OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Mr. S. W. Draper, city tax collector, requests the ARGUS to say to delinquent tax payers that he will publish the names of all those who have not paid their taxes by the 1st of February in the columns of the ARGUS.

The death of Mr. Geo. W. Thompson, for many years a clerk for E. M. Lehman in this city, occurred here Thursday last. He was about 45 years of age, and was a man of many good qualities and especially devoted to his friends and family.

In the reading of our telegraphic legislative reports of Thursday one might inadvertently think that Judge Allen introduced the bill called the "Court House Ring Bill." But the punctuation showed that he did not. That bill was introduced by the member from Pender county.

People from the country and those in town who have business in the county are complaining of the bad condition of the roads leading to Goldsboro. The populist scheme of working roads by taxation has given more general dissatisfaction than anything else they have done of a local nature.

Mr. I. B. Fonville has left Bartow, Fla., where he was spending some time for his health, and has proceeded southward to the shores of Cuba, in the delightful climate of which he will try to regain his impaired health. During his absence his business is being carefully looked after by Mr. Wayne Fonville and Mr. Jas. Hines.

Dr. W. H. H. Cobb has just returned from Charlotte, where he has been in attendance upon the Tri-State Medical Society of the two Carolinas and Virginia. He was chosen president of the Society, a compliment which has been worthily bestowed and which will afford sincere gratification to his many friends in this city.

Major J. C. Eason has purchased all interest in the firm of Baker & Eason, who have been the proprietors of the new firm which will read Baker & Eason. Major Eason is a business man of many years' experience in Goldsboro and the public are well acquainted with him. Mr. John Eason, a son of Major Eason, who has been with Messrs. Bizzell Bros. & Co. for some time, has been employed as salesman for the new firm.

Mr. E. S. Waddell, formerly with the Goldsboro Tobacco Warehouse, has accepted a position with Messrs. Royal & Borden as book keeper to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. J. Wash Bizzell, who goes to work next week as book-keeper in the establishment of his father-in-law Mr. W. H. Lugsins. Mr. Bizzell has been with Messrs. Royal & Borden for several years and his services have always been more than satisfactory to his employers. It is with reluctance shared alike by both employer and employee that their respective relations are to cease.

Mr. D. H. Wallace, of the firm of D. H. Wallace & Co., of Wallace, was here last week to the pleasure of his many friends. He is "on the road" again after a vacation for about 12 months, during which time he has been in business for himself. He is now travelling for Morris Bear & Sons, of Wilmington, and is visiting his many old patrons throughout the Eastern part of the State. He will still retain his business at Wallace, which will be looked after by his partner Mr. N. H. Carter, a young man who has a number of friends among the trading public of that section.

THE A. & N. C. R. R.

Judge Allen's Bill Providing for Immediate Democratic Control of the Road.

NAMES MENTIONED FOR PRESIDENT.

Mr. Chas. Dewey Should Have It

Daily Argus, Friday, Jan 20. Before a Democratic Legislature composed of such representative North Carolinians as constitute the present General Assembly, it were a reflection on their intelligence, statesmanship and their sense of duty of research and consequent award to the fittest, for the ARGUS, or any one, to argue factual claims or sectional advantage in determining who shall have the presidency of the A. & N. C. Railroad.

It is a valuable State property, and it is the duty of the General Assembly to see that its administration is placed in the most competent hands for the State's best interest.

In Mr. Chas. Dewey, of this city, the State has available a man of competent business sagacity, rounded practical experience in the affairs of the A. & N. C. road, having been for eight years, immediately prior to the present Republican administration, a director of the road, thoroughly conversant with the cost and operation of locomotive machinery and its appurtenances, and is therefore fully equipped to take charge of the road to the highest advantage of that valuable State property.

As to the claims of counties along the line of the road holding stock in the company, it should not be lost sight of that the State holds two thirds of the entire stock and individual citizens hold largely the majority of the other third.

The ARGUS is led to these comments at this time by the following extended article on the subject from the Raleigh News & Observer of this morning:

"Under the law, the directors of the North Carolina Railroad and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad are appointed by the Board of Internal Improvements. As the law now stands that board is composed of the Governor and two others appointed by him. The present members are Daniel L. Russell, J. C. L. Harris, and Chas. A. Cook.

