

STRAW MATTINGS
A fulling just arrived at
SOUTHERLAND,
BRINKLEY & Co.'s

Goldsboro Weekly Argus.

See Editor's & Reports
FINE SHOES
from $3 to $5 in Tax Patent
Leather and Calf
SOUTHERLAND,
BRINKLEY & Co.

VOL. XVII.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY JUNE 18, 1896

NO 96

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

LOCAL BRIEFS

The Asylum bridge will be repaired this week, which will be a much needed improvement.

The brick work of the vault for the First National Bank of this city is almost completed, and some of the furniture has been placed in the building.

THERE is a representative of the company that own the plant of the Goldsboro Electric Light Company in this city, looking after renewing the franchise which has expired.

It is understood that Mr. Arnold Borden will ship his turkeys North in a refrigerator car after they get through "worming" his tobacco. They say that young broiled turkeys make a fine dish.

Mr. E. A. Humphrey is at home from Morehead City. He brought with him some of the finest mackerel ever seen here, which he distributed among his friends. They were the catch of a trolling expedition yesterday on the "high seas."

Mr. O. S. Langston, committed suicide by emptying the contents of a revolver into his head just above the left temple last Thursday about noon, and lived in this prostrate condition until 6 o'clock in the evening, when death ended his untold agonies.

WE regret exceedingly to chronicle the death of Mr. Frank Pearsall, of Mt. Olive, which occurred there Thursday evening, after a lingering illness, of consumption. He was an excellent man, greatly beloved by all who knew him and his untimely death will be sincerely mourned.

It is authoritatively stated that Speaker Reed will not accept the second place on the St. Louis ticket. Reed would rather be the Speaker of the House than President of the Senate. Besides, if the truth be told, he would rather help to elect than help to elect the man.

THE canons that the Goldsboro Rifles had out for practice Friday afternoon were, entire satisfaction. Mr. Pope, Washington, of the corps of engineers U. S. N., assisted in the practice. The Rifles, ever ready to make sacrifices to do honor to the memory of a Confederate soldier and to creditably represent Goldsboro on all occasions, intend going to Richmond when the corner stone of the monument to President Jefferson Davis is laid, and they should not fail of encouragement from all our citizens.

WITH the repeal of the recent ordinance allowing bicyclists to use certain sidewalks in the city, there was held a conference of the most prominent riders in town last night, at which there was a petition drawn up that will be presented to the Board of Aldermen, asking for a continued use of those sidewalks under very restricted conditions. This petition was not gotten up without weighing well the objections against it, and the Board of Aldermen could do nothing less than give the matter the consideration its importance deserves.

THE proprietors of the four hotels in St. Louis who agreed originally to accommodate negro delegates to the Republican National Convention and then backed down, "caved in" on Wednesday. As soon as this information was made public a negro delegate from Texas took a room at the Southern Hotel, but when he started to enter the dining room was denied admittance and told that his meals would be served him in his private apartment. Thereupon the negro left the hotel. A special from St. Louis to the New York Herald says the colored delegates are making more than their share of the trouble, because they are not reasonable. They are contending for equal rights, and they think to secure them they must eat at the same table with white men. What else did the St. Louis Business-Men's League, the local Committee on Accommodations, and the Republican leaders expect when they encouraged the negro delegates to believe that they would have an opportunity at the convention of forcing themselves on the whites upon terms of social equality?

FOR GOVERNOR.

The date of the Democratic State Convention is now near at hand, and upon the candidate it dominates for Governor will rest the destinies of the Democratic party in North Carolina for a generation, at least; and as the Democratic party is the custodian of the liberty and the defender of the rights of the people, it behooves that intelligence and patriotism should prevail in the deliberations of the convention, in order that in the multitude of council wisdom may find harmonious ears in which to speak her guidance.

The financial question, that has so long disturbed the elements in all parties, is now, as to the Democratic party, definitely settled, for the State and nation, in advance of both conventions, and should, therefore, not be a further issue of controversy in our Commonwealth to disturb the deliberations of our party in State convention. The overwhelming majority vote for free silver at 16 to 1, and the gold men of the party should not permit their financial views to cloud their allegiance to the great cardinal principle of Democracy—majority rules.

