OUR LOCAL OPINION

The death of Ex-Senator J. D. Deane of Blount County, we regret to hear of his death. He was a noble man.

The several sick people of our city, who succumbed to the recent severe cold snap, are all reported to be improving. We are glad to chronicle.

Sheriff Scott has entirely recovered from his recent attack of a gripe, but we regret to chronicle that his wife is prostrated from the effects of a deep cold.

Messrs. Edgerston & Holwell have their condiments stables filled with desirable farm and driving animals which they are offering to the trade at prices that will sell them.

Col. Richard Nelson, son of the late lamented Col. C. J. Nelson, was due to arrive here last Saturday to transact business relative to his father's estate, but he fell on the ice at his home in Baltimore and broke his arm, which serious accident will keep him at his home for some time to come.

On account of the Newbern Fair, Mixed Frogs and Passenger Trains Nos. 5 and 6 will be annulled on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, February 21, 22, 23 and 24. These trains will resume regular schedule on Saturday, Feb'y, 25th, No. 6 leaving Newbern at 9:30 A. M., as usual.

Capt. E. M. Pace, a prominent tobacco warehouse manager of Wilson, was here last week on a prospecting trip, so it is said. Before he went to Wilson a few years ago he had been the principal figure on the tobacco markets of Danville and other large towns and he has experience which would prove invaluable to the already large and growing market of Goldsboro.

Here is an item of war tax that illustrates: The Wilmington Star of last Saturday says: "The dead conveying the old C. F. & Y. V. Railroad property to H. Walters, B. F. Newcomer, Michael Jenkins, Warren G. Elliot and their associates, was filed for registration at the office of the registrar of deeds of New Hanover county yesterday. The sum of money involved, including the purchase price of rolling stock is $3,125,000 and the instrument required $8,125 worth of documentary inland revenue stamps, 62 of the number being of the $50 denomination two of the $10 denomination and one $5 stamp."

Our good friend Capt. Lafayette Sasser, from over the river, was in the city Friday last and in talking with the ARGUS man in regard to the big snow and cold snap from which we are just emerging as compared with the "big snow of '57," he said that in the cold snap and big snow of '57 a drove of 18 hogs on his father's farm froze to death all huddled together in their bed, and that snow from that big fall, which occurred in January, remained in protected woods and in fence jams until the following April.

The Ravages of Gripe.
That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery. ### A HISTORY-MAKING DAY.

Suffrage Amendment Passed House by Over Three-Fifths Majority.

Daily Argus of Saturday. The House yesterday passed the suffrage bill by over three-fifths majority. The debate was opened by Mr. Geo. Rountree, chairman of the committee that reported the bill.

The bill before the House was, he said, a substitute for the original Winston bill, prepared by the committee.

"Not, however, without earnest study of conditions and many concessions. It is, as all such instruments are a compromise measure. But, it is a measure approved by all the members of the committee, by all the lawyers of this body and by those out of it who have examined it.

"It is, in short, a just, legal and effective measure for securing to North Carolina the blessings of good government for many years to come.

In the early years of this young republic, under the enthusiasm caught from the French republic, men dreamed of a political millennium based upon universal suffrage.

For awhile it did seem as if some day that dream might blossom into reality. But thirty years ago and more, the negro was enfranchised. No doubt many of those who assisted in this thought they were doing right. But now we know it was a most egregious mistake, a mistake that amounted to a crime. Since that time even the heartiest enthusiast has seen his hopes wither, and year by year they have lost faith in their panacea. Recent events have accelerated this change in sentiment until to-day we find many States putting into their constitutions limitations upon the right of suffrage.

"Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina, Massachusetts and other States have laws similar to this. In Hawaii the National government has very much abridged the right to vote; while in Cuba only about 20 per cent. of the people are said to be fitted for exercising the elective franchise. And in the Philippines the right to vote will be still more abridged, for the reason that the people there do not know how to use it wisely.

"The results of the last four years in North Carolina, and especially of the last two years, have completely demonstrated the fact that the negro is unfitted for self-government. You all know the conditions that have prevailed. The conditions in my own county were simply intolerable. But I shall not stop here to rehearse that. It has often been told in the newspapers of this and other States. But it teaches me this: that something must be done. The problem must be solved, and solved in a just, humane and legal way.