"Yesterday, at a meeting of the committee on Internal Improvements, Chairman Walter E. Moore presiding, the committee decided to favorably report the bills introduced by Judge Allen, of Wayne, to increase the number of members of the Board of Internal Improvements to nine, one from each district, and as thus constituted to confer upon it the powers now exercised by the Governor and others in the appointment of directors and proxy of the N. C. Railroad and the A. & N. C. Railroad. One of Judge Allen's bills repeals the legislation of 1897 with reference to these roads.

"For several days there has been a contest waging for the control of the A. and N. C. Railroad between prominent citizens of Craven and Wayne counties. The Craven people claim that, as Newbern is the chief city on the line of the road and the biggest owner of stock, the President should be a citizen of Craven county, and they present as their candidate State Senator James A. Bryan, one of the best and most successful business men of Eastern North Carolina. He has strong friends and supporters who will work to put him in charge of the road's affairs.

"The Wayne county people are supporting Mr. Charles Dewey, one of the best and most successful business men in Eastern North

A vivacious woman's face can frequently speak in more eloquent language than any tongue. It is the tongue of her health, her high or low, her haughty or humble, her sunny or stormy, her healthy or diseased, her womanly or manly, her joyous or sorrowful, and her dejection while her healthy sisters enjoy themselves. She may be naturally beautiful, naturally attractive, naturally interesting and animated and witty, but the demon of ill-health is gnawing at the very vitals of her womanly nature, and she soon becomes a withered flower in comparison with her brighter and more healthy sisters. Dr. Miles' Nervine Prescription is a wonderful medicine for women who suffer in this way. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in weakness and motherhood. It tones and builds up the shattered nerves. It restores the glow of health to the pallid cheek. It gives springiness and animation to the mind and restores the fun that long lay listless and idle in the lap of an invalid again speaks the eloquent language of a healthy, happy woman. Thousands of women have testified to the marvelous merits of this wonderful medicine.

"For several years I suffered with prostration of the nervous system," writes Miss A. Lee Schuster, of Box 12, Rodney, Jefferson Co., Miss. "Our family physician treated me for kidney trouble, and everything else but the right thing. I grew worse and worse. My body was emaciated, hands and feet clammy and cold, stomach weak, with great pain of the head. I would suffer with nausea all night. I began taking your 'Nervine' and I began to feel better right away. I have taken three bottles and I am very nearly well and am very happy and thankful to you.

Keep your head up and your bowels open. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' will put steel in your backbone, and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure constipation.

Carolina, who was a director of the road for eight years, while Mr. W. S. Chadwick was president of the road. In addition to his support of Wayne, Mr. Dewey will have the support of ex-President Chadwick, of Carter county. His friends will claim that Wayne is the western terminus of the road and that as it has never had the presidency, the time has come to elect one of its best citizens in the person of Mr. Dewey.

"While Wayne and Craven are fighting for their candidates, what of Lenoir county, which is one of the most important factors to be considered? Yesterday's Kinston Free Press thus defined the position of that county:—

"We understand that there is a considerable fight on among the legislators at Raleigh as to whether a Newbern man or a Goldsboro man is to secure the presidency.

"The Free Press thinks that Kinston is entitled to the presidency of the A. & N. C. R. R. 'Lenoir county owns $50,000 of stock in the road, for which it paid 100 cents on the dollar, and there is a considerable amount of private stock held by citizens of the county. Kinston gives the road a big patronage, and has done this ever since it commenced operations, forty years ago. During all these years only one man in Lenoir county ever held the presidency of the road, and he—Mr. King—for about two weeks only.

"Kinston ought to have the presidency this time. We have as good business men as any town along the road, and if Mr. J. W. Grainger was made president of the A. and N. C. R. R., he would manage it as well as any man that could be selected. Mr. Grainger has made a success of his own business and could manage the 'O. D. Muller' successfully. Mr. Grainger, as chairman of the Democratic party of Lenoir county, and as one of the State executive committee, has done splendid service for good government, and making him president of the road would be a fit recognition of his party service.

