APPROACH OF CHRISTMAS.

A Look Before and After as to the I fluence of What the Coming Day Commemorates

Just three days now and we wil stand upon the eve of the glad feast of Christmas.

A great many wise gentlemen have been interesting themselves down the centre aisle with her of late in what they call the study maid of honor, meeting the of comparative religious and the groom at the chancel rail, where evolution of Christianity. Their imagination of God, or his conception of what God should be, and as such conception naturally changes with the intellectual ad vance of civilization, religion is simply the expression of the spiritual ideas and aspirations of a partiticular race at a particular which the happy pair took for a much interest by reason of the popularity of the bride. The ushers were Messrs, J. L. Scott, of Richmond, P. F. Ste-