That the Democracy of the State and the nation have given forth no uncertain sound on this great financial problem, and that their decision in advance of party platforms is in accordance with the views and wishes of the vast majority of the people, gives to the party in the State and nation the brightest outlook in its history for overwhelming triumph at the polls in November.

The State convention, in balancing for Governor, should be guided by the requirements of the crisis. It should select a man whose record before the people has been consistent with the growth of the culminated views of the party on the issues of the day; he should be a man of the people, one in whom the people have confidence, and who can enlist and hold the sympathy of the masses in his success—that man the Angles believe to be Julian S. Carr, of Durham, who has never been out of touch with the people—the great surging mass of common people, God bless them, whose necessities have ever engaged his keenest interest and whose misfortunes have appealed to his magnanimous philanthropy, without regard to race, color or creed. He commands the strength of the party and more of the floating vote of the State than any other man the Democracy might select.

VALUABLE HORSES PERISH

A Great Fire in New York Destroys the American Horse Exchange.

New York, June 11.—Fire completely destroyed the building of the American Horse Exchange, Limited, which occupies nearly the entire block bounded by Broadway, Seventh Avenue, Fifth and Fifty-first streets, to night. It is supposed that 125 valuable horses perished in the flames, and an unconfirmed rumor has it that one man's life was lost. One hundred carriages were also burned. The value of the property consumed is estimated at $200,000. How the fire started is not known. Flames breaking from the third store was the first intimation any one had of it. Fourteen engine companies worked bravely, and within an hour had the flames under control. Several narrow escapes from falling walls and the roof were made. Among the horses destroyed were Elsie G., a very valuable trotting horse worth $7,500, with a record of $2.19.

William C. Whitney had paid $7,000 for seven horses at the sale to-day, but had removed them.

The American Horse Exchange, limited, has for years been one of the most famous places of its kind in America. William C. Vanderbilt is the president of the corporation. Mr. Winthrop, George Peabody Westmore and Colonel William Fay are among the managers. Many fine stock breeders in the West and South have been regular consignors of horses to the Exchange.

HAVANA ADVICES.

Insurgents Capture and Destroy the Town of San Antonio

Havana, June 12.—Further news regarding the attack by insurgents upon the town of San Antonio de Rio Blanco, in Havana province, is to the effect that the troops made a spirited defense, but were compelled to withdraw, and the rebels captured the town. The insurgents burned a number of buildings, including the town hall, ten stores and several residences.

Havana, June 10, via Tampa, Fla., June 12.—The arrival of Consul General Lee is the topic of conversation. His friendship with President Cleveland and his fame as a warrior in the civil war in the United States has given occasion to a great deal of comment in both Spanish and Cuban circles. Ever since his arrival his movements have been watched, his actions scrutinized and his sayings analyzed. No personage has attracted more attention in Cuba than does Gen. Lee at present. His commanding appearance and manly deportment have won for him the greatest respect and consideration, and everybody agrees that he is the right man in the right place. In these critical times when the destinies of Cuba are on the turning point, it is plain that a man of great capacity and character is necessary to meet every emergency that may arise, and Mr. Lee, to all appearances, is the proper man for this situation. Many guesses have been made as to his future actions and there are many comments as to his inclinations, but no one has been able to determine "his ways and doings." The only thing sure is that since his arrival he has been very busy visiting Gen. Weyler, with whom he has had several interviews regarding the Competitor prisoners and other Americans confined in the Spanish fortresses for alleged political crimes. It is surmised that he is gathering data from all reliable sources, for it is known that many prominent men, bankers, merchants of standing and means, have been calling on him for the last few days and surely they must have given him material on which to base his official report on the economical situation of the island. The Cuban sympathizers here have taken advantage of his presence to seduce him to their side by addressing him all sorts of complaints on their wrongs and sufferings. A letter addressed to the consul has been printed, anonymously, and is circulating from hand to hand, and although it is whispered that the original document has been signed in his presence by prominent citizens, the names are withheld for fear of persecution by the Spaniards. The document is well written, and states in plain, straight forward words the real situation of the island. It proves in unmistakable terms that the Cuban problem cannot be solved by the Spaniards—nor even if they should grant home rule on the Canadian plan, it would never work for two powerful objections: The army and the debt. They consequently believe that the only practical solution is American intervention to save the island from the ruin which is staring her in the face.

