out of the Alliance fund $4,364.18. And if I am not very much mistaken Mr. Graham was called upon for $1,200 to help pay that and other expenses of the State meeting." This was the charge made, and the reply is a card signed by Messrs. Alexander, Johnson, Mowborne, Butler and others, saying that "no sum was appropriated or used last year in the interest of the People's party, and that no sum was paid for lecturing after May meeting of ex-com. or for other than legitimate expenses of the Alliance."

I now reiterate what I did say: "The Alliance lecturers in N. C. last year were paid $4,364.18, and a great many of them were Third party candidates. This I assert as the truth, and no man can deny it." Of the names to the com. card, 5 of them were candidates, 4 Third party, one a Democrat. Now let's see who has lied: They say, "By order of the ex-com., at the May meeting last year all the Alliance lecturers were withdrawn from the field, this being several weeks prior to the first start to organize a new party." Let's see about that. In March last year, Mr. J. M. Mowborne, Dist. lecturer, Dr. J. E. Pearson, Co. lecturer, accompanied by Mr. A. L. Swinson, then Co. secretary, canvassed Wayne Co. Messrs. Mowborne and Pearson would open the hall for the Alliance, Mr. Swinson would close the scene with a long speech in favor of a new party, and would say all manner of evil against the Democratic organization. Well do I remember their meeting with Falling Creek Alliance Messrs. Mowborne and Pearson giving short speeches, followed by Mr. Swinson. My worst political enemy now (the strongest friend then) said to me, after Mr. Swinson closed his remarks, if he was allowed to make such political speeches as that in the Alliance he would ruin the order.

Right here I would call Mr. Mowborne's attention to the fact, that he closed his canvass in Wayne that he might be in Kingston at the organization of the People's party for Le Noir Co., which was either the last Saturday in March or the first Saturday in April. A few days after holding forth at Falling Creek Mr. Swinson organized the People's party at Providence and issued a call for a county mass meeting to be held in Goldsboro April 16th, for the purpose of completing the Co. organization.

Mr. Butler, State President, fearing Mr. Swinson would get ahead of him, intercepted Mr. Swinson, and held an Alliance meeting in the court house that day. After delivering his Alliance address he gave as reason why we should stick to the Democratic party, and called on all who would attend the coming Democratic conventions and support their comites to stand up, and nearly every one in the crowded court room stood up. Mr. Swinson and 5 or 6 of his followers, who were honest in their convictions, did not rise.

We all remember the Swinson circular denouncing Mr. Butler. In a very short time Mr. Swinson did organize the People's party for the county. Thus we see the new party organized in Wayne and Lenoir in April. It is to be presumed the balance of the State was operated upon in the same way. At least, the Butler conference revealed the fact that such was the case.

The statement in the Pro Farmer that I was active in securing the repeal of the Alliance charter and voted for its repeal is false. There was a difference of opinion as to what ought to be done, and upon the passage of the bill I did not vote. In my former communication I say, first that many of the Alliance lecturers, last year were Third party candidates. This cannot be denied, and if denied can be easily proven.

I say next, the lecturers were paid $4,364.18 out of Alliance funds. We turn to proceedings of State Alliance at Greensboro August 9th, 10th and 11th 1892, on page 9 and find, among the disbursements of the treasurer, the item—"For lecturing $4,364.18."

I say further, that Mr. Graham, trustee of the B. A. Fund, has been called upon for $1,200 to defray expenses of lecturing and other expenses.—"Resolved, That the Executive Committee of this State Alliance be authorized and directed to borrow for the use of this Alliance $1,200 from the Trustee of the Business Agency Fund, and to repay the same from the receipts of the office of Secretary Treasurer and State Business Agent, above necessary expenses; and the trustee is authorized to withdraw interest due on said funds to secretary treasurer's office until same is paid."

ed by the committee in the compensation allowed delegates applied to the delegate attending the meeting of '92 while $375 was paid by Mr. Butler was given him without objection. Turning again to proceedings, page 30, I find the following: "By request, the President made a ruling as to the amendment as per mileage of delegates and other members which was as follows: That the change in the constitution as to actual transportation expenses should apply to this meeting," and on page 33 I find the following: "Brother J. M. Mowborne made a statement in regard to a loan made to President Butler by order of the Executive committee through W. H. Worth for $455. On motion the amount of $455 was remitted to Bro. Butler, and the note held against him by W. H. Worth ordered to be cancelled."

