THE ARGUS PUBLISHED WEEKLY. VOL. XVII. GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY JULY 22, 1897. NO 29

LOCAL BRIEFS.
Work on the spire of St. Paul church is about completed.
The Odd Fellows will put electric fans in their handsome hall.
If you have anything to sell or buy, consult the advertising columns of THE ARGUS.
The secret of a city's greatest progress is for its people to patronize home merchants and home industries.
On all sides in Goldsboro are evidences of material development and commercial progress. We've got the best town in the State.

The business house of Mr. J. Slaughter on Walnut street, opposite the ARGUS' office is being pushed forward rapidly to completion.
The cool drink people say the juicy watermelon seriously interferes with the sale of "ice cold lemonade"—by the way, did you ever see any lemonade that wasn't ice-cold.
It is beginning to get real lively again around the tobacco houses of the city, and soon the piles of yellow leaf will be seen and the auctioneer's voice will be heard.

Rioffr much complaint has been made of late by the people living in the neighborhood of St. Paul church, on John street, about a sewer that is stopped up, which creates an offensive odor.
Mr. H. J. Ham, the popular proprietor of Rural Retreat, a summer hotel at Seven Springs, was in the city Friday, buying supplies for his hotel and was greeted cordially by his many friends.

The railroads have consented to issue tickets at one first class fare for the round trip to those who may wish to attend the State Fair on August 3d, 4th and 5th.
Guest & Williams, the colored excursion managers, have announced, by hand bills, an excursion to Newbern, on the 5th of August, at which time the State Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows meets in that city.

Mr. B. F. Boan, of Winston, who was one of the prominent buyers on this tobacco market last season, arrived in the city today to perfect his arrangements and be in time for the opening of the market this season.
The managers of the tobacco warehouses in this city have made their appearance, after spending the vacation months at their homes and have begun active preparations for the opening of the season, which will take place during the first of next month.

And he gave it for his opinion, that whoever could make two ears of corn, or two blades of grass, to grow upon a spot of ground where only one grew before, would deserve better of mankind and do more essential service to his country, than the whole race of politicians put together.—Dea N. Swift
Thus early extensive preparations are going on with the business houses of Goldsboro for the heavy fall trade that is expected. Reports are coming in from every section that all the crops are in good condition, and with favorable seasons from now on, an abundant harvest will be reaped.

The Goldsboro Bicycle Club is one of the most active and progressive organizations, the city can now boast of. The Club has built a private road all the way to Mr. Geo. D. Bennett's track, the use of which that gentleman, with his characteristic public spirit and generosity, has freely given to the club, and which they appreciate beyond expression.
The watermelon crop this year is the largest for several seasons and the specimens exhibited in this city for sale are the finest. Nothing finer along this line has been seen than the large lot that Mr. John B. Overman had on the market this morning. Mr. Overman lives "over the river" and pays special attention to the crop and his melons are in demand and always bring a good price.

EX-CONGRESSMAN Grady spent last night in the city. He is looking well, too. It would be queer if he did not look well, as he lives at Turkey, N. C., and in Sampson county, at that. There are no better people in the world than in "sweet Sampson, God bless here." There is nothing wrong with the good old county except her politics, and next year she is going to swing back into the Democratic column, for the white people of Sampson are determined to rule their county, and they will brush aside little differences and get together on board the old Democratic ship.

Quite a number of our citizens are contemplating spending the month of August at Piedmont Springs, Stokes county, N. C., of which Mr. W. P. Halyburton is proprietor. There is no finer mineral water or health resort in the world than Piedmont Springs. Its general restorative properties are truly wonderful, and the mountain scenery is sublime.

Mr. Geo. C. Southerland, who has for some months been engaged in the live stock business in this city, left Thursday for Norfolk to accept a remunerative position that has been tendered him in the general offices of the Southern Railway. Mr. Southerland is an expert stenographer and several years ago filled a responsible position with the Atlantic Coast Line at Wilmington, from where he has lately speaking in high terms of his competency and character.

Mr. A. N. Perkins, an old Wayne county boy, is proprietor of the McAdoo Hotel at Greensboro. He has had large experience in the hotel business, and under his management the McAdoo has grown so popular with the traveling public that it does by odds the best business at Greensboro. A good hotel property managed will get the business. The McAdoo is a good house and the proprietor exerts himself to please his guests. Mr. Perkins is a nephew of Mr. C. G. Perkins, of this city.

