

Willams' Baking Powder

Willams' Baking Powder

VOL. XVII.

GOLDSBORO, N. C. THURSDAY JUNE 30, 1898.

NO 59

OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

It is probable that the warm weather has now come to stay...

The season for water-melons and excursions is upon us...

Dr. E. E. Smith, of this city, who is with the negro regiment at Fort Macon...

The travel to Morehead is increasing daily, and the engaged rooms at the Atlantic for July and August...

Mr. Will Parker has accepted a position with Messrs. Royall & Borden as shipping clerk...

Messrs. F. H. Chamberlain & Co. are making extensive additions to the plant of their tobacco stemmery...

Our clever young friend and countyman Mr. Marion Lynch, son of Mr. Haywood Lynch...

The business men and citizens generally of Goldsboro have responded quite liberally to the committee who are raising funds for the firemen's tournament...

Mr. Carl E. Stanley, of the G. U. and R. Co., is in Raleigh with friends for a few days...

The names of the recruits which left here Thursday to join the 1st Regiment at Jacksonville are given as follows: Clem Munroe, Alf Duncan, Charley Head, Jas. Crode, Thos. Hughes, Ben Taylor, Henry Barnes, Lewis Moore, A. D. Creech, Howard Bain, T. B. Smith, W. Grady and N. Gardner. Mr. Creech, whose name appears in the list, is from Clayton, and threw up a job as traveling salesman for a Baltimore house. He forwarded his sample cases to the house from here.

EVENT OF THE SEASON. THE EXPECTED IS NOW A CERTAINTY.

"Pipkin's Excursion" to Washington is set for July 19. It will be the Largest and Most Far Reaching he has yet Run.

Wilmington to Washington Goldsboro has the reputation, far and near, for many things that are the best, and among these she are conceded, without question, to have the best excursion manager in the country...

Morally Defeated at First. By Cable to The Argus. Kingston, June 25.—In correspondence received from Ferdinand Miller, of the second Spanish command at Santiago, says that food, powder and ammunition is scarce...

Honolulu is Ready. By Telegraph to The Argus. San Francisco, June 25.—Advances received to-day from Honolulu say that orders have been issued to members of the Hawaiian National Guard to report immediately to their commanding officers equipped for active services.

Death of Betrothal. A few years ago a New York newspaper conducted an open discussion upon the "The Marriage of Fate." The answer is easy and upon the surface. Where there is a mutual love and respect, if there is also health, marriage is a success. When health is left out, even the most ardent love does not count, and marriage is invariably a failure.

There was widespread indignation yesterday afternoon when it became known that Governor Russell had sent for Mr. Henry Bagley, editor of the Times-Visitor, to come into his office, and had there offered him an insult that no man of the least pretension to decency would offer to a gentleman.

Mr. Bagley is very popular here in Raleigh. The paper with which he is connected is not political, and at no time has it made any reference to politics. His paper prints the news, no matter who is concerned.

As is well known, Mr. Pipkin always carries a corps of efficient coadjutors to look after the ladies and children of his excursion, attend to all baggage, and cater to the comfort of every passenger...

In running his excursions Mr. Pipkin always selects dates that have at the objective points attractions that are out of the ordinary. This year, in addition to the manifold usual attractions at Washington, the art galleries, government departments, public squares, the White House and grounds, the Capitol, the superb National Library, the towering Washington Monument, Congress in session, and many other features too numerous to recount...

SCANDAL NUMBER 17. THE GOVERNOR PUTS HIS HAND ON HIS PISTOL.

Insults Mr. W. H. Bagley. Falsely Alleges That Mr. Bagley Had Slandered a Lady.

STATE DISGRACED BY HIS CONDUCT. One of These Days, if the Blatherskite in the Governor's Office Doesn't Behave Himself, Somebody Will Blow His Head Off.

to Executive Clerk Fowle, but I called him to meet Lieutenant Harlow. He greeted the Lieutenant with some pleasant word and I then told him I had come at the request of Adjutant General Cowles to have Mr. Harlow meet the Governor. He motioned towards the Governor's office, saying to me to go in.

"I walked in advance of Lieutenant Harlow, and said 'Governor Russell let me present Lieutenant Harlow, of Charleston, who is here to master in the new volunteers. General Cowles requested me to introduce him.' 'After the Governor had asked a few questions, I told the Lieutenant that if I could be of further service to him I would be glad to do so, and that I could be found in the Auditor's office. He thanked me saying that I would oblige him by taking him to the Adjutant General's office in a few minutes. This I said I would do, and that I would return to the Governor's office for him in ten minutes.