"Mr. Grainger is not a candidate for the position, but we believe that if it was offered him he would make a faithful and efficient officer."

"If the whole State was ransacked from Murphy to Manteo to find the three fittest men to select for this important task, no three better men could be found than James A. Bryan, of Craven; Charles Dewey, of Wayne; or Jesse W. Grainger, of Lenoir. Each of them has managed his own affairs with ability and possesses the confidence of the people of the State. No mistake will be made in selecting any one of the three.

"As the nine members of the Board of Internal Improvements are to name the directors of the

A. and N. C. R. R., the contest will come over the election by the Legislature of the member from each district. As we understand it, the plan is for the Democratic members of each Congressional district to meet and select a director. Of course the friends of the different aspirants will endeavor to get a member who will vote for directors favorable to his candidate. And it will be a pretty fight.

"The same course is to be pursued in selecting directors of the North Carolina Railroad. While the contest for the presidency of that road has not yet developed, it may be safe to say that there will not be a few candidates for director. The duties of president and director are merely nominal, but under the terms of the lease each director gets a pass on the Southern Railroad (a very much coveted piece of pasteboard), and the president gets a small salary for doing next to nothing. There are also the offices of secretary and treasurer, which pays something like $1,200 or $1,500.

"There is every reason why the Democrats should pass the necessary legislation to take charge of these two railroads, as well as every other institution or enterprise in which the State has shown an interest. We do not believe in any mawkish sentiment about being generous to the enemy when generosity requires leaving the State's affairs in the hands of men who have shown themselves incapable of managing its affairs.

"The Democrats must bear the responsibility of government. Let them select their agents to carry out the plans that will make for the wise and judicious management of the State's concerns."

Judge (f) Ewart.

Charlotte Observer. Judge Ewart, of the western district, continues doing business at the old stand, without a commission, but it is said by The Washington Post, that his case will probably be disposed of by the committee "before long." This is an elastic term and as much satisfaction is to be drawn from it by Judge Ewart's enemies as by the judge, himself. His nomination is being considered now by a sub-committee consisting of Senators Thurston, Spooner and Gray, and it is said that the last two are opposed to the judge. One of these days The Observer may be inviting correspondence on the question, "when will Judge Ewart be confirmed?"

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Four Days' Proceedings in the Senate and House.

Special Telegram to The Argus. Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18.

HOUSE.

A resolution was introduced in the House to-day raising a committee to investigate the charges against Judge W. L. Norwood for drunkenness, and also as to whether he should be impeached, and as to his continuing to assume to be judge.

The chief new bills introduced are as follows; to facilitate restoration of citizenship in certain towns; to pay solicitors state salaries and turn their fees into the state treasury; to require elementary principles of agriculture to be taught in public schools.

The bill to give magistrates final jurisdiction in cases of carrying concealed weapons failed to pass, yeas 24, nays 72, after considerable debate.

Messrs. Gattis, Willard and Patterson, of Columbus, were designated as House committee to investigate the management of the penitentiary.

SENATE.

The principal bills introduced in senate were: To incorporate Newbern; to provide primary elections for political parties, to allow surety companies to become surety for guardians and executors.

Senators Lindsey and Brown were appointed to investigate the Penitentiary, and Osborne and Jones to investigate the Governor's dismissal of J. W. and Otho Wilson.

A bill to give Hertford County good government, (which is a very important bill and precedent), passed.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 19.

HOUSE.

The following bills were introduced this morning; to repeal the law imposing a tax on inheritance; to incorporate Inter-State Telephone and Telegraph Company; to create the county of "Scotland" out of four southern townships of Richmond county; (by Allen of Wayne)—To repeal the law of 1897, as to non suit; also to amend charter of Atlantic and North Carolina Railway as to take all power from Governor and place same in the hands of the Board of Internal Improvements; also to take from Governor the power to appoint that Road's State Proxy; to protect people from court house rings, by making it unlawful for county commissioners to employ any attorney when the latter is in any way connected with any bonded officer of the county or is interested in any affairs in connection with the county commissioners; it further provides that all public improvements be let to the lowest responsible bidder after due publication.

