GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY AUGUST 9, 1894.

NO. 40

ALL FOR ME.

Dear sweetheart, let the gleaming
Of your smiling be for me—
Let it cast a glowing brightness
On life's turbid, restless sea.
Let its sweetness ever greet me,
When the shade begins to loop
Dark curtains—as the sunbeams
Into arms of dreaming drop!

Dear sweetheart, the beating
Of your heart be all for me,
Let me feel it throbbing softly,
Let me know it 'twill ever be,
Filled with deep emotions,
That awake when I am near;
That will bind you closer, closer,
That will make you love me dear.

The Wool Schedule.

Tariff rates on wool and the New York price in January for each year from 1825 to 1892, excluding the period of deranged currency, taken from official records in the Treasury Department:

Year	Price	Year	Price
1825	40 3/4	1875	30 3/4
1826	43 3/4	1876	30 3/4
1827	43 3/4	1877	30 3/4
1828	43 3/4	1878	30 3/4
1829	43 3/4	1879	30 3/4
1830	43 3/4	1880	30 3/4
1831	43 3/4	1881	30 3/4
1832	43 3/4	1882	30 3/4
1833	43 3/4	1883	30 3/4
1834	43 3/4	1884	30 3/4
1835	43 3/4	1885	30 3/4
1836	43 3/4	1886	30 3/4
1837	43 3/4	1887	30 3/4
1838	43 3/4	1888	30 3/4
1839	43 3/4	1889	30 3/4
1840	43 3/4	1890	30 3/4
1841	43 3/4	1891	30 3/4
1842	43 3/4	1892	30 3/4

This table speaks louder than all the arguments of the protectionists. It shows that the price of wool has gone down as the tariff tax has gone up.
This is made clear by the following table of average prices from each tariff period from 1843 to 1892, inclusive:

Year	Price	Year	Price
1843-46	39 3/4	1887-90	35 3/4
1847-50	40 3/4	1891-92	37 3/4

THE POPE'S FIACO.

What They did in Raleigh Yesterday.
(Special to THE ARGUS.)
RALEIGH, N. C. Aug. 1.
The People's Party State convention to-day nominated W. T. Faircloth, of Goldsboro, for Chief-Justice; D. N. Furches, Walter Clark and H. G. Connor, for Associate Justices; and W. H. Worth for Treasurer.
The nominations were made without requiring the nominees to endorse or accept the platform.

Third Judicial District.

ROCKY MOUNT, Aug. 1.—The Third Judicial convention met here to-day and nominated Hon. Jacob Battle for Judge, and John E. Woddard, the present incumbent, for Solicitor of this district. The meeting was very harmonious.

THEN AND NOW.

Let Facts and Reason Prevail.
GRANTHAM, July 29, '94.
Dear Argus—This beautiful morning, when nature seems loveliness with itself and him mankind ought to be at peace with his neighbor and full of thankfulness to his God for the many blessings bestowed, especially for the beautiful crops given to our Southland, I propose commenting just a little on Mr. E. H. Parker's notice published in your esteemed daily of yesterday.

Pass the Tariff Bill.

The contradictory guesses made at Washington as to the outcome of the tariff conference may be accounted for by the divergent views of the opposing factions as to what the outcome ought to be. There are two kinds of obstructionists in the way of an agreement, the practical Senators who will accept no modification of their own terms and the theoretical Representatives who will make no terms at all. As between these two, agreement is impossible; the question is whether the few on either side are to govern the action of Congress or whether the urgent demand of the country at large, including the great body of the Democratic party who are not disposed to quibble either for abstract theories or for practical details, but who want the tariff issue settled now—can make itself felt above this war of factions.

JAPAN SHOOTS TO KILL.

It is quite usual for the party that is invited to a fight to complain that the party of the other part did not play fair, but there is more than the usual absurdity in the complaint of the Chinese and their British commercial allies that the Japanese have started in to fight without observing all the necessary formalities, and are fighting on the theory that warfare means destruction of life. The complaint that there has been no formal declaration of war between China and Japan is ridiculous. The dispatch of troops to Korea, under the existing conditions, was in itself an act of war, and the Chinese troops that were proceeding to Seoul on the transport that was sunk by the Japanese torpedo were as plainly engaged in warfare as though all the diplomatic formalities had been complied with in advance.

Our Fremont Letter.

Editor Argus. Mr. David Johnson's child who has been sick for some time, fell on sleep last Saturday evening, and has gone where all children go—to Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me." The parents have the sympathy of the community. Mr. Johnson is himself very sick.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

Russia Announces that She will Act with Great Britain.
SHANGHAI, August 2.—It is stated to-day that the Japanese have withdrawn all their troops with Seoul. It is also rumored that 30,000 Chinese soldiers have crossed the Korean frontier.

Passing Away.

Judge Holt, who was the Judge Advocate on the court martial that tried Mrs. Surratt, has just died of the effects of a fall. We believe that no person who was prominently connected with that judicial murder, has died a natural death. Judge Holt's connection with the affair was particularly scandalous. It is said that there was a recommendation of mercy signed by the members of the court, which he suppressed and did not present to the President.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

SHANGHAI, August 2.—A council of war was held to-day. Afterward the Viceroy told the representatives of the European powers that he was confident of the ultimate defeat of the Japanese. He had no fears of an attack on Taku, as the garrison there had been strongly reinforced. The Emperor of China has issued a manifesto in response to Japan's declaration of war. It declares that the Emperor accepts the war which Japan has thrust upon him, and orders the Viceroy and commanders of the Imperial courts to "root these pestiferous Japanese from their lairs." The Emperor throws the whole blame for the shedding of blood upon the Japanese who, he asserts, are fighting in an unjust cause.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

SHANGHAI, August 2.—Although the treaty ports are exempt from hostilities during the war, the precautions taken to block the Yangtze-Kiang have rendered navigation unsafe except in broad daylight. The lights at the entrance of the river have been removed and many torpedoes have been laid.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

YOKOHAMA, August 2.—The Chinese Minister at Tokio has demanded his passports. The Chinese residents in Japan are being placed under the protection of the United States Legation.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—When the tariff conference broke up this afternoon the House members reported to their friends that substantial progress was being made, but as usual declined to state in what particulars. One of the House conferees said to-day that an agreement on coal, iron ore and sugar would certainly be reached either Saturday or Monday next.

HIS WORK LIVES AFTER HIM.

The memorial for George William Curtis proposed by the Curtis Memorial Association is so modest that it can hardly fail of accomplishment. It is the foundation of a perpetual lectureship in connection with some university, and the placing of a portrait bust somewhere in New York.

HIS WORK LIVES AFTER HIM.

The themes of the lectures will be good citizenship and the high ideals of a free people—subjects that were dear to his soul and illustrated by his life and writings.

HIS WORK LIVES AFTER HIM.

Thousands of men and women throughout the United States delight in the wit and wisdom and tender grace of the Easy Chair, and "Prue and I" are friends.

HIS WORK LIVES AFTER HIM.

In the history of North Carolinians, in public life, no man has presented a spectacle so humiliating to the State as is manifest from the present aspect of Governor Elias Carr's Senatorship.

HIS WORK LIVES AFTER HIM.

When Senator Vance insisted that the Richmond and Danville corporation comply with the original charter of the Western North Carolina Railway, and at once project its main branch as required by that charter, he was opposed by Jarvis, Andrews and Schenck, who were right, or wrongfully, it is not our province to now discuss.
