Henry Guess has opened a barber shop in the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City, where he will be pleased to serve his patrons here who may visit the Atlantic during the summer. He will also continue to run his shop under the Hotel Kenyon.

Mr. R. A. Croech, the jeweler, is occupying his place of business now by himself and he has made quite a nice arrangement in his store. He has had the front of his building repainted in black and gold which adds very much to the appearance of the place and looks attractive.

Mr. J. L. Faulkner who will with Mr. C. E. Haskitt, manage the Farmers' Warehouse the next season, arrived here Thursday from his home in south Boston, where he has been spending the vacation. He has come thus early so as to get everything in proper shape for the large business they are expecting when the season opens. Mr. Faulkner was of the management of this warehouse last year and Mr. Haskitt has been its book-keeper since the opening, some two years ago, and they both need no introduction to the planters who have been patrons heretofore.

At the closing exercises of Fremont Academy Friday Dr. F. D. Swindell delivered the annual sermon at 10 o'clock. It was said to be a master piece of oratory. On most occasions of this kind the sermon is generally a matter of form and is delivered in accordance with custom, and with very little interest to the audience, but the sermon of Mr. Swindell yesterday was far from being the smallest item on the programme of exercises. The natural inborn eloquence of that eminent divine swept wandering thoughts from the minds of the large audience and held their attention as if by enchantment. He held up to the youth of the land high ideals as possible attainments in life and showed the difference between superficial fame and intrinsic magnanimity, the latter of which comes only to those who crown their lives with Christian character.

SYSTEMATIC STEALING.

The Home of George Hinson is Searched and Dry Goods Galore Are Found and Recognized.

Daily Argus of Saturday.

The Mayor's office this morning looked like an auction store. Remnants and whole bolts of calico, and dress goods, shoes, pants, buggy robes, towels and notions were strewn all over the room and there was a large crowd of spectators watching the policemen who were acting as clerks in packing and unpacking the different boxes for the several merchants around town who recognized the mass of the goods as coming from their stores.

George Hinson, a white man who has been working as a street hand for the city for several years, stands accused of stealing these articles. The magnitude of the unlawful business that he has been carrying on may be guessed at from the number of those who have been his victims.

Among the large pile of goods which were displayed at the Mayor's office Messrs. Hood & Britt, Messrs. Smith & Scott, Messrs. Bizzell Bros. and Messrs. B. Cohen & Co., recognized several articles as coming from their stores. There was still a large pile left on which there were no marks and they were not identified.

The manner of the discovery of this continuous stealing, which has been going on, perhaps, for several years, was very simple, and yet officer N. G. Price, who searched the house and made the arrest, deserves great credit for this important piece of work.

A calico shirt waist which Hinson's wife had sold to a lady acquaintance, led to the discovery of the stealing. The lady wearing the shirt waist did not hesitate to tell where she bought the goods from and thereby hangs the clue to the whole thing. Officer Price with his usual alertness discovered the secret, and going to work found others who had purchased goods from Hinson. So much evidence was obtained that a warrant was issued for his arrest and a warrant for arrest, and went to Hinson's home yesterday at 6 o'clock, in company with officer Denmark, searched the house, obtained the goods and put Hinson under arrest. He was locked up and will be given a hearing before Mayor Peterson Monday morning. The evidence already obtained is conclusive as to Hinson's guilt and he was sent to jail this morning to await the findings of the Mayor's court on Monday at 10 o'clock.

Our I's and.... ....Other Eyes.

Our I's are just as strong as they were fifty years ago, when we have cause to use them. But we have less and less cause to praise ourselves, since others do the praising, and we are more than willing for you to see us through other eyes. This is how we look to S. F. Boyce, wholesale and retail druggist, Duluth, Minn., who after a quarter of a century of observation writes:

"I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla for more than 25 years, both at wholesale and retail, and have never heard anything but words of praise from my customers; not a single complaint has ever reached me. I believe Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifier that has been introduced to the general public." This, from a man who has sold thousands of dozens of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is strong testimony. But it only echoes popular sentiment the world over, which has, "Nothing but words of praise for Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

Any doubt about it? Send for "Curebook" It kills doubts and cures doubters. Address J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

The peacemaker is all right, but he is never appreciated by the man who is getting the best of it.

When you have a sick horse you do not hitch him up to a sulky and take him to the race track for a little headstall spin. You doctor him. You cannot work or recreate a man into good health any more than you can a horse. Bicycling will make healthy men more unhealthy. When a man has been living in too big a hurry, when he has worked himself out, when he has got so that he does not sleep or eat, or rest, a man healthy and then a bicycle will make him strong. Medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing "just as good."

