

Goldshorn Weekly Argus.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The abundant success of the teachers' institute that closed in Goldsboro last Friday is gratifying to the County Superintendent.

Prof. Joyner, of the Normal School at Greensboro, was secretary of the institute.

For many days before the institute met, Prof. Howell was active in securing places of entertainment...

Another feature of the institute, contributing to the same feeling, was the reception given the teachers by the townspeople...

The institute was fortunate in having two public addresses in the Opera House by President Slocyer...

On Friday before adjourning to go to the Opera House, the following resolutions were introduced...

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Wayne county in session assembled, tender our sincere thanks to the people of Goldsboro...

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Wayne county in session assembled, tender our sincere thanks to the people of Goldsboro...

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Jno. S. Bassett, of Goldsboro, recently from Johns Hopkins University, and Professor of history in Trinity College...

The library of the graded school was thrown open to the teachers and freely consulted by them.

Prof. Howell made a talk on literature in the schools. He told the teachers it was not enough simply to teach children how to read.

The teachers were gratified at the presence of the Chairman of the County Board of Education, Mr. N. W. Misgrave...

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Wayne county in session assembled, tender our sincere thanks to the people of Goldsboro...

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

he faced a grave danger. There was death in the air. The bullets were flying fast and he gave up all hope of seeing home again.

It is believed by some that the descendants of this colony now reside in Robeson county, North Carolina, but this claim is disputed by others.

The site of this colony was lost to the world until in 1654 a party of explorers from Jamestown visited Roanoke Island.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

THE OLD 'CITY OF RALEIGH.'

It is well known that the first active association of the English with the American Continent was at Roanoke Island, North Carolina, in 1584.

At the end of three years help arrived from the Old World, but there was found no memorial of the colony except silent graves.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the papers of Goldsboro for publication.

CHICAGO STRIKE TROUBLE.

Debs and His Associates at Liberty Under Bail.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Debs, Howard, Kellier and Rogers are at liberty under bail, pending the hearing of the various cases against them.

The hearing of the contempt cases was continued until September 5th, and it is the purpose of the defendants' attorneys to force a hearing on the indictments before the contempt cases are again called.

The defendants all declare themselves ready for work tomorrow morning.

The Pullman invention is of movable berths, and adaptation of the sleeping-car to-day use.

The Pullman invention is of movable berths, and adaptation of the sleeping-car to-day use.

The Pullman invention is of movable berths, and adaptation of the sleeping-car to-day use.

The Pullman invention is of movable berths, and adaptation of the sleeping-car to-day use.

The Pullman invention is of movable berths, and adaptation of the sleeping-car to-day use.

The Pullman invention is of movable berths, and adaptation of the sleeping-car to-day use.

The Pullman invention is of movable berths, and adaptation of the sleeping-car to-day use.

The Pullman invention is of movable berths, and adaptation of the sleeping-car to-day use.

The Bentonville Monument.

EDITOR ARGUS: Dear Sir—In behalf of the Goldsboro Rifles, I write to thank the press throughout the State, and others, for the many kind things spoken of them in relation to their efforts to erect a monument on the battlefield near Bentonville, in memory of the heroic Confederate soldiers who laid down their lives for our beloved Southland.

We fully recognize that money is exceedingly tight, and that times are distressingly dull, therefore we have decided to hold a bazaar, and propose to put the price so low that all can help and, at the same time, get full value for their money.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken. This resting place has too long been unmarked, and a monument to their memory must and shall be erected.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

We propose to try to do our duty in perpetuating their memory. I appeal to the patriotism of every man, woman and child in our city and county to aid us in the task, though a pleasant one, we have undertaken.

GREAT FIRST CITIZEN.

So Senator Vilas Styles Mr. Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—There was a very noticeable absence of flurry and excitement in and about the Senate Chamber this morning as compared with the scenes of the last three days, and there was a corresponding falling off in the number of spectators in the galleries.

The resolution offered yesterday by Senator Allen, calling for copies of correspondence (telegraphic or otherwise) of the Department of Justice with railroad officers and the United States district attorney of United States district attorney of Chicago, during the recent industrial troubles in Chicago, was taken up and agreed to without objection.