It will be seen on page 9, that in addition to making President Butler a present of $455, as above stated, he was paid his full salary $300, and was allowed $512.15 for expenses. The items making the total of expenses are not given. It has been said that the amendments to the charter originated in the evil minds of the legislators, that there were no reasons to be urged in their favor, that there was simply a desire to change the Alliance, and the amendment most objectionable, that allowing the funds contributed by a member to be withdrawn. Those who say this do not know the facts, or knowing them they will not give to the people. They are Alliance men only in so far as the name is synonymous with Third party men, and no further.

I say that the records of the Alliance show a necessity for some change, in its more expensive than applications to the trustee for money that many people desired to withdraw their funds and could not do so.

On page 8 of proceedings of '92 I find a report of the Executive committee signed by Messrs. Alexander & Mowborne, from which I take this extract:

"Your committee would recommend the change of the lecture system. It is more expensive than it should be. We have heretofore had the good work accomplished is not in proportion to its cost." This shows that a change in the system is desirable, that the expense has increased, and that results are not in proportion to cost. In plain language, we would call this extravagance. On page 13, I find the trustee's report, from which I make this extract: "There are frequent applications to the trustee for return of money contributed to the fund, several hundred having been received this year. There is no provision for return of contributions, except on dissolution of State Alliance. The trustee's bond would be responsible for any money so returned. There are also suggestions sometimes to have it used as a cash fund in the hands of a State Business agent. Under the conditions which I have heretofore stated, it is impossible to do. If any change is possible, I suggest that Ex. Com. be instructed to obtain authority by law for the action."

The Pro Farmer has said that only 13 have applied since the adjournment of the legislature to have the amounts contributed by them refunded. Is it not strange that the "several hundred" who according to the trustee's report desired their money before they could get it, do not call for it now? The truth is they are calling for it, and are not getting it, and the great reason of the cry raised, and of the threat to publish the names of those who ask for their money is that it is not on hand to pay with. If the Pro Farmer and the Caucasian doubt this, I will furnish several from the trustee, written since the adjournment of the legislature, saying, in substance, that he has the money on hand to pay with, that he will make some collections, and may be able to pay in June or July.

I do not intend to say that the trustee has squandered any part of the fund, and I know of no reason for making the charge. I presume that he has held the fund and paid it out as directed.

The report of the trustee also shows that under the constitution and charter of the Alliance there was no power to authorize the withdrawal of the money contributed, and that this power could only be granted by the law-making power—the legislature. "Several hundred" were asking for the money contributed by them to be refunded, there was no power under the charter and constitution to refund this money, and under these circumstances the legislature, following the suggestion of the trustee, comes in and amends the charter so that money contributed might be withdrawn. Is this a great crime?

Many of the men who wished to withdraw their money paid it in believing that it was being contributed to a non-political organization for good ends. They now believed it was being used against their interest, for political purposes. I think they were entitled to their money, and it is strange to me that there should be a difference of opinion upon this. You and I are partners—I believe you are squandering the money for bad purposes. If there is no way for me to get my money, ought not one to be made? In addition to this, Capt. Powell, Chairman of the legislative committee of the Alliance, told several members of the legislature that the change ought to be made. I have written more than I intended and would write more, but I wish my article to be read, as it is in reply to personal attacks upon the Pro Farmer of May 16th, after publishing the card of Messrs. Alexander, Mowborne and others, saying, "All the papers that have published Stevens' letter, the Observer included, are expected to publish the above denial, or else they will be open to the charge of treating the Alliance and individuals unfairly." By the same rule I call upon this paper and the Caucasian to publish this communication in full. I do not reply to any of their personal flings, because it is below the plane of legitimate discussion, and because they emanate from the editors of the Caucasian and the Pro Farmer. Very truly, J. T. A. STEVENS.

Electric Sparks.

A Macon, Ga., dispatch says: The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church adjourned Saturday evening at 9 o'clock, after nine days session. The Briggs case before the Presbyterian Assembly at Washington was postponed till Monday. During a discussion, Dr. Hollifield said that the "Episcopal Church was nothing more than a back door to Rome."

A Fostoria, Ohio, dispatch says: J. B. Gormley, assignee of ex-funct Secretary Foster, states that further investigation shows the affairs to be in even a worse shape than at first thought, and that the liabilities reach $800,000, possibly $1,000,000 with assets much less.

To Stop at Danville.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—A slight change is today announced by the Richmond & Danville officials in the route to be followed by the Davis funeral train. After the stop at Raleigh, the train, instead of going direct via Keyville to Richmond, will return via Greensboro and Danville, stopping at the latter point, the last Capital of the Confederacy, long enough to give the people of that city and surrounding country an opportunity to honor the dead chieftain. The funeral train will reach Danville about 7 p. m. on Tuesday, May the 30th.