"I went at once on my rounds gathering news and while Chief Clerk Simms, of the Auditor's office, was giving me a statement for publication, Executive Clerk Fowle entered, saying, 'Bagley, the Governor wants to see you.' I went at once to the Executive office with Mr. Fowle.

"To my surprise, as soon as I entered the room, Governor Russell stepped out from his desk, saying in loud tones, accompanying his expressions with profanity, 'You are the man who published an article slandering a white lady at my house, I order you out of my office.'

"I replied that I had never slandered any lady or any one in his house. 'He then became furious and, stepping back to his desk, putting his hand in the drawer where his pistol was seen, said, 'It's a lie, you slandered a white lady and printed lies.'

Crippled by Rheumatism.

Those who have Rheumatism find themselves growing steadily worse all the while. One reason of this is that the remedies prescribed by the doctors contain mercury and potash, which ultimately intensify the disease...

Capt. O. E. Hughes, the popular railroad conductor, of Columbia, S. C., had an experience with Rheumatism which convinced him that there is only one remedy that will cure Rheumatism for ever.

Everybody knows that Rheumatism is a diseased state of the blood, and only a blood remedy is the only proper treatment, but a remedy containing potash and mercury only aggravates the trouble.

S.S.S. For the Blood being Purely Vegetable, goes direct to the very cause of the disease and a permanent cure always results. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other dangerous minerals.

Books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

For Rent! The six room house in front of Mrs. L. W. Humphrey, on the corner of Elm and William streets.

For Sale! The Dorch farm and the Bonitz farm, and several houses and lots in the city. Terms reasonable.

Ed. L. Edmundson, Real Estate Agent.

Suffered 20 Years.

Mrs. Mary Lewis, wife of a prominent farmer, and well known by all old residents near Belmont, N. C., writes: 'For twenty-seven years I had been a constant sufferer from nervous prostration, and paid large sums of money for doctors and advertised remedies without benefit.'

Three years ago my condition was alarming; the least noise would startle and unnerve me. I was unable to sleep, had a number of sinking spells and slowly grew worse. I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve Liver Pills.

At Norfolk, the United States Navy Yard was never so attractive as now, with thousands of workmen building war vessels, that are to go forth to maintain the nation's honor on the high seas.

Therefore it is that the coming excursion of Mr. Pipkin, on July 19, we predict, will be the largest, perhaps, the State has ever known.

SCANDAL NUMBER 17. THE GOVERNOR PUTS HIS HAND ON HIS PISTOL.

Insults Mr. W. H. Bagley. Falsely Alleges That Mr. Bagley Had Slandered a Lady.

STATE DISGRACED BY HIS CONDUCT. One of These Days, if the Blatherskite in the Governor's Office Doesn't Behave Himself, Somebody Will Blow His Head Off.

to Executive Clerk Fowle, but I called him to meet Lieutenant Harlow. He greeted the Lieutenant with some pleasant word and I then told him I had come at the request of Adjutant General Cowles to have Mr. Harlow meet the Governor. He motioned towards the Governor's office, saying to me to go in.

"I walked in advance of Lieutenant Harlow, and said 'Governor Russell let me present Lieutenant Harlow, of Charleston, who is here to master in the new volunteers. General Cowles requested me to introduce him.' 'After the Governor had asked a few questions, I told the Lieutenant that if I could be of further service to him I would be glad to do so, and that I could be found in the Auditor's office. He thanked me saying that I would oblige him by taking him to the Adjutant General's office in a few minutes. This I said I would do, and that I would return to the Governor's office for him in ten minutes.

"I went at once on my rounds gathering news and while Chief Clerk Simms, of the Auditor's office, was giving me a statement for publication, Executive Clerk Fowle entered, saying, 'Bagley, the Governor wants to see you.' I went at once to the Executive office with Mr. Fowle.

"To my surprise, as soon as I entered the room, Governor Russell stepped out from his desk, saying in loud tones, accompanying his expressions with profanity, 'You are the man who published an article slandering a white lady at my house, I order you out of my office.'

"I replied that I had never slandered any lady or any one in his house. 'He then became furious and, stepping back to his desk, putting his hand in the drawer where his pistol was seen, said, 'It's a lie, you slandered a white lady and printed lies.'

