GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY NOVEMBER 12, 1896

NO 112

LOCAL BRIEFS

THERE are quite a number of local Republicans and defeated county candidates who think their party is under obligations to them and that they should receive the postmaster's honor for their vigorous campaign work. It has already been discussed.

We are requested by the chairman of the Board of County Commissioners to say that there will be a meeting of the Board the latter part of the month and he wishes all outstanding claims against the county to be presented and requests all parties who have given notes to the county for the hire of convicts to make settlement at once with the Register of Deeds.

The full returns from the county show the defeat of all the Democratic township tax collectors, with the exception of the most important one of all, Mr. Willis A. Denmark, who is elected by a majority of 13. It has been said that 13 is an unlucky number, but this instance is an exception.

"The Goldsboro & Morehead R. R. Company" sounds well. We hope it will be a permanent organization. It has stipulated for a lease of the A. & N. C. R. R., and the lease is to be perfected at a meeting of the stockholders of the company, specially called for that purpose, at Morehead City on November 13.

Now that the election is over and the results all determined in county, State and nation, "let us have peace." Here in Goldsboro we've got the best town in the State, and if our people will now forego all political discussions; let past differences rest, in statu quo, for a while and address themselves to the practical business issues of the hour we can continue to hold Goldsboro to the front and go forward.

ONE evening last week about 6:30 o'clock a young lady was hurrying homeward along Ashe street with her purse in hand, when a negro man stepped out from a greater extent of the brick stables of Mr. Asher Edwards and asked her what was in the purse. The young lady quickened her footsteps at once and indignantly replied that it contained money. Her manner was so defiant as to check the African highwayman in his bold attempt at robbery.

As the Wilmington Star says, notwithstanding the fact that the past campaign was one of intense excitement, in which feeling was aroused to a greater extent than it had been in many years before, with its demonstrations and counter demonstrations, apprehended clashes, and conflicts on the day of election, we have never had a quieter or more orderly election. Perhaps the very apprehension of trouble had a salutary influence in restraining the impetuous and keeping eyes on the reckless. This campaign has furnished object lessons in other ways, and in this furnishes an object lesson to the people of other countries on the capacity of the American people to govern themselves.

Mr. J. H. Loftin, formerly of Mt. Olive, but at present, and for several seasons past, one of the cotton weighers of this city, has associated himself with Mr. A. D. Ward in the barber business, and they will together conduct the business at the old stand of Mr. Ward, on East Centre street. The shop will in future be served by white barbers entirely, who will be experts in all the tonorial and up-to-date in all the tonorial arts. Mr. Ward is well known to our people and enjoys the confidence of our entire community. Mr. Loftin, too, has a wide circle of friends and is a professional barber. We bespeak for the new firm the generous patronage of the people.

Bryan to McKinley.
Lincoln, Neb., November 5.—At 8 o'clock Senator Jones telegraphed to Mr. Bryan that he had given up the fight. The telegram was handed to Mr. Bryan at his residence.
Immediately after receiving Senator Jones' telegram, Mr. Bryan wrote the following dispatch:
Hon. William McKinley, Canton, O.

Senator Jones has just informed me that the returns indicate your election, and I hastened to extend my congratulations. We have submitted the issues to the American people, their will is law.
[Signed] WM. J. BRYAN.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

By the President of the United States:
The people of the United States should never be unmindful of the gratitude they owe the God of Nations for His watchful care has shielded them from dire disaster and pointed out to them the way of peace and happiness.

Nor should they ever refuse to acknowledge with contrite hearts their proneness to turn away from God's blessings and follow with sinful pride after their own devices.
To the end that these thoughts may be quickened it is fitting that on a day especially appointed we should join together in approaching the throne of Grace with praise and supplication.

Therefore, I Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of the present month of November, to be kept and observed as a day of thanksgiving and prayer throughout our land.
On that day let all our people forego their usual work and occupation, and assembled in their accustomed places of worship, let them with one accord render thanks to the Ruler of the Universe for our preservation as a nation and our deliverance from every threatened danger; for the peace that has dwelt within our boundaries; for our defense against disease and pestilence during the year that has passed; for the pious rewards that have followed the labors of our husbands, and for all the other blessings that have been vouchsafed to us.

And let us through the mediation of Him who has taught us how to pray, implore the forgiveness of our sins and a continuation of heavenly favor. Let us not forget on this day of thanksgiving the poor and needy; and by deeds of charity let our offerings of praise be made more acceptable in the sight of the Lord.

Witness my hand and seal of the United States, which I have caused to be hereto affixed.
Done at the city of Washington this fourth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twenty-first.

GROVER CLEVELAND,
By the President,
Richard Olney, Sec'y. State.