At 2 o'clock p. m. the message from the House asking further conference on the Tariff bill was laid before the Senate, and Senators Vilas and Gray, and Senator Quay, withdrew the motion made by him yesterday to amend the pending motions of Senators Vilas and Gray, so as to put sugar on the free list.

Senator Gray raised the point of no quorum and the roll was called. Sixty-one Senators responded.

Senator Vilas took the floor and addressed the Senate in a two hours' speech, delivered off-hand and with much oratorical effect.

His speech was highly eulogistic of President Cleveland, whom he defended from the charges of duplicity, and of improper interference with legislation, made by Senator Gorman in his speech of Monday. He spoke of Mr. Cleveland as the "great first citizen of the republic" and as the representative of the national honor.

At the close of the debate, the vote was taken on Senator Hill's motion to recede from the duty of 40 cents a ton on iron ore and on coal.

At the suggestion of Senator Allison the motion was divided so that the vote should first be taken on iron ore. The vote resulted—yeas, 6; nays 65.

His motion in regard to coal was lost by the same vote. Senator Caffery withdrew his motion in favor of a modified sugar bounty for 1894.

The only question left was Senator Gray's motion to agree to the further conference asked by the House.

The only question left was Senator Gray's motion to agree to the further conference asked by the House.

IS IT WIT, OR WISDOM.

Scotland Neck Democrat.

If the Third party people all through the State will adopt and publish such resolutions as were adopted by the Edgecombe county Third party convention, they will show up badly before intelligent and reasonable people.

We cannot see how any man with proper ideas can either join or continue to affiliate with a party that adopts such a jargon of meaningless sentences as resolutions to represent their principles. Take them as an exponent of principles or as a sample of wit, they are not creditable to any party that would aspire to control the affairs of such a government as ours.

We print them, not for their literary merit in any sense of the word, neither for the principles they enunciate, for they enunciate none whatever, but to let that part of the world with which this paper comes in contact, see how senseless a jargon of words men may be induced to endorse.

The following resolutions were adopted by a unanimous rising vote: WHEREAS, The Honorable Grover Cleveland, the President of the United States, in the language of the campaign speakers of 1892, "is greater than his party;" and that "we love him for the enemies he has made," and by his administration he has proved that he is still greater than his own party. Therefore, be it Resolved, 1st. That we love him for the Populists he has made by his "soup house" administration.

2nd. That we thank him for leading his party into the ranks of the gold-bug plutocracy, so that his honest but deluded followers might see "where he and they were at."

3rd. That we have not seen the good times promised by the "give us a chance" speakers in 1892, and also by his message to Congress on the repeal of the Sherman silver bill; that probably they have been lost in the committee room, in the scramble over the tariff bill; that we recommend that he appoint a committee to search for the same.

4th. That while we do not approve of the Coxy method of petition to a gold-bug and monopolist Congress, by going to Washington to look for the good times promised by Mr. Cleveland and Congressmen, yet we sympathize with them in their distress, and recommend that hereafter they make their petition at the ballot box; that should they ever again go to interview a gold-bug monopolist Congress, they should travel on palace cars and have their pockets filled with gold; or make the trip in balloons so as to "keep off the grass."

5th. That hereafter when the "dear people" assist the monopolists and their agents to get into power and office, they, "the damn people," should immediately after the election, take a trip to the moon or some other place and stay until the next election day, so as to save expense of providing them with "free soup."

6th. That if Mr. Cleveland will aid us in the future as he will in the past, we pledge him that we will bury him by ballots in '96 so deep in private life that Queen Lil can never find him.

7th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the "Gleaner" with the urgent request that same be published; and other reform papers be requested to publish same.

JAS. B. LLOYD, Ch'm. Secretary.

FOR RENT: Two six room dwellings on North Bowdoin street, near St. John church; also one with four rooms on Beach street. Apply to J. M. Hollowell.

ALL your silverware, spoons, forks, also watches, lockets, rings, etc., engraved, NOW IS YOUR CHANCE. For next week I will do all kinds of letter and monogram work at greatly reduced prices. Medal work a specialty. Call and see me or send your work to L. D. GIDDENS.

ROSENBERG'S PAINTING. From one to five inches will be done by me. Prices reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed. "At Home," Miss Adele Galloway.

THE PERFORMERS OF VIOLETS. The perfume of the Lily, the glow of the rose, the blue of the blue combine in Fossard's wonderful perfume.

