An unfortunate circumstance in which a worthy young man lost his life occurred near Pikes ville Saturday. Mr. Wm. Thompson, son of Mr. Jim Thompson, went hunting Saturday and killed a rabbit. He was holding the rab bit in front of him in one hand and his gun in the other. The dogs were jumping up to catch hold of the rabbit and in jumping up one of the the dogs struck the hammer of the gun and caused the gun to fire. Death was instantaneous. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

It is true the southern cotton mills as a rule make money, but how do they do it? In the first place, the non productive expense of a southern mill is not so high it is in the north.
