JOY AND HAPPINESS.

IN RALEIGH'S GREAT JUBI-LEE AND CELEBRATION.

The City a Beautiful Spectacle-An Enormous Crowd Present.

Raleigh Post. Old time Democratic enthusiasm enveloped the capital city of North Carolina last night. Never n Raleigh's history was there such a demonstration as was witnessed on her streets last evening. The occasion was the jollification and celebration of the great Democratic victory one week previous to the very day.

The city was alive with cheering people, the streets were aglow with flaming crackling barels of tar, and brilliant illumination shed radiant light from every window and building. Above all this enthusiasm, this flaming fire and illumination, was the explosion of cannon crackers. the cheering of thousands of citizens and the deafening volume of voise that proceeded from tin horns, tin pans, etc. An indes cribable din filled the air from dusk until a late hour last night. The great crowd that thronged every avenue in the city ran way up in the thousands. Every white citizen of Raleigh, who was able to walk took part in the great jubilee and equally many from a distance joined in There is no telling how many people were out, but a more jubilant and enthusiastic body of citizens never met together.