Political Support.
Youth's Companion.
An old chronicler tells of a pretty incident connected with General Washington and the old time election day. Washington voted at all the Fairfax elections until the close of his life, uniformly supporting the federal candidates.
Although he lived at a distance from the court house at Alexandria Market, he generally voted early in the day. The polls were reached by a night of steps outside the building, which in 1799 had become very shaky from old age.

When General Washington reached these steps he placed one foot and shook the crazy ascent, as if to discover how much strength was left in it. Instantly twenty brawny arms, one above another, grasped the rickety stairway, and a dozen men's shoulders braced it firmly. Nor did a single man move from his position until the venerable chief had deposited his vote and descended the stairway.
"I saw the general's last bow," said one of these supporters half a century after that day, "and it was more than kingly."

The Way to cure catarrh is to purify the blood, and the surest, safest, best way to purify the blood is by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the One True Blood Purifier.

THE SOUVENIR GERMAN.

Given by the Comus Club Complimentary to Miss Smith: The Souvenir Presentation: The Banquet "After the Ball."

The "souvenir" german given by the Comus Club Friday night in Armory Hall, complimentary to Miss Daisy Smith, as expressive of their appreciation of her having named the club, was the most brilliant event of its kind our city, perhaps, has ever known. The dancing was called promptly at 9 o'clock, with Mr. H. P. Dorch, Jr., as leader with Miss Daisy Smith.
The hall, beautifully decorated with flags and bunting, and the polished floor reflecting the electric light in its brilliancy, was thronged on every side with spectators, and when the spacious floor became peopled with the graceful forms of "fair women and brave men" moving in wavy sweeps to the sweet strains of the club's superb Italian Band, the scene was indeed "the poetry of motion" and a delight to all.
The ladies in full dress never looked so beautiful nor the gentlemen more handsome. The figures of the german were artistically conceived and gracefully executed and the large assemblage of on lookers, as well as the dancers themselves, enjoyed every moment of the delightful occasion.

In the midst of the german, when all the couples were on the floor, a circle was formed, and Mr. Jos. E. Robinson stepped to the center and addressing Miss Daisy Smith, who stood by the side of the president of the club, Mr. Geo. C. Royall, presented her with the club's souvenir—a beautiful, embossed gold locket, appropriately engraved and inscribed with a legend commemorative of the occasion. Miss Smith received the souvenir with an appreciative recognition of the club, as they surrounded her, and an expressive "thank you." And the dance went on.

At the conclusion of the german, President Royall, in behalf of Miss Daisy Smith, invited the dancing attendance and the chaplains over to the Hotel Kennon. Here, in the spacious and brilliantly lighted dining room, a scene of beauty, that will be "a joy forever" in the recollection of all who viewed it, greeted and invited the assembled guests. The long table was sumptuously served and lavishly adorned with variegated crystalline in artistic arrangement, and when all the guests were seated the scene was one of social enjoyment that will long be pleasantly remembered.
The following were the couples in attendance upon the german and at Miss Smith's supper:

Miss Daisy Smith with H. P. Dorch, Jr.
Miss Barbara Isler with Robt. Kornegay.
Miss Mattie Lee with E. B. Borden.
Miss Matilda Fort, of Pikeville, with Chas. N. Edgerton.
Miss Helene Haigh, of Fayetteville, with F. M. Miller.
Miss Sue Borden with Geo. C. Southland.
Miss Lollie Lewis with A. B. Willingham, Jr.
Miss Addie Southerland with Jno. Borden.
Miss Sarah Einstein with John G. Sizer.
Miss Lella Cobb with Richard J. Freeman.
Miss Elise Fulghum with L. D. Guley, Jr.
Miss Sadie Kornegay with F. P. Parker.
Miss Etta Spier with H. L. McCall.
Miss Minnie Slombum with E. A. Humphrey.
Miss Lydia Fryar, of Faison, with J. J. Broadhurst.
Miss Hilda Einstein with Leslie Well.
Miss Mildred Dorch with Murray Borden.
Mrs. W. J. Jones, Jr., with Dr. W. J. Jones, Jr.
S. Adams—Geo. C. Royall. Wintworth Micks, of Clinton, Dr. Williams, Tarboro, Titus Harper, E. B. Dewey, E. K. Borden.

The chaplains were: Mrs. Geo. C. Royall, Mrs. B. H. Griffin, Mrs. W. J. Jones, Jr., Mrs. E. B. Dewey and Mrs. Jos. E. Robinson.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications as they reach the local portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

GOOD FOR EVERYBODY
and everyone needs it at all times of the year. Malaria is always about, and the only preventive and relief is to keep the liver active. You must keep the liver and the best helper is the Old Friend, SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, the Regulator of the Blood. It is the only one, and every one who takes it is sure to be benefited. THE BENEFIT IS ALL IN THE REMEDY. Take it also for Biliousness and Sick Headache; both are caused by a sluggish liver.

THE CAUSE AND THE EFFECT

Baltimore Manufacturers' Record.