A negro man made his appearance at the home of Mr. Sam Stevens, in Fork township, Thursday morning, and demanded of Mrs. Stevens, who was alone at the house, something to eat, and when it was refused he began to talk very violently and threatened terrible things. Fortunately, Mr. Stevens was at work in his crop near the house and, hearing the loud talking, hurried in to see what the trouble was. He ordered the negro off, but the latter was sullen and slow to obey. Later in the day, Mr. Stevens came to Goldsboro and had a warrant issued for the negro's arrest, as he was an entire stranger and Mr. Stevens had fears of his lurking around and doing some damage. Sheriff Scott, armed with the warrant, went out in search of the culprit, and came up with him on the road, driving two cows towards town. When arrested, he could give no satisfactory account of where he got the cows, or of his own movements, but admitted that he had served a term in the penitentiary. On searching him a small piece of penitentiary cloth was found in his pocket. He gave his name as George Chaney, and is probably an escaped convict. A small gold watch, two pair of new scissors and some other articles, evidently stolen, were found on his person. He is now in jail.

GRANTHAM LETTER.
THE FARMERS OF THIS SECTION HAVE CEASED

To Listen to the Vain Babblings of False Political Gods, and a New Era of Prosperity Has Dawned Upon Them. As They Hold Fast to the Plow Handle and Fix Their Gaze Upon the OLD DEMOCRATIC SHIP OF FAITH.

An Appreciated Comment to The Argus—Mistake About the Reported Killing of Mr. Alvarez Jackson by a Mormon Elder.

DEAR ARGUS:—Believing a few lines from Grantham's might be admissible, I will make an effort to pen you a few.

Allow me first to congratulate you upon the improved condition of your excellent journal; especially do we admire the line of thought presented to your many readers by your weekly contributor from Walter. Could you employ a news reporter in every section of the county who would emulate "W. C." of the Fork, your subscription list would soon increase an hundred fold.

The people need to be educated up to every day life in the country, and do away with the frills, frivolities, etc., to be content with their homes and surroundings, by making home attractive and those with whom we come in contact as near happy as is possible. Give us writers that will encourage the young men to stay on the farm.

This year, 1897, marks a new era in the lives of the people of Grantham. Our farmers seem cheerful and bappy. The crops are fine, and most of us have plenty in store to keep the wolf from the door. And why shouldn't we be contented? Grantham is said to furnish more bacon, chickens and eggs to your thriving city than any township in the county. There is less complaint among our people than for ten years.

I heard a prominent Populist make a few days ago, that he did not understand why it was that people had quit complaining. Our crops were good, better than for five years; everybody was staying at home, and was contented. My reply was: Ten years ago a crowd of chronic political gamblers came in our midst, making big speeches in shape of Alliance lectures, and created wide spread discussions in our ranks, making us believe we had to work our own salvation with fear and trembling. We cut loose from the "Pie Brigade," buckled on our armor plate, stuck to the plow handle, and behold! the great God of our existence has rewarded us with good crops and contented minds, which is a continual love feast.

The little ruse about a Mormon preacher killing Alvarez Jackson was a fake of first water. Mr. Jackson was before the school board on Monday evening looking after a school. But for the fact that Mr. Jackson's brother, who came down to hunt him on Saturday, found him easily, a few Mormon elders would doubtless have "cut the dust." Ought we not to be very careful?

Beautiful eyes grow dull and dim
As the swift years steal away,
Beautiful, wistful forms so slim
Lose fairness with every day,
But she still is queen and hath charms to spare
Who wears youth's coronal—beautiful hair.

Preserve Your Hair
and you preserve your youth.
"A woman is as old as she looks," says the world. No woman looks as old as she is if her hair has preserved its normal beauty. You can keep hair from falling out, restoring its normal color, or restore the normal color to gray or faded hair, by the use of

SATURDAY SERMONS.

"Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby ye must be saved."
—God's Word.

Is there no hope in your life? Do you feel that you are lost beyond recovery? "The Son of Man is come to seek, and to save that which was lost." That is personal; that means you.

The Scripture assures a man who will devote his life to doing good that it shall not be a losing investment.

Cascades stimulate liver, kidneys and bowels. Never sick, weak or gray.
God made man with all his powers, which are therefore God's gifts to man—"talents" to be used. And to be well used they must be developed. The development of native powers is education. And education is a duty. The gift and the duty involve also a privilege. To this law there is no exception. It embraces princes and ploughboy alike. Christ redeemed the whole man—with all his powers. To be really redeemed these powers must be cultivated and used. Education is a christian duty and privilege. Every christian, whether miller boy or millionaire should grow in knowledge as well as grace. And he must grow in wisdom—of judgment, speech and conduct as well as in knowledge. Every Christian should aim at the highest attainable culture.—John H. Vincent.

WE GO FORWARD.
ANOTHER BIG ENTERPRISE FOR GOLDSBORO.

A Wholesale Grocery Company to Organized—Something Our City Has Long Needed: Its Promoters: Office Director.