"Through your skillful treatment I am once more a well man," writes J. N. Arnold, Esq., of Gandy, Logan Co., Neb. "I suffered for years with constipation and torpidity of the liver, irritation of the prostate and inflammation of the bladder. I took six bottles of Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets and an permanent cure. I have been the means of saving my life."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell them. No other pills are "just as good."

SATURDAY SERMON.

For Sunday Personal and Every Day Guidance.

If the church in the home loses its place, the church elsewhere will exert less influence for good. There are thousands of professing church people who go to church when they feel like it once on Sunday when every circumstance is favorable, who rent a sitting or a pew and give something when present for the support of the services; who call upon the clergy when they want their children baptized, their offspring married or some dear one buried, and whose religion ends right there. The great majority of such people never seem to realize that there is any duty resting upon themselves as parents and guardians of the souls of children; they do not or will not see that the church to be a reality must be something more than a place of resort on a clear Sunday morning; that religion is something more than listening to a sermon once a week and paying pew rent four times a year. Revive the church in the home and you will breathe an atmosphere of realism all the time instead of inhaling it for an hour and a half on Sunday; revive the church in the home and your religion will begin to have a depth of meaning in it, a sense of reality about it, a measure of importance attached to it, that you have never dreamed of hitherto; revive the church in the home and the church elsewhere, with its lessons, its liturgy, its sacraments, its offices, will acquire a new sweetness, an added beauty, fresh interest and a personal attachment for you which comes as a revelation. The scales drop from your eyes as you see the beauty of a system which includes all, father, mother and children, in the same covenant of grace, and you thank God and take courage as you realize as you never have before the blessedness and the comfort of the words "the promise is unto you and to your children."

But there is another great argument for the revival of family religion. We are living in a day of great danger. The Christian faith is set up, as it were, for a target and all men who can draw a bow or hurl a dart assail it. Hume with his malice, Voltaire with his sarcasm, Ingersoll with his eloquence have many followers. Rationalism is the popular fad of the age. Men must, like St. Thomas of old, see with their eyes and touch with their fingers or they will not believe. Matters of the most sacred character are made the subject of jest in poetry and story. The morals of the Mosaic law are treated with cold unconcern. Men must have grace every day; there must be daily help for daily need. There is an aperture for every sin to enter the sacred precinct of the home: there is a crevice through which penetrates every pestilential atmosphere of infidelity and blasphemy, heresy and delusion. Church going on Sunday will not suffice to combat these dangers of the home. The foe must be met on his own ground. To offset irreligion and skepticism, let there be prayers offered and religion mentioned often—with reverence and love. To offset the attractions of worldly matters let religious men and religious matters be shown in their true light. Let us endeavor to find that happy medium in family religion which avoids the Puritanical strict-lacedness of old New England on the one hand and the laxity of the present day in all parts of the country on the other. If there be no church teaching in the home, how can the preacher hope to make any permanent impression upon the minds of those who hear him? If there be no church in the home, how can we wonder that there are few young men in our congregations and that the coming generation of young people are entirely indifferent to the religion of Christ, its institutions, its life, its mission and its destiny?

And then, too, how sweet the entire life of one who has been brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord! How infinitely sweet the mantle of righteousness which falls from the godly person of one who has feared God and all his house upon the shoulders of the child! From father to son, from mother to daughter, the promise extends, and as the years go by the members of the dear familiar church in the home grow less and less, until all are gathered from beneath the roof-tree and sleep beneath the turf, each head pillowed with a prayer, in sure and certain hope, and on each stone are carried the words: "Here sleeps in Christ!" The shadows of the night of time vanish at the breaking of the dawn of eternity. A united household: Father, mother, children, all are there! All awake to the brightness of the perfect day. A glorious union, not one missing, a united family, a united family in Heaven!

Chronic Dyspepsia Cured.

After suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 28 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent help. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nervine. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects. I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

STILL WAITING FOR HELP.

SAMPSON IRRITATED OVER THE DELAY IN SENDING TROOPS

The War Department Indignant at the Timidity of the Navy Department.

Convoys Chasing Spooks.

By Telegraph to The Argus.
Washington, June 11.—Admiral Sampson this morning sent Secretary Long a cipher dispatch to the Navigation Bureau from Port Antonio, which is said to contain news of the utmost importance.

