BIMETALLISM.

Hon. W. Morton Grinnell, in the October Forum, publishes a thoughtful article on bimetallism, in which he contends that a double money standard is impracticable. His reasons are certainly sound. They are summarized as follows

The causes tending to make bimetalism impossible and the single standard inevitable are (a) natural and (b) artificial.

(a) Natural causes are: (1) The inexerable operations of the econ- and John R. Smith at Mt, Olive. omic law known as "Gresham's law."