"In doing this we were met with two difficulties. On the one side was the Constitution of the United States, on the other was the illiterate white voter. These latter must not be disfranchised. Among them are some of the State's best citizens—men who have fought and labored for their country, built its very foundations and builded well. They are as capable of self-government. Mr. Speaker, as you or I must not be disfranchised. (Applause.)

Mr. Rountree explained in detail the provisions of the amendment, which is printed elsewhere, and gave the reasons that influenced the committee in drafting the amendment.

Strong speeches were made in opposition by the "three colored members of the legislature, and after several "other speeches pro and con, and just before the vote was taken, the Speaker recognized Mr. Winston, of Bertie, the introducer of the resolution upon which the amendment before the House was based.

"If there is one sentiment, now beating in the hearts of the people of North Carolina," he began, "it is that they have liberty or death. They prefer liberty. (Applause.)

"I will not discuss the constitutional side of this question. That has already been done by one of North Carolina's ablest and most distinguished Constitutional lawyers.

"Neither shall I pay any attention to men who come here to-day to prate of White Supremacy, and whose every vote has been against the best interests of the people of

The Amen! of marriage is always a baby. Without it, wedlock is a summer field that never blooms, a flower that never buds, a night without a benediction, a prayer without an Amen. There never was a husband who did not aspire to be the father and grandfather of healthy, capable children to hand down his name and the fortune accumulated by the sweat of his brow, from generation to generation. There never was a wife fit to bear that noble title, who did not wish to wear womanhood's most glorious crown, the scepter of motherhood, thousands of wedded couples, otherwise happy, fall short of wedlock's greatest happiness because they are childless. In the majority of cases, this is because the wife, through carelessness or neglect, suffers from weakness and disease of the organs distinctly feminine. For women who suffer in this way there is one great medicine that does not fail to accomplish its purpose. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly on the delicate organs concerned and makes them strong, healthy, vigorous, virile and elastic. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, soothes pain and tones the shattered nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. It quickens and vitalizes the distinctly feminine organism. It banishes the maladies of the expectant months and makes baby's introduction to the world easy and almost painless. It insures the little new-comer health and nourishment in plenty. It is the best supportive tonic for nursing mothers.

Marshall, Spokane Co. Wash. writes: "I am glad to tell of the good work done by your great medicine, Favorite Prescription. I was benefited by your medicine in my confinement. It gave me strength. I have no tired feeling and my baby is the picture of health. I feel better than I have in six years."

In cases of constipation Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used as an adjunct to the "Favorite Prescription," they are extremely simple, perfectly natural and insure prompt and permanent relief.

North Carolina (Applause). Every man who now talks of White Supremacy must show his faith by his works. (Applause.) Have we so soon forgotten Newbern and Greenville and Tarboro and Wilmington? (Applause.)

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That Article VI of the Constitution of North Carolina be, and the same is hereby abrogated, and in lieu thereof shall be substituted the following Article of said Constitution:

ARTICLE VI. SUFFRAGE AND ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE—QUALIFICATIONS OF AN ELECTOR.

Section 1.—Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years of age and possessing the qualifications set out in this article, shall be entitled to vote at any election by the people in the State, except as herein otherwise provided.

Section 2. He shall have resided in the State of North Carolina for two years, in the county six months, and in the precinct, ward or other election district, in which he offers to vote, four months next preceding the election; provided, that removal from one precinct, ward or other election district to another in the same county, shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward or other election district, from which he has removed until four months after such removal. No person who has been convicted, or who has confessed his guilt in open court upon indictment, of any crime, the punishment of which now is, or may hereafter be, imprisonment in the State Prison, shall be permitted to vote unless the said person shall be first restored to citizenship in the manner prescribed by law.

Section 3. Every person offering to vote shall be at the time a legally registered voter as herein prescribed and in the manner hereafter provided by law, and the General Assembly of North Carolina shall enact general registration laws to carry into effect the provisions of this Article.

Section 4. Every person presenting himself for registration shall be able to read and write any section of the Constitution in the English language; and, before he shall be entitled to vote, he shall have paid, on or before the first day of March of the year in which he proposes to vote, his poll tax, as prescribed by law, for the previous year. Poll taxes shall be a lien only on assessed property and no process shall issue to enforce the collection of the same except against assessed property.

