The Printing Bill up Again: A Motion to Table. To Create Another County. Special Argus Telegram.]

SENATE. RALEIGH, Jan. 12.

In the Senate to-day the principal bills introduced were to tax prisoners with costs in criminal causes; to amend the charter of Goldsboro. A resolution urging inated J. F. Ray, Democrat, from tax to 41 cents on the $100 is recommittees, and the president was cent tax on State banks and the repeal of the internal revenue laws was introduced. All the committees were announced. Senator Grant is chairman of that on education.

The public printing bill which was passed yesterday was taken up, and there was a long discussion. Some members who yesterday voted for the bill, which was to repeal the act of the last Legislature, said they did not understand it. Efforts were made to secure a recall of the bill but failed. The vote was 36 to 14.

Rice, Republican, made a motion to elect a president pro tem. Another discussion arose. Adams, Democrat, declared that it was improper to do this while the president was in the chair. A motion to table Rice's motion was adopted, 37 to 6.

In the House Mr. Ewart denied that the committee on elections was using undue haste in its work.

Among bills introduced the chief were to create the county which requires two-thirds as a of Scotland out of part of Rich-

To repeal the election law. To provide for a code commission of three, and a new code. To protect persons holding first class tickets on railways. To provide for the bette drainage of Walnut creek.

An effort was made to pass the Senate bill to repeal the public printing bill, but it failed and the matter was made a special order for Monday.

The committee of fifteen on elections was announced with introduced the first bill. It is to French, of New Hanover, as