The Americans especially have good reason for feeling joyful on the arrival of Consul Lee, for they know they have a good friend and a staunch supporter of their rights. He has already given proofs of his interest in all that concerns his fellow citizens by obtaining Dawley's release and forcing the authorities to mitigate the condition of the Competitor prisoners, who were lodged in miserable, filthy and unhealthy quarters in the Cuban fortress, by transferring them to better accommodations. The war situation continues so far favorable to the Cubans. The rainy season prevailing helps them considerably. Yellow fever and other tropical diseases are breaking the ranks of the troops fearfully. It is said the hospitals are overstocked and the death-rate frightful.

Gomez and Maceo continue operating throughout the whole country at their will, without interference from anybody, the former in Camaguey and the latter in Pinar del Rio. A new leader has appeared on the field who is now attracting attention, and who will surely give the Spanish considerable trouble. I refer to Calixto Garcia. Vague rumors have arisen among the managers. Many fine stock breeders in the West and South have been regular consignors of horses to the Exchange.

A new leader has appeared on the field who is now attracting attention, and who will surely give the Spanish considerable trouble. I refer to Calixto Garcia. Vague rumors have arisen among the managers. Many fine stock breeders in the West and South have been regular consignors of horses to the Exchange.

A new leader has appeared on the field who is now attracting attention, and who will surely give the Spanish considerable trouble. I refer to Calixto Garcia. Vague rumors have arisen among the managers. Many fine stock breeders in the West and South have been regular consignors of horses to the Exchange.

A new leader has appeared on the field who is now attracting attention, and who will surely give the Spanish considerable trouble. I refer to Calixto Garcia. Vague rumors have arisen among the managers. Many fine stock breeders in the West and South have been regular consignors of horses to the Exchange.

A new leader has appeared on the field who is now attracting attention, and who will surely give the Spanish considerable trouble. I refer to Calixto Garcia. Vague rumors have arisen among the managers. Many fine stock breeders in the West and South have been regular consignors of horses to the Exchange.

GOOD FOR EVERYBODY

and everyone needs it at all times of the year. Malaria is always about, and the only preventive and relief is to keep the liver active. You must keep the liver active, and the best helper is the Old Friend, SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, the RED Z. Mr. C. Hinson, of Lancaster, Ohio, says: "SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR broke a case of Malarial Fever of three years' standing for me, and less than one bottle did the business. I shall use it when in need, and recommend it." Be sure that you get it. Always look for the RED Z on the package. And don't forget the word REGULATOR. It is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR, and there is only one, and every one who takes it is sure to be benefited. THE BENEFIT IS ALL IN THE REMEDY. Take it also for Biliousness and Sick Headache; both are caused by a sluggish liver. J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia.

CONGRESS ADJOURNED.

Closing Proceedings in the Senate and House.

Washington, June 11.—If the first session of the Fifty-fourth Congress has been a "do nothing session," as had been predicted, the closing day of the Senate furnished a fitting culmination to the session. It was a day of inactive drifting, a laborious effort to kill time by doing nothing until 1 o'clock, when, according to the custom, the resolution agreed to yesterday, the two Houses were to adjourn.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock, when the District of Columbia Appropriation bill was received and immediately signed by the Vice President, thus disposing of the last of the general appropriation bills so far as the legislative branch was concerned.

At 12 o'clock a recess was taken until 3 o'clock, the usual resolutions of thanks to the Vice President and President pro tempore were offered by Senators Allison of Iowa, Republican, and Harris of Tennessee, Democrat, respectively, and unanimously agreed to.