Section 5. No male person, who was on January 1, 1867, or at any time prior thereto, entitled to vote under the laws of any State in the United States who is then residing, and no legal descendant of any such person shall be denied the right to register and vote at any election in this State by reason of his failure to be then residing, and no legal descendant of any such person shall be denied the right to register and vote at any election in this State by reason of his failure to possess the educational qualification prescribed in section four of this Article: Provided, he shall have registered in accordance with the terms of this section prior to December 1, 1903.

A WAIL FROM CUBA

An Appeal From the Enslaved Volunteers To the People of Their Native Land.

(Special Correspondence of the ARGUS.)

CAMP COLUMBIA, NEAR HAVANA, CUBA, Feb. 10, 1899.

Having received information from reliable parties that you desired to know the treatment and welfare of the First North Carolina Regiment, who are now doing service in Cuba. As a committee of one, acting for the enlisted men, I send you a true statement of a portion of what has transpired since our enlistment.

Some few days ago several enlisted men went through the regiment to every enlisted man in regard to being mustered out of the service, and they find that ninety-seven per cent of them are more than anxious to leave the service. We have carefully studied the best policy to receive the aid of the good citizens of North Carolina, and find or have decided that the surest, best and quickest way is to ask the editors of North Carolina papers to publish such letters as they may receive from the enlisted men. With the citizens aid we may pull through, but otherwise, we are doomed in this miserable country for our term of enlistment. In the first place we did not enlist for garrison duty (which work should be done by regulars, who enlist for that purpose) but to protect our homes, loved ones and flag. Now that peace has been declared, should we be held in the service for the pleasure of the officers, who consider us nothing more than slaves, and even go so far as to treat us as such? Why not let us return to our homes, business and families, where our services are most needed, and who are entirely dependent upon us? Surely, every one knows that fifteen dollars and sixty cents per month will not properly support a family. When on the eve of being mustered out of service, while in Jacksonville, we were held in through the influence of the officers, where in many cases two-thirds of them never before held a responsible position, nor even had the pleasure of working a crowd of men—but themselves, worked as hired-labor, such as driving drays on the street, and climbing poles. They secured our retention on the ground of soldierly conduct, best drilled, and reputation that we have. Why have we the reputation? All because the men have strived hard to gain it, and because we loved our old State, the people and the reputation it has borne in the past. Feeling that we have done our duty, we now come to you, the citizens of North Carolina, asking that you take a part and interest in us. With your aid we feel that we can soon be home, and with our loved ones. Must we remain in service simply because the officers want employment with the government, and have pull enough to keep us in? Often do I remember when the boys stood in water knee deep for hours at a time, "ditching," with officers standing over them to see that no time should be lost.

I firmly believe that a large portion of the sickness has been caused from just such work, and poor treatment, combined.

On one occasion we were marched in from our morning drill, a certain officer's wife says, "make them double time, it makes the baby laugh." And of course we had to make the baby laugh to please the wife.

Since we came over here our treatment has been decidedly poor in the way of rations. We have never yet found a sufficient quantity for each meal. On every occasion one thing or the other is short, and of course had to do without it—it did no good to go to our officers and report such things, for they never cared to look out for the interest of the men, they only cared to fill themselves—the men could get it if they could. On several occasions we had spoiled beef and appeared to our Captain, but he only grunted his teeth and remarked that we should apply in a military manner about such things.

It is nothing unusual for the men to go to the kitchen for their meals and be cursed like dogs by the cooks, yet we must take it all and say nothing. Should we attempt to protect ourselves we land in the guard house with charges preferred against us, and then taken before a court-martial and fined from one to five dollars. In some cases we get from three to

A Shattered Nervous System.

FINALLY HEART TROUBLE. Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Nerve.

Mr. Edward Hardy, the jolly manager of Sheppard Co.'s great store at Braceville, Ill., writes: "I had never been sick in my life until in 1890. I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried one local physician after another, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep, rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to but a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerve. It gave me relief from the start, and at last a cure. The greatest blessing of my life!"
