

RESURREXIT. Spiritual and Material Significance of the Day for Goldsboro Dally Argus last Saturday.

The watch-word on the towers upon tomorrow's sun-rise is 'Resurrexit." "He has Risen." In the Christian world it is coms memorated that Christ, after enduring the last tortures of the Divine self-sacrifice, severed Himself from the humanity voluntarily assumed that the Godhead should be amenable to suffering, and, breaking the grave, arose to Heaven while the hosts on high were crying Allelujah and angels and arch-angels join ed in the chorus of gladness, their descendants had been lifted.