The galleries were almost deserted during the early hours of the session, but knots of spectators continued to come in slowly until the hour of adjournment, so that when that hour arrived and the Vice President delivered his valedictory, he had a good sized audience in the galleries, a large number of whom were ladies, even though there were but twenty-five Senators present at that interesting moment. As the Vice-President uttered the last words and the gavel fell for the last time, there was a faint outburst of applause, after which Senators gathered in knots in the aisles and before the Vice President's desk, bidding each other good-bye. Then the Senators on the floor and the visitors in the galleries melted away and the chamber that had been the scene of so many stirring incidents was left upon the pages and attendants until the first Monday in December, next.

Platt in St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 11.—Ex-Senator Thomas C. Platt, of New York, and Chairman Hackett, of the New York Republican State committee, arrived in St. Louis to night. Mr. Platt declined to talk for publication until he had conferred with several men who were waiting to see him. Senator Platt's arrival has been quite anxiously awaited on account of the manner in which the Southern contests have been going and especially on account of the statement of Mr. Manley, which was sent out in these dispatches last night. To his friends he expressed the greatest surprise that such a statement should have been made by Mr. Manley at this time. Mr. Platt announced, however, that the fight would be carried on against the nomination of Mr. McKinley just as if no statement had been made by Mr. Reed's manager that the Ohio man would be nominated on the first ballot.

General Henderson and General Lodge, of Iowa, managers for Senator Allison, arrived to night and expressed surprise that Mr. Manley had given up the fight. There was a rumor that Mr. Platt's arrival had stiffened up the opposition to further efforts against McKinley, and that he gave Gen. Casco a crushed defeat in the Venetas de Casanova engagement lately reported.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

Executive Committee Appointed and Delegates Elected to the County Convention.

The hall of justice in the court house was pretty well filled with staunch members of the Democratic faith last night when F. A. Daniels, Esq., chairman of the primary, ascended to the judge's bench, called the assemblage to order and requested W. R. Phillips of the Argus and A. Roscower of the Headlight, to act as secretaries.

The chair announced that the first business before the convention was the election of five executive committeemen from each precinct in the township, and appointed J. W. Bryan from precinct B, Jas. M. Powell from precinct C, W. H. Suggs from precinct D, to retire and recommend names for those positions.

While this committee were out the chair appointed Geo. Langston, M. L. Lee, J. M. Hollowell, W. C. Munroe and D. J. Broadhurst from the township and precincts A, B, C and D, respectively, to recommend the names of twenty-seven delegates to the county convention.

The committee appointed to select the executive committees for the precincts reported as follows:

Township.—L. E. Fridgen, G. W. Langston, C. W. Pender, J. C. Bardin.

Precinct A.—M. L. Lee, E. B. Dewey, H. B. Parker, Jr., Cicero Pearsall, E. G. Porter.

Precinct B.—B. G. Thompson, J. M. Hollowell, Jesse Pipkin, J. W. Lamb, J. W. Edwards.

Precinct C.—S. K. Royall, Thos. Edmundson, W. T. Hollowell, W. T. Harrison, C. F. Taylor.

Precinct D.—D. J. Broadhurst, W. A. Denmark, W. D. Creech, Dr. M. E. Robinson, J. W. Cole.

After some little speech making the following resolution was adopted as the sentiments of the convention on the financial question:

"Resolved, That this Democratic primary meeting of Goldsboro township is in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1, independent of any agreement with foreign countries or domestic entanglements of any kind whatever."

The following delegates were elected to attend the County Convention:

G. W. Langston, A. M. Prince, G. W. Mumfry, J. C. Bardin, W. T. Dorch, F. K. Borden, F. A. Daniels, W. G. Lewis, Sr., Sol Einstein, Robt. Thompson, N. O'Brien, J. W. Pipkin, T. W. Slocumb, W. C. Munroe, J. W. Lamb, J. M. Hollowell, C. J. Nelson, J. F. Southernland, Henry Weil, J. M. Powell, N. W. Musgrave, M. E. Robinson, W. H. Suggs, C. B. Brock, D. J. Broadhurst, W. R. Allen, M. L. Lee.