On August 14 the Manufacturers' Record said:
"This should be a campaign, not of abuse, not of suppressed free speech, but a campaign based on the highest educational line of work, in which every man owes it to himself, to humanity and to his country to honestly seek to know the truth, and to be able to give a reason for the faith that is in him. With such a canvass as that, the Manufacturers' Record need fear no fear of the results. It is abiding faith in the honor, the integrity, the good sense and the final rightful determination of this momentous question, which means so much for the cause of humanity and for our country."
It has been a campaign of education. Never before have the voters of this country made a study of any political question such as they have given to this. And the verdict has been rendered. By an overwhelming vote the people of this country have declared against the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 without international agreement, and against the other revolutionary tendencies represented by the Chicago platform.
This campaign, moreover, has been notable for the influence that is destined to have in breaking down the last remnant of the wall of sectionalism and uniting the people of the whole country. Every honest patriot must rejoice at this. It means a broader and better national spirit than we have ever had.

We believe that Major McKinley will prove fully equal to the great opportunity that confronts him, that he will strive to give the country a broad national administration, without sectional bias, that the South has nothing to fear from his election, that there will be no attempt at a force bill, and that it will be his aim and policy to aid as far as in his power the upbuilding of the South, and that the people of this section may well join the people of all other sections in rejoicing over the overwhelming vote given to McKinley and Hobart, to sound money and to protection.

The influence of the election upon business must be very far-reaching. A new period in our industrial history has been ushered in. With the assurance of stability to our currency and to protection of wheat and the foundation for an early and genuine revival in every branch of trade and industry.
The opening up of foreign markets to our manufactured products, the immense European demand for grain, which has already resulted in engagements of steamer room for about 100,000,000 bushels of wheat and corn to be shipped abroad this winter, thus burdening our railroads with traffic, the inevitable inflow of gold to pay for these exports, all unite in giving the conditions essential to a great advance movement in business.
The battle has been fought, the victory won. Let all the people rejoice. And now to business.

There are a great many of the unfortunate ones in this world, greater in number than those who are blessed with good digestion. To some people the greatest misfortune is not to be able to eat everything set before them. "I suffered for years with Dyspepsia, and everything I ate disagreed with me. I was induced to try Simmons' Liver Regulator and was cured. I now eat everything."—M. Bright, Madison Parish, La.

MRINLEY TO HANNA.

Thanks for the Services of the Latter.

New York, November 5.—The following telegram was received by Mr. Mark A. Hanna from Major McKinley to-night:

Canton, O., Nov. 5.

"Hon. Mark A. Hanna, New York, N. Y.:
"Your telegraphic message announcing the result of the election has been received. I beg you to accept my hearty thanks for your great services in the cause of sound money and protection throughout the campaign now closed and gloriously won. They were most generous and effective and will receive the warm approbation of your countrymen everywhere. I will be pleased to have you convey to your associates of the National Committee my high appreciation of their efficient services.

"The people in their majesty, ignoring party lines, have declared their detestation of repudiation and dishonor in what ever specious guise they may be presented. They have with the same mighty power affirmed their devotion to law and order, and their undeviating respect for justice and the courts. They have maintained their unflinching determination to support and uphold the constituted authorities of the country, and have thereby given new vigor and strength to our free institutions. They have, indeed, again consecrated themselves to country, and baptized the cherished ordinances of free government with a new and holy patriotism.

"The victory is not to party or section, but of and for the whole American people. Not the least of the triumphs of the election is the obliteration of sectional lines in the republic. We have demonstrated to the world that we are a reunited people in purpose as in name. We have manifested in the great cause the spirit of fraternity and brotherhood that should always characterize our common and equal citizenship. The insidious doctrine of class or sectional distinctions cannot prevail.

"Let us Americans straightway devote ourselves to the upbuilding of America, and to the peace, honor and glory of our common country. Party dissensions should no longer divide or rack the public mind, nor the zeal or temper of either side deter any citizen from patriotic devotion to the good of all."

How Elephants Climb.

Elephants are able to make their way up and down mountains and through a country of steep cliffs where mules would not dare to venture, and where even men would find passage difficult. Their tracks have been found upon the very summits of mountains 7,000 feet high. In these journeys an elephant is often compelled to descend hills and mountain sides which are almost precipitous. This is the way it is done: The elephant's first maneuver is to kneel down close to the declivity. One foreleg is then passed over the slope and a short way down the ledge, and if he finds there no good foothold he speedily forms one by stamping in the soil, if it is moist or kicking out a footing if it is dry. When he is sure of a good foothold the other foreleg is brought down in the same way. Then he performs the same work over again with his feet, bringing both forelegs a little in advance for the first footing. This leaves good feet. Now, bracing himself up by his huge forelegs, he draws up his hind legs, first one and then the other, carefully over the edge, where they occupy the first place made by the forefeet. That is the way the huge animal proceeds all the way down, zig-zag, kneeling with his forefeet. Thus the centre of gravity is preserved and the huge beast prevented from toppling over on his nose.