"He repeated his order that I should leave his office, and I said he could order me from his office and that I would leave, but never without making the statement that he had lied.

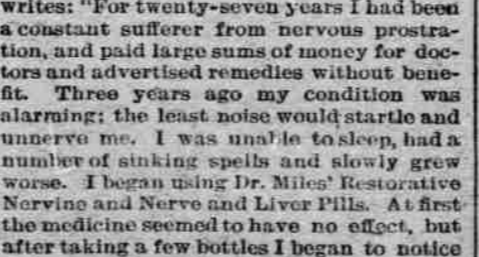

"When I said this, he was still standing in front of his desk and was talking loudly and profanely, his right hand fumbling in his desk drawer, and I could see from the way he held his hand that he was fingering a pistol.

"He again ordered me from his office, saying I had printed a slanderous lie on a lady, and I again repeated to him the statement that he lied.

"Infuriated, he almost shouted 'You can't insult me in my office, sir!' and in reply, I said, 'I can't insult you in your office.'

"There was widespread indignation yesterday afternoon when it became known that Governor Russell had sent for Mr. Henry Bagley, editor of the Times-Visitor, to come into his office, and had there offered him an insult that no man of the least pretension to decency would offer to a gentleman.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve Liver Pills are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve Liver Pills are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

SCANDAL NUMBER 17. THE GOVERNOR PUTS HIS HAND ON HIS PISTOL.

Insults Mr. W. H. Bagley. Falsely Alleges That Mr. Bagley Had Slandered a Lady.

STATE DISGRACED BY HIS CONDUCT. One of These Days, if the Blatherskite in the Governor's Office Doesn't Behave Himself, Somebody Will Blow His Head Off.

to Executive Clerk Fowle, but I called him to meet Lieutenant Harlow. He greeted the Lieutenant with some pleasant word and I then told him I had come at the request of Adjutant General Cowles to have Mr. Harlow meet the Governor. He motioned towards the Governor's office, saying to me to go in.

"I walked in advance of Lieutenant Harlow, and said 'Governor Russell let me present Lieutenant Harlow, of Charleston, who is here to master in the new volunteers. General Cowles requested me to introduce him.' 'After the Governor had asked a few questions, I told the Lieutenant that if I could be of further service to him I would be glad to do so, and that I could be found in the Auditor's office. He thanked me saying that I would oblige him by taking him to the Adjutant General's office in a few minutes. This I said I would do, and that I would return to the Governor's office for him in ten minutes.

"I went at once on my rounds gathering news and while Chief Clerk Simms, of the Auditor's office, was giving me a statement for publication, Executive Clerk Fowle entered, saying, 'Bagley, the Governor wants to see you.' I went at once to the Executive office with Mr. Fowle.

"To my surprise, as soon as I entered the room, Governor Russell stepped out from his desk, saying in loud tones, accompanying his expressions with profanity, 'You are the man who published an article slandering a white lady at my house, I order you out of my office.'

"I replied that I had never slandered any lady or any one in his house. 'He then became furious and, stepping back to his desk, putting his hand in the drawer where his pistol was seen, said, 'It's a lie, you slandered a white lady and printed lies.'

"He repeated his order that I should leave his office, and I said he could order me from his office and that I would leave, but never without making the statement that he had lied.

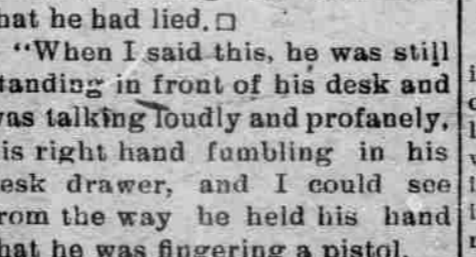

"When I said this, he was still standing in front of his desk and was talking loudly and profanely, his right hand fumbling in his desk drawer, and I could see from the way he held his hand that he was fingering a pistol.

"He again ordered me from his office, saying I had printed a slanderous lie on a lady, and I again repeated to him the statement that he lied.

"Infuriated, he almost shouted 'You can't insult me in my office, sir!' and in reply, I said, 'I can't insult you in your office.'

"There was widespread indignation yesterday afternoon when it became known that Governor Russell had sent for Mr. Henry Bagley, editor of the Times-Visitor, to come into his office, and had there offered him an insult that no man of the least pretension to decency would offer to a gentleman.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve Liver Pills are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve Liver Pills are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

SCANDAL NUMBER 17. THE GOVERNOR PUTS HIS HAND ON HIS PISTOL.