Representative Overman at this stage of the session said: "Mr. Speaker, in honor of the memory of the world's greatest chief, a christian soldier, patriot and statesman, a teacher by brilliant example of all that is brave, good and true, the South's greatest hero, General Robert E. Lee, I move that this house do now adjourn."

The motion was unanimously adopted.

SENATE.

The senate met at 10 o'clock. A resolution summoning the Clerk of the Superior Court of Mitchell County to come before the Election Committee and produce registration books of several precincts which are desired as evidence in the contest case of Lambert and Strothers, comes up Tuesday.

Senator Fuller (colored) offered a memorial from his race, and said that there had been considerable unrest among the negroes of late and, that they are now reluctant to fulfil contracts and obligations, as understood are they as Chronic Dyspepsia Cured.

AFTER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 28 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The highest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent relief. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Liver Pills and Nerve. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects. I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms."

to their future. He said that representative negroes in the state had decided to address a manifesto to the negroes urging that they be better citizens. Fuller then submitted his memorial; which in substance begs forbearance of the legislature in regard to the colored public school question.

The senate at 11:15 adjourned in honor of General Robert E. Lee's birthday.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 20.

HOUSE.

Bills introduced in the House to-day as follows; to allow the chairman of County Commissioners and boards of education to administer oaths; to incorporate the East Tenn. & Western Railroad, from Cranberry through Burke, Caldwell and Watauga to Lincolnton; (Gen. Robt. F. Hoke's road); to incorporate Beaufort & Pamlico Railway, from Pamlico river to Neuse river; to appropriate $16,500 for each of the years 1899 and 1900 for repairs and improvements at the white blind institution; to allow clerks of courts to set apart funds for indigent miners out of moneys paid in by executors and administrators; to require separate cars or compartments for whites and negroes.

The House by vote of 75 to 21 unseated Dudley Paul, Republican, and seated Geo. Ders, Democrat, from Paducah.

The Bill introduced by Allen of Wayne to give Democrats control of the A. & N. C. and North Carolina railways passed.

By this bill all power is taken away from the Governor and is placed in the hands of the Board of Internal Improvements, which is to consist of 9 members to be elected by the legislature. The right of Governor to appoint state proxies is also taken away.

The bill to reduce fees on Chattel mortgages and crop liens to 45 cents passed second reading, extreme western counties and some eastern counties being excepted.

SENATE.

No bills of general interest were introduced in the Senate to-day.

A resolution to instruct Congressmen to labor for self government in Cuba, Porto Rico and Philippines was tabled.

Messrs. Justice, Carr of Duplin, and Patterson were appointed a committee to investigate the Governor's removal of railway commissioners, J. W. and S. Otho Wilson.

Good-Bye, Rheumatism.

The Right Remedy Will Banish it Forever.

If you would forever be rid of the aches and pains, and sometimes the tortures produced by Rheumatism, you must take the right remedy. Those who continue to suffer are relying upon remedies which do not reach their trouble. The doctor's treatment always consists of potash and mercury, which only intensify the disease, causing the joints to stiffen and the bones to ache, besides seriously impairing the digestive organs.

Rheumatism is a disordered state of the blood, and the only cure for it is a real blood remedy. Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) goes down to the very bottom of all diseases of the blood, and promptly cures cases that other remedies can not reach.

Mr. E. K. S. Clinkenbeard, a prominent attorney of Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes:

"Two years ago I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I had tried every remedy I could hear of except S. S. S. I had been to Hot Springs, Ark., where I remained for twelve weeks under treatment, but I experienced no permanent relief, and returned home, believing that I would be a sufferer as long as I lived. At a time when my pains were almost unbearable, I chanced to read your advertisement and was impressed with it so much that I decided to try S. S. S. I took eleven bottles and was entirely relieved of all pain and cured permanently. When I began to take S. S. S. I was unable to sit or stand with any ease, and could not sleep. Since taking the last dose I have had no return of the Rheumatism, and I take great pleasure in recommending S. S. S. to any one who has the misfortune to suffer with this disabling disease."

S. S. S. is the only cure for Rheumatism, which is the most stubborn of blood diseases. It is not intended to give relief only, but by completely neutralizing the acid condition of the blood it forces out every trace of the disease and the system of it forever. It is