NEW ORLEANS, May 27.—Early this morning the body of Jefferson Davis in its copper receptacle was transferred to a magnificent oak casket with heavy brass trimmings. The casket in which the remains originally rested was returned to the vault and it was closed with a marble slab upon which was a fac simile of the signature of Jefferson Davis, and it will remain in that condition as long as the tomb of the Army of Northern Virginia stands. The transfer was made early and privately at the family's request. The body was naturally decomposed but was in a fair state of preservation and the face was recognizable. A guard of the Army of Northern Virginia veterans remained at the tomb all day.

At 3 o'clock a mounted escort of the army of the Northern Virginia veterans arrived and shortly thereafter the escort conducted the casket in a close hearse to the memorial hall, which was reached at 5:10 p. m. Here the casket was received in silence by the United Confederate veterans and placed upon an oak catafalque, and exposed to public view.

PREPARATIONS AT RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Va., May 27.—All arrangements in reference to the programme of the day, May 31st, the occasion of the re-interment of the remains of Hon. Jefferson Davis, have been completed, and an immense crowd will witness and participate in the exercises. Prominent ex-Confederates from all over the country will be in attendance. Among the veteran organizations there will be some twenty-five Confederate Camps from Virginia, while North Carolina, South Carolina, Washington and Maryland will send organized contingents.

INTER-DENOMINATIONAL.

(Cor. ARGUS.) MAGNOLIA, M. C., May 29.—The Inter-denominational Sunday School Convention of Duplin county, met in the Baptist church at Magnolia May 26th, at 2 p. m. In this convention great interest and enthusiasm was shown, and we feel safe in saying that all present were benefitted by it, and that the great cause of Sunday school work was promoted.

Every township reported, and most of the schools in these townships reported very good work being done—not as good as could be—but such progress is being made that we should feel encouraged. The subjects discussed during the Convention were, "Should all denominations work together to advance the Sunday School cause in the State?" "How to kill a Sunday School," and "Teachers and Teaching." Rev. McMillan, Rome, Shaw and Pele made interesting as well as instructive talks on these subjects.

Rev. G. W. McMillan taught the adult class through the Convention, and presented the subject to the minds of the class in a very instructive way. The infant or primary class was taught by Miss Bertha Johnson, whose subject was "A Model Teacher." This subject was presented to the class by the use of a black board.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President—S. J. Veach, Warsaw, N. C.; Vice-President—S. B. Newton, Xenia, N. C.; Secretary—Miss Annie Glisson, Magnolia, N. C.; Assistant Secretary—J. O. Hollingsworth, Magnolia, N. C. Executive Committee—B. C. Barber, Magnolia, N. C.; C. S. Carr, Xenia, N. C.; G. W. Pridgeon, Warsaw, N. C.

Courting in Baltimore.

Baltimore has astonished her friend by issuing an unexpected order that love making, of the overt sort, must stop in the public squares and parks. The proximate cause for the order appears to have been the behavior of a young couple who were observed kissing each other; they were arrested, poor young things, and the man was fined $20, and the girl $5. The proportion may have been some solace to her, and indeed it does exhibit a rather tardy justice to Mother Eve, but the fine and the subsequent prohibition must have caused an intense glow of indignation in the breasts of fair Baltimoreans, who have been encouraged to view courtship rather as an estate honorable to the good looks for which they are known.

To think of Baltimore reviving the blue laws and declaring public undergarments a breach of the peace! Mason and Dixon never drew that line. We have all heard of the agreeable Southern gentleman who was "a mighty triflin' fellow—he beat his wife!" but the reproach involved in the epithet has never before in Dixie's land been visited upon the young man who kissed his sweetheart, even coram populo. In point of fact, there are a great many people, and they are not confined to the Southern States, either, who consider that courtship when limited to glances, sighs and stammers is an unsatisfactory affair altogether—as for them, give them harmless liberties or give them death. And in the matter of confronting the dulcet relation to the front parlor or the sitting room, why that is a question of the weather, not of the city ordinances.

No, no, Baltimore will have to retract her hasty action. The precedent of the virtuous indignation of Mr. Bumble when he caught Noah Claypoole kissing Charlotte is an unsound one, even though Mr. Bumble's position was parochial. Mr. Bumble turned out to be a sad hypocrite. And there is one law about kissing which is pretty new as inevitable as the centrifugal force, and the Baltimore authorities may be certain it will be observed without their troubling themselves. Kissing goes by favor. It is a corollary from this that the honestest kind of kissing is that which doesn't run and hide.

Surely the Baltimore restrictions will never win approval on the Eastern Sho.—Phila. Times.
