OTIS NEEDS 100,000 MEN

In the Philippines. Lawton Says Insurrection Cannot be Put Down With Less

Manila, April 17.—General Lawton's expedition returns to Manila to-day from La De Guna province by the express command of General Otis, Santa Cruz and other villages taken by the expedition under the old Indian fighter are being completely evacuated.

There is a decided difference of opinion between General Otis and General Lawton over the evacuation of these villages.

General Otis defends his order for the evacuation of the captured villages by declaring he considers it impracticable at present to spare a sufficient number of troops to garrison Santa Cruz.

Notwithstanding the systematic efforts to shield Alger, of the War Investigating Commission and the best court, little things crept out before both bodies which tend to show that Alger would do well to remain on guard and keep in position to prevent any future iniquity from going too deep.

Alger would have covered the situation more completely if in closing the declaration he had used the word "men" instead of "man."

"Necessity Knows No Law." But a law of Nature bows to the necessity of keeping the blood pure so that the entire system shall be strong, healthy and vigorous.

To take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is therefore a law of health and it is a necessity in nearly every household.

Exposure to a sudden climate change produces cold in the head and catarrh is apt to follow. Provided with Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh.

Saw Mrs. George Shoot. Canton, Ohio, April 15.—In the trial of Mrs. George to-day for the murder of George D. Saxton the most startling evidence was that of Mrs. Christine Eckroate.

She identified the person as Mrs. George. She had previously often noticed a woman walking up and down in front of the Ath-house residence whom she later learned was Mrs. George.