This is Your Opportunity.

On receipt of 10 cents, cash or stamps, a generous sample will be mailed of the most popular Catarrh and Hay Fever cure (Ely's Cream Balm) sufficient to demonstrate its great merit. Full size 50c. ELY BROTHERS, 111 N. Warren St., New York City.
Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize the statement "This is a positive cure for Catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, pastor Central Presbyterian Church, Helena, Mont.

LOOKING AHEAD.
If you could look ahead a few months and see what was coming from those spells of weakness, loss of appetite, wasting of flesh and energy you wouldn't wait for disease to get a grip on you. You would begin right away to tone up your constitution with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It doesn't work miracles; but it does what other medicine can't do and what doctors say can't be done—until they see it done right under their noses—it cures consumption. Not always, to say that would be an exaggeration, but in a large majority of cases; in advanced cases which have been given up as hopeless.

"Discovery" is not called a consumption-cure; it is a blood-maker. It gives energy to the blood-making organs to create new blood, full of healthy red corpuscles. This rapid supply of pure, rich, red blood drives out all diseases that have their roots in the blood. Consumption is one of these; scrofula, malaria, eczema, erysipelas, catarrh—are others. It is absurd to doctor them separately as lung, or skin, or head diseases. They must be driven out of the blood. You can rely on the "Golden Medical Discovery" to do this every time.

It is not a patent medicine. It is the perfected result of 30 years' practical experience by one of the most skillful physicians and eminent medical authorities in this country—Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's 200 page book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," reached the enormous sale of 50,000 copies at 25c each. This enormous sale having paid him a fair profit on the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he is now giving away absolutely free to those who send for it. It is required to mail to him, at the above institution, at once—no return necessary—nothing only, and the book will be sent post-paid.

AS YOU LIKE IT.
Selections by the Editor for Many Readers of Many Minds, but with a Moral for All.

Many a man sits retailing out heaven and salvation for pence, and he sells his soul with it, like brown paper, into the bargain.
We are ruined, not by what we really want; it is wise, therefore, never to go abroad in search of our wants.

Within every man's thought is a higher thought—within the character he exhibits to-day a higher character.
No living man is lost. While there is life there is hope. Sin is never a necessity, even when it has hardened in habit and petrified into character.

A man should never be ashamed to own that he has been in the wrong, which is but saying, in other words, that he is wiser to-day than he was yesterday.

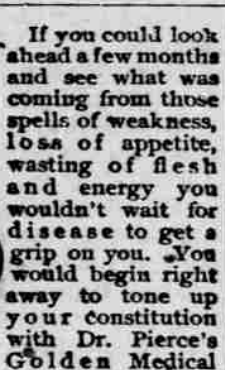

It requires a great deal of boldness and a great deal of caution to make a great fortune; and when you have got it, it requires ten times as much wit to keep it.

Rejoice in the joy of life. Be touched with tenderness and sympathy for all this life that can feel and can suffer, and do not dare to add a pang to the burden of the world's sorrow.

Nay, ask no vow, dear heart! Too lightly slips "forever" from our careless lips.
We pledge eternity—who in one day,
Forgotten, silenced, mingled clay with clay!
How do you know your eyes will always shine
With that glad welcome when they meet with mine?
How dare I say this heart for ever will swell
To answer yours—knowing its frailty well?
To-day sees plighted troth and clasping hands;
To-morrow, shattered faith and broken hands.
Oh, pitiful for mortal lips to swear!
More fitting this: unceasing fervent prayer
That our love's flower, escaping frost and blight,
May bloom immortal, as we hope to-night!

Educate women and you educate the teachers of men. If the child is father to the man, the woman forms the man in educating the child. The cause of female education is, then, even in the most selfish sense, the cause of mankind at large.

Charity should be done wisely and judiciously, not being taken up as a mere passing craze and fashion, to be worn and laid aside, after being displayed to the eyes of the world, as one lays aside last year's old bonnet and gown as being no longer "the thing."

People glory in all sorts of bravery except the bravery they might show on behalf of their nearest neighbor.

How true is it that character in any form is the fruit of obedience? It cannot be enjoyed in any great proportion except as the individual yields himself to forces above him and subjects will and disposition to laws that were made to govern. And without character there can be no inheritance. Hence to possess it, man woman and child must obey.

When, by nobler culture, by purer experience, by breathing the air of a higher duty, vitality at length creeps into the soul, the instincts of immortality will wake us. The word of hope will speak to us a language no longer strange, and we shall feel like the captive bird, carried accidentally to its own lands, when, hearing for the first time the burst of kindred song, it beats instinctively the bars of its cage.