Insults Mr. W. H. Bagley. Falsely Alleges That Mr. Bagley Had Slandered a Lady.

STATE DISGRACED BY HIS CONDUCT. One of These Days, if the Blatherskite in the Governor's Office Doesn't Behave Himself, Somebody Will Blow His Head Off.

to Executive Clerk Fowle, but I called him to meet Lieutenant Harlow. He greeted the Lieutenant with some pleasant word and I then told him I had come at the request of Adjutant General Cowles to have Mr. Harlow meet the Governor. He motioned towards the Governor's office, saying to me to go in.

"I walked in advance of Lieutenant Harlow, and said 'Governor Russell let me present Lieutenant Harlow, of Charleston, who is here to master in the new volunteers. General Cowles requested me to introduce him.' 'After the Governor had asked a few questions, I told the Lieutenant that if I could be of further service to him I would be glad to do so, and that I could be found in the Auditor's office. He thanked me saying that I would oblige him by taking him to the Adjutant General's office in a few minutes. This I said I would do, and that I would return to the Governor's office for him in ten minutes.

"I went at once on my rounds gathering news and while Chief Clerk Simms, of the Auditor's office, was giving me a statement for publication, Executive Clerk Fowle entered, saying, 'Bagley, the Governor wants to see you.' I went at once to the Executive office with Mr. Fowle.

"To my surprise, as soon as I entered the room, Governor Russell stepped out from his desk, saying in loud tones, accompanying his expressions with profanity, 'You are the man who published an article slandering a white lady at my house, I order you out of my office.'

"I replied that I had never slandered any lady or any one in his house. 'He then became furious and, stepping back to his desk, putting his hand in the drawer where his pistol was seen, said, 'It's a lie, you slandered a white lady and printed lies.'

"He repeated his order that I should leave his office, and I said he could order me from his office and that I would leave, but never without making the statement that he had lied.

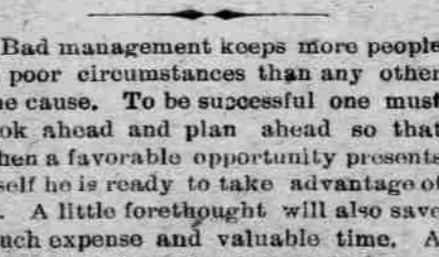

"When I said this, he was still standing in front of his desk and was talking loudly and profanely, his right hand fumbling in his desk drawer, and I could see from the way he held his hand that he was fingering a pistol.

"He again ordered me from his office, saying I had printed a slanderous lie on a lady, and I again repeated to him the statement that he lied.

"Infuriated, he almost shouted 'You can't insult me in my office, sir!' and in reply, I said, 'I can't insult you in your office.'

"There was widespread indignation yesterday afternoon when it became known that Governor Russell had sent for Mr. Henry Bagley, editor of the Times-Visitor, to come into his office, and had there offered him an insult that no man of the least pretension to decency would offer to a gentleman.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve Liver Pills are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve Liver Pills are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

SATURDAY SERMON.

For Sunday Pulpit and Every Day Guidance.

The ideal man is not the phlegmatic, the indifferent or sluggish man. Such a man is like a pile of green wood, from which you can get no blaze. There is in him neither heat nor good cheer.

The ideal man is the man of many passions, impulses, ambitions, but all under control of a central will. If you wish your engine to do good work, you must have plenty of coal in the furnace and plenty of steam in the boiler. But you must be master of the steam, for it is omnipotent to do your will if rightly directed and omnipotent to destroy you unless so directed.

There is a great deal of religion in simply keeping quiet. It is the best thing for you to do, and at the same time the hardest. The rash people in the world spend most of their time in regret for what they have done. Friendships have been broken by words which no more represented your real sentiments than a house on fire represents the happiness of the family that lives in it. Domestic misery has been caused by language, hasty and inconsiderate language, every syllable of which falsified the true feeling of the person who uttered it. The speaker was simply obsessed, a bad influence threw him into mental chaos, and his words were a blizzard—a cyclone. He could not control it because he had not learned one of the important secrets of success.

More and worse than that, many a man has made a failure of his career for the same reason. The New Testament is worth studying if you would find the best way to get on in life and to make the most of the varied experiences which come to you.