A motion from Mr. D. M. Hardy prevailed that the chair appoint five alternates to attend the county convention, and the following were appointed: D. M. Hardy, C. G. Smith, J. E. Peterson, S. K. Royall, O. R. Rand.

On motion the convention adjourned.

Be sure to get Simmons Liver Regulator for your Spring Medicine. It's the old reliable that did the old folks so much good. Don't let anyone persuade you to take anything else instead. You can always tell Simmons Liver Regulator by the Red Z on the package. Don't forget the word REGULATOR—Simmons Liver Regulator—better than anything else, and sure to do you good. For sale by M. E. Robinson & Bro. Druggists.

Hammond and his Associates Free.

Pretoria, June 11.—At a special meeting of the Executive Council to-day it was decided to release John Hayes Hammond, Colonel Rhodes, George Farrar, and J. W. Leonard, the leaders of the Johannesburg reform committee, upon the payment of a fine of $25,000 (125,000) each, or in default of fifteen years' banishment.

The Diggers' News also announces that the Executive Council has decided to release the reform committee leaders, subject to a fine of $25,000.

Mrs. W. H. Smith has returned home from her sojourn at Seven Springs, much improved in health, her many friends will be glad to know.

Merit Made

Made and Merit Maintains the confidence of the people in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is a medicine cures you when sick; it makes wonderful cures everywhere, then beyond all question that medicine possesses merit.

That is just the truth about Hood's Sarsaparilla. We know it possesses merit because it cures, not once or twice or a hundred times, but in thousands and thousands of cases. We know it cures, absolutely, permanently, when all others fail to do any good whatever. We repeat

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier.

Hood's Pills cure malaria, indigestion, biliousness. 25 cents.

THOUGHTS ABOUT CHRIST

Of Great Writers, From Shakespeare to Tennyson. Specially Prepared for Argus Readers.

"The best of men that e'er wore earth about Him."—Shakespeare.

"Christ was the temple of God, because in Him God has most fully revealed Himself."—Spinoza.

"I esteem the Gospels to be thoroughly genuine, for there shines forth from them the reflected splendor of a sublimity, proceeding from the person of Jesus Christ, of so divine a kind as only the divine could ever have manifested upon earth."—Goethe.

"The holiest among the mighty, the mightiest among the holy."—Tichter.

"Christ is a miracle, a meteoric stone which has fallen down between our two worlds of the world."—Dr. Paulus.

"The whole historical significance of Christianity hangs only on the character of its founder. Its doctrines become words of eternal life in the mouth of its founder."—F. C. Bour.

"Jesus appears a beautiful nature from the very start, which has only to unfold itself from within to become more and more conscious of itself."—David Strauss (in 1844).

"In Jesus was condensed all that is good and elevated in our nature. Jesus will never be surpassed."—Rennan.

"Jesus is the chosen of God, His Image, His Darling, His World-Guide and World-Shaper in the history of Mankind."—Keim.

"Jesus of Nazareth, our Divine Symbol; higher has the human thought not yet reached."—Carlyle.

"The mightiest heart that ever beat. It is for His truth and His life, His wisdom, goodness, piety, that He is honored in my heart—yes, in the world's heart."—Theodore Parker.

"It is the God incarnate, more than the God of the Jews, or of Nature, who, being idealized, has taken so great and salutary a hold on the modern mind. Christ is still left, a unique figure. The ideal representative and guide of humanity."—F. S. Mill.

"The teaching of Jesus carried morality to the sublime point attained, or even attainable by humanity. The influence of His spiritual religion has been rendered doubly great by the unparalleled purity and elevation of His own character."—Author of Supernatural Religion.

"Try all the ways of righteousness you can think of, and you will find that no way brings you to it except the way of Jesus."—Matthew Arnold.

"Strong Son of God, immortal Love, Thou closest human and divine, The highest, holiest manhood, Thou."—Tennyson.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

The intense itching and smarting incident to eczema, tetter, salt-rheum, and other diseases of the skin is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally efficient for itching piles and a favorite remedy for sore nipples, chapped hands, chilblains, frost bites, and chronic sore eyes. For sale by druggists at 25 cents per box.