It is the pleasure and pride of the ARGUS to announce this afternoon the organization of another big business concern—the Goldsboro Grocery Company, the present promoters and stockholders of which are Messrs. Thos. Holmes, L. M. Michaux, Geo. A. Norwood, Jr., and Dr. Jno. D. Spicer.

Mr. Thos. Holmes was elected President, Secretary and Treasurer, and Mr. L. M. Michaux Vice President and Manager.

Both of these gentlemen have a practical business experience, acquired by years of active and successful intercourse with the trading public, and are well and favorably known to the business world. Their individual popularity and their manner of dealing with the public, who hold them in the highest confidence, will no doubt bring to the company a full share of patronage.

The organization of this company by men of practical experience and abundant means, exhibits a confidence on the part of sagacious men looking for remunerative business investments in the future development of our thriving city that cannot be other than gratifying to us all. Goldsboro is not growing, but growing.

The favorable expression of THE ARGUS when speaking of our city—"we go forward," is not born of mere sentiment or fancied progress, but is a living truth, whose pulsing vitality is made manifest daily as we note the strides of development accomplished in our onward march to greater things.

No city or town in the State or South is so advantageously situated to the surrounding country, railroad facilities, beautiful climate and promising future as is Goldsboro, and the marvel with us has been for years that we have not made even greater progress and acquired more of the mammoth concerns that give employment to labor and bless humanity with profitable returns for industry than we now possess.

The establishment of the Goldsboro Grocery Company, which will sell exclusively at wholesale, should be, and will be a success from the start, and it deserves and should receive the encouragement of every progressive citizen of Goldsboro, for it draws to us not only the trade of the retail merchants from all along the lines of the several railroads, but also the trade of the merchants from the interior country on all sides, who by thus making Goldsboro their business centre will necessarily add to our importance in the commercial world and draw to this that interest from abroad that is the first step towards attracting investments in such enterprises as will suggest themselves to those who are seeking unimproved fields for capital and energy.

We wish for the new enterprise that we have here chronic the fullest measure of prosperity, and we look upon its establishment as the marking of a new epoch in Goldsboro's commercial history.

HOW TO FIND OUT.
Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stands thin it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WATER TO DO.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder, and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and sending pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you used a medicine you should have the best. Sold by all druggists price fifty cents, one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention THE DAILY ARGUS and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

14 Carbuncles!

It's the same story. The experience of all sufferers with blood diseases is identical. First the doctors are consulted, and their prescription of potash and mercury is taken faithfully, but without result. Months pass, and the mercurial dose is continued, until finally, his condition being no better, or often worse, the patient becomes discouraged and decides to change treatment.

Patent medicines are then taken, but until the right one is found the results are the same. S. S. S. is the only blood remedy on the market which is guaranteed purely vegetable. It is the only one that contains no mercury, no potash, or other mineral, and therefore is the only one that promptly gets at the bottom of all blood diseases and cures permanently.

Mr. Joseph C. Mygatt, of No. 400 Hancock Ave., Athens, Ga., says: "I contracted blood poison from my wife, which developed such alarming symptoms, that my life was almost despaired of. At one time there were fourteen carbuncles on my body, and my suffering was such that for months I was unable to do any work. The best physician in our city treated me constantly, but his efforts were of no avail, my condition growing worse all the while. "S. S. S." was recommended, and after I had taken the first bottle, an improvement was noticed. I grew better every day, and after taking six bottles I was entirely cured. The carbuncles all disappeared, leaving my skin perfectly clear, and I have never had one since."

Purely Vegetable

Wedded By Her Mother's Coffin.
Norwich, Conn., July 16.—Miss Sarah G. Iswold Fitch, daughter of the late William and Mary E. Fitch, was married to Francis Hillhouse of New York, a well-known club man, at her residence, on East own street, by the Rev. J. E. Elved, of Trinity Episcopal Church at 8 o'clock last night. Miss Fitch's mother died on Monday. She was married beside her mother's coffin and held the contracting parties only the minister and two witnesses were present.

The marriage was to have taken place on October 5, when Mrs. Fitch was to have given the bride away. Death prevented this arrangement, but Miss Fitch, who is somewhat impulsive, decided to have her mother give her away even in death.
The Fitch family is one of the richest in town and the bride is a leader in society circles. She has $200,000 in her own right. Mr. Hillhouse is employed in New York. On the marriage certificate he gave his age as 38. His bride is 25.

SCHOOL NOTICE.

DEAR ARGUS:—I hope I'll not be trespassing to ask you to insert the following:

The School Board met at Granttham, according to instructions from the Board of Education, and as there were a good many applicants for positions to teach, especially among the colored race, we would like to say to them through your columns, that the Board employed no teacher for the colored schools. Their districts are so miserably laid out, we think it decidedly best for the children to change the lines and have their houses located differently.