You are too much like the Sea of Galilee in a storm. You need some one at your side to cry constantly 'Be still.' But you ought not to need this, for you should be your own ruler and utter the command to yourself.

We are in a state of mind too constantly perturbed and restless. Small things throw us off our balance. We are suspicious, envious, and, last of all, embittered. Keep quiet. Get into the habit of thinking before speaking or acting. Spend half an hour in serene meditation every day, asking what it is worth while to do, and why it is worth your while to do it. Then you will reach the conclusion that there are some things which it is worth your while not to do.

All of this is included in the broad idea of religion. It teaches you how to create within yourself a spirit of quietness, to attain that self-poise which is so necessary to happiness, and thus to be at your best when some unusual struggle is at hand.

The laws of the universe will then be on your side, and you will be able to overcome without effort, for the events of life are made harder by the restlessness with which we meet them, and they could be made less harmful if we would meet them quietly and accept them as quarried marble to be cut into shape by the patient chisel of a nature which is determined to be as contented as possible.

For life is the mirror of King and slave, 'Tis just what we are and do, Then give to the world the best you have And the best will come to you.

Relief in Six Hours. Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure, this is your remedy. Sold by M. E. Robinson & Bro. druggists, Goldsboro, N. C.

"I think DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salvo is the best preparation on the market for rheumatism." So writes John C. Dunn, of Wheeling, W. Va. Try it and you will think the same. It also cures eczema and all skin diseases. J. H. Hill & Son, Goldsboro, and John R. Smith, Mt. Olive.

In nine cases out of ten the less a man actually knows the bigger the noise he makes and the higher the salary he commands.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills

have, from the time of their preparation, been a continuous success with the public. And that means that Ayer's Pills accomplish what is promised for them; they cure where others fail. It was fitting, therefore, that the world-wide popularity of these pills should be recognized by the World's Fair medal of 1893—a fact which emphasizes the record: 50 Years of Cures.

Life of Big Guns. Boston Journal. In the bombardment of San Juan and Santiago and the incidental operations of Admiral Sampson and Commodore Schley the great guns of the battleships and monitors have already been discharged more times than foreign theory has credited such weapons with the power of enduring. No injury of consequence has anywhere resulted.

The Chief Burgess of Millsboro, Pa., says DeWitt's Little Early Bitters are the best pills ever used in the family during forty years of housekeeping. They cure constipation, sick headache, and stomach and liver troubles. Small in size but great in results. J. H. Hill & Son, Goldsboro, and John R. Smith, Mt. Olive.

Although a dude is but an apology for a man are there lots of girls who are not averse to accepting an apology.

Mr. P. Ketcham, of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sufferings from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this balm affords. For sale by M. E. Robinson & Bro., and Miller's Pharmacy, in Goldsboro, and by Jno. R. Smith at Mt. Olive.

The bond subscriptions make this a billion dollar country. Spain should look on and observe how we lend to ourselves.

Mr. John Bevin, editor of the Press in London, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for fifteen years, have recommended it to hundreds of others, and have never known it to fail in a single instance. For sale by M. E. Robinson & Bro., and Miller's Pharmacy, in Goldsboro, and by Jno. R. Smith at Mt. Olive."

When a man of merit wins everybody attributes it to his good luck.

The editor of the Evans City, Pa., Globe, writes, "One Minute Cough Cure is rightly named. It cured my children after all other remedies failed." It cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. J. H. Hill & Son, Goldsboro, and John R. Smith, Mt. Olive.

No attention is paid to a chronic liar when he utters an occasional truth.

Bob Moore, of La Fayette, Ind., says that for constipation he has found DeWitt's Little Early Bitters to be perfect. They never grip. Try them for stomach and liver troubles. J. H. Hill & Son, Goldsboro, and John R. Smith, Mt. Olive.

The biggest fish stories come in bottles.

Thousands of persons have been cured of piles by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salvo. It heals promptly and cures eczema and all skin diseases. It gives immediate relief. J. H. Hill & Son, Goldsboro, and John R. Smith, Mt. Olive.

And now the sweet girl graduate is on the war-path.

"I think DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salvo is the best preparation on the market for rheumatism." So writes John C. Dunn, of Wheeling, W. Va. Try it and you will think the same. It also cures eczema and all skin diseases. J. H. Hill & Son, Goldsboro, and John R. Smith, Mt. Olive.