Try Dr. Cad's Condition Powders, they are just what a home needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by M. E. Robinson & Bro.

COURT HOUSE SQUARE.

The committee of Messrs. J. E. Peterson, J. A. Washington, I. F. Dorch, Jno. Slaughter, F. W. Hilker and H. B. Parker, representing the County Commissioners and the Board of Aldermen of the city of Goldsboro, appointed to make improvements to the court house square, met at the Register's office yesterday afternoon and elected Mr. I. F. Dorch permanent chairman and Mr. H. B. Parker secretary.

The plans submitted by H. B. Parker which consist of laying off walks, placing of rustic seats, making brick terraces and putting in a fountain in front of the court house were adopted.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Dorch, Peterson and Parker were appointed to ascertain the cost of carrying those plans into effect and report at a meeting to be held next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

A Message From Knight.

Washington, June 11.—United States Vice Consul Knight, at Cape Town, South Africa, reported by cable to-day to the State Department that the imprisoned reform leaders had been released. The cablegram was as follows:

"Reform leaders released. Fined 25,000. No banishment. This finally closes the Hammond incident."

Will Have War with Spain.

Springfield, Ohio, June 10.—James Greeley, the war correspondent who had to leave Cuba by order of General Weyler, says he thinks there will be a war with Spain. He says the American people will be thunderstruck when the documents in possession of the State Department are made public. Spain is anxious for war. Twenty-five million dollars' worth of American property has been destroyed in Cuba and many Americans have been killed without provocation.

Chamberlain Informed.

London, June 11.—The Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Chamberlain, has received a private telegram saying that the leaders of the Johannesburg reform committee have already been released, subject to a fine.

The dispatch adds that the conditions of their release were the same as imposed upon the other reformers.

Base-Ball.

Baltimore—Baltimore 9; Chicago 1.
Philadelphia—Louisville 9; Philadelphia 9.
Boston—Boston 15; Cincinnati 3.
Brooklyn—Cleveland 3; Brooklyn 4.
Washington—Washington 19; St. Louis 6.
New York—Pittsburg 2; New York 7.
Richmond—Richmond 3; Roanoke 2.
Portsmouth—Portsmouth 8; Norfolk 9.
Lynchburg—Lynchburg 7; Petersburg 18.
Mobile—Mobile 2; Columbus 6.

Dr. Jameson's Trial.

London, June 11.—Dr. J. S. Jameson and his fellow-conspirators who took part in the raid on the Transvaal, were again arraigned on remand at the Bow Street Police Court to-day, fresh witnesses having arrived from South Africa to testify. Interest in the case, however, has fallen off almost entirely. The evidence presented was upon the same lines as previously.

Among the witnesses who testified to-day was Lieutenant Eloff, President Kruger's nephew who related the story of his meeting with Jameson's party.

Winston Sentinel.

Mr. J. as M. Roberts, a well-known farmer of Rockingham county, committed suicide at his home, four miles east of Wentworth, on Friday evening last by emptying the contents of a single barrel shot gun into his brain. About ten years ago Mr. Roberts came demented on the subject of religion, from which he recovered after a few months, and until about three months ago, seemed perfectly sane, when he again showed signs of mental depression. The gun and other weapons dangerous to life, were hidden from him and his actions were watched until Friday, when he took his first opportunity offered to end his life. The deceased was a man of family and about 54 years of age.

See Editor's & Reports
FINE SHOES
from $3 to $5 in Tax Patent
Leather and Calf
SOUTHERLAND,
BRINKLEY & Co.

IN a young girl's life there comes a time when the careless innocence of childhood changes to the modest, blushing maidenly self-consciousness of approaching maturity. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It can never be permanently relieved by local treatments. That is generally an expression of the form is rounder; there is a touch of the happy possibilities, yet so hedged about with the physical sufferings and dangers peculiar to her sex. It has been said that to be a woman is to suffer. Too often this is true. A woman's whole nature is so bound up in the special functions of her sex that a disturbance of these functions out of harmony. Female weakness causes nine-tenths of all the troubles which women endure. It