There is very little money in a majority of the old districts for both white and colored.
We extend an invitation to the patrons of all the schools (both white and colored) to attend our meetings, and we will gladly listen to any suggestions they see fit to make in the interest of their respective schools. Our next meeting will be the first Saturday in August next at 3 o'clock p. m.

Respectfully,
J. A. STEVENS, Chm. B'd.

THE REAL AND THE UNREAL.
The Farmers and the Marketing of the Crops Are the Mainstay of Our Prosperity.
The Republicans who own newspapers, or who have access to columns they do not own, are engaged in juggling in prosperity, whether or no. They propose to have all recognize it and to rejoice over it, no matter what their respect-ve perspective facilitates may induce them to do.

They would make a more plausible showing perhaps if they got to the job in hand in the accustomed way, instead of tail first. They say capital is regaining confidence, that factories are starting up, that new enterprises are every day occurrences. This is a start, mind you.

Prosperity does not start in that way in this country of farms that way in this country of farms and railroads. The crops and the marketing of them is what we must build on. Not so in little countries, like Belgium or England, where shops or mills or both are the basis, and crops and railroads play second fiddle.

Our farmers and railroads are not, however in the dumps. They sold last year cotton and wheat at pretty good prices. They are now harvesting a great wheat crop, and there are shortages in other wheat-growing countries. Cattle are in demand at advanced figures, and more corn means more cattle. Cotton has not thus far encountered severe disasters. If the farmers and transportation interests are enabled by the crops to buy an increased amount of goods then the basis is laid for increased activity in the factories and for increased confidence in the breast of the wary capitalist. Our esteemed Republican friends would have us believe that the course of trade is the reverse of this. They really ask us to believe that confidence among capitalists and mill owners turns the farmers into active buyers and the middlemen into spendthrifts.

That's the kind that has not fully arrived, and yet it is, let us hope, bound up in the new sheaves of wheat, in the swelling cotton bolls, in the corn that will soon be in the ear. May we all live long enough to witness the coming of the real thing.

When the color of the hair is not pleasing, it may be beautified by using Hall's Hair Restorer, a preparation invented to restore and improve the hair and its color.

MRS. JOE PERSON—
"My little boy was troubled with some bronchial trouble, which every time he took cold settled in his throat and produced something like tonsillitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had trouble in swallow anything and could take no solid food. Last Spring he took half a dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the Wash, and it cured him, he has never had a spell since."

PURELY LITERARY.
But of Varied Tenor, Selected by the Editor from Manifold Sources to Suit Many Minds.
There are tones of wise old sages. There are books of science deep. There are philosophic pages. Over which you fall asleep. There are leaves of lore and stories. There are poesies and rhymes. There are legends of old times. And a grand mass of other things. But all hope and faith eternal. All philosophy and truth. All romance and fancy verbal. All the poetry of youth. All the promise of the hour. You may read it undisturbed. In the pure heart of a flower. In the clear eyes of a child.
—Abbie Farwell Brown.

It's no use moving, if you don't know what your move is; you'd better by far keep still.
Johnson's Chill and Fever Tonic Cures Fever In One Day.

The charms of nature, the majesty of man, the infinite loveliness of truth and virtue, are not hidden from the eyes of the poor; but from the eye of the vain, the corrupted and self-seeking, be he poor or rich. In old age, the humble minstrel, a mendicant, and lord of nothing but his harp and his own free soul, had intimations of those glories; while to the proud baron in his barbaric halls they were unknown.—Thomas Carlyle.

Whenever I look in memory's glass—
What pictures there may be
And view the doings of by-gone days,
This one thing puzzles me:
Why the things and scenes I would most recall
Have vanished clear away;
While the times I have made a fool of myself
Are as fresh as yesterday.
—C. Thomas Duval.

He that wins by wrong doing is still a loser.
Many a man works his way up from the bottom in order to give his son a chance to play his way down.

There are higher satisfactions than the mere getting of money, and riches cannot compensate a man for the consciousness of having lived a dishonorable and selfish life.

There is but one straight course, and that is to seek the truth and pursue it steadily.
If you throw mud to get mud expect your hands to get dirty.

Forever old, and forever new, is the story of motherhood. The most divine mission of woman is to transmit to her offspring the best that is in her nature. If there is 'an inalienable right' or due to a humble being, it is the right to be well born. And by being well born I mean being given a healthy, vigorous physical constitution in which a well balanced mind may be harmoniously developed. A woman who expects, or hopes, to be a good mother should begin to prepare for that estate as soon as she can understand the meaning of the word.—Dr. Lucy Creemer Peck's ham.

Mr. Whitney is gradually dining his way back into the Democratic party.