It is known that the delay in sending troops to assist Sampson in holding the grounds which he is bombarding daily at Santiago and adjacent points has greatly irritated the Admiral.

His message this morning is supposed to deal with this phase of the situation and to urge upon the Department the expediency of haste. He also designated to the Department the number and the names of the ships he has sent to meet and reinforce the convoys.

The newest plan of the Administration which contemplates the holding of troop ships near Key West until Monday does not meet the approval of Sampson. He wants transports to sail immediately, so he will not have to reduce the Spanish fortifications one day only to have to do his work over again the next day for lack of troops to drive the Spaniards away from the coast.

Washington, June 11.—Operations against Cuba are still suspended while the convoys chase the spook Spanish ships around the Gulf. The War Department is indignant at the timidity of the Navy Department, Secretary Long says the convoys will return in time for the expedition to start to-morrow.

The first part of the second Manila expedition is expected to sail to-day.

GREAT IS AMERICA.

England Would Send 100,000 Soldiers, But Don't Think It Necessary.

An Admiring Englishman.

By Telegraph to The Argus.

New York June 11.—Sir Thomas Lipton, the great English tea merchant, arrived on the steamer Lucania this morning. He says all England is intensely interested in the war. Englishmen will not allow any interference and England will attend to the European ring, leaving America to deal with Spain exactly as it pleases.

If necessary England, he says, will send 100,000 soldiers to the assistance of America. He says furthermore we believe that it will not be necessary to call on us, for the whole world knows that nothing can win against America.

THE MERRIMAC'S HEROES.

SAMPSON'S ESTIMATE OF THEIR VALOR

He Thinks Their Brave Deed Unclassified in the Annals of History Except by the Cushing.

Recommends Recognition.

By Telegraph to The Argus.
Washington, June 11.—In his official report to the President on the Merrimac achievement in Santiago channel Admiral Sampson says:

"I cannot too earnestly express my appreciation of the conduct of Mr. Hobson and his gallant crew; and I venture to say that a more brave or daring deed has not been done since the Cushing blew up the Albatross."

Referring to the inspiring letter which you addressed to all officers at the beginning of the war, I am sure you will offer suitable professional reward to Mr. Hobson and his no less heroic companions.

"And let me add here, that Commander Miller, of the Merrimac, relinquished his command with the very greatest reluctance, believing that he should stand by his charge under all circumstances. He was, however, finally persuaded that for any other person to attempt to carry out the multitude of details which had been under the exclusive preparation of Mr. Hobson might endanger the successful execution of the daring scheme."

"There were hundreds of volunteers anxious to participate. There were 150 volunteered from the Iowa; quite as many from the New York, and large numbers from all the other ships of the fleet, among officers and men promiscuously."

A little boy asked for a bottle of "get up in the morning as fast as you can," the druggist recognized a house hold name for "De Witt's Little Early Risers," and gave him a bottle of those famous little pills for constipation, sick headache, liver and stomach troubles. ## FLOATING DOWN THE RIVER.

The Body of a Young Man Was Discovered this Morning Floating Down East River.

Supposed to Be Jos. Britz.

By Telegraph to The Argus.

New York, June 11.—The body of a man 28 years old, 5 feet and 10 inches high, with dark hair and dark complexion, was found floating in East river at 6 o'clock this morning. His arms and legs were tightly pinioned by a rope which was wrapped around the body in many folds and tied in knots between the shoulder blades. The face was badly cut and bruised. He is believed to be Joseph Britz, of Brooklyn, who disappeared on June 1st with $600 belonging to his father.

No one has been able to solve the mysterious disappearance of the young man and as his description corresponds with that of the unfortunate victim floating in the river this morning the belief is gaining ground that Britz was murdered and robbed of the money and thrown into the river. The face of the young man found this morning is mutilated beyond recognition and decomposition has already set in.

Little Pimples Turn to Cancer.

Cancer often results from an impurity in the blood, inherited from generations back. Few people are entirely free from some taint in the blood, and it is impossible to tell when it will break out in the form of dreaded Cancer. What has appeared to be a mere pimple or scratch has developed into the most malignant Cancer.

I had a severe Cancer which was first only a few blotches, that I thought would soon pass away. I was treated by several able physicians, but in spite of their efforts I decided to try S. S. S. I had been recommended. The first bottle effected a marked improvement. I continued with the medicine, and in four months the last trace of the cancer had disappeared, and not a sign of the disease has returned. J. M. Gilliberto, Miss. S. S. S.
