OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Mr. J. J. Street received a letter Friday from Mrs. A. B. Crumpler in which she states that her husband is not improving from his attack of typhoid fever, but on the contrary he is gradually growing weaker. The letter states that he asks the prayers of all good people for his recovery.

Mr. Sam Bridgers, the popular clerk in the gents furnishing store of Mr. A. A. Joseph has purchased the E. J. Best property in this city, for which he paid the sum of $1,700 cash. He will at once beautify same and occupy it with his family. The sale was made through Mr. Ed. L. Edmundson, the real estate hustler.

The Richmond Dispatch contains the following paragraph: A letter has been received here from Governor-elect Charles B. Aycock, of North Carolina, saying that he thinks it will be impossible for him to take part in the Virginia campaign, as he has just finished a tremendously arduous campaign, and expects to make several speeches in North Carolina this fall.

The Associated Railroads have given the following rates for the unveiling ceremony of the Vance monument, which take place August 22. Individuals, one first class for one way. To soldiers, hands, associations, etc., in uniform in companies or twenty or more, 1 cent per mile each way. Tickets on sale August 21, and 22, with final limit on 25th. State Camps of United Confederate Veterans that expect to attend the Vance monument unveiling will please inform J. C. Birdsong, Adjutant of L. O. B. Branch Camp at Raleigh, of the number that will attend and what accommodation they will require.

Wayne county's baseball penant is fluttering to the breeze from the town hall in Fremont to-day. The team from that town came in Thursday afternoon and repaid Goldsboro for a drubbing which they carried home some time ago. Fremont came prepared this time to win and they won by a score of 11 to 10. Goldsboro boys were loath to give up the "rag" and worked heroically to save it. The game was well played throughout and was exciting and interesting to the close, while the score was 10 to 10. It remained for Fremont to reach the goal in the last inning by adding one more run and winning the game. Goldsboro was not without her usual number of "rooters," who proved to be a Jonah in this instance.

As a result of a family feud Mr. Bob Davis, who lives in the Providence section of this county, lies near death's door to-day. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Davis went to the home of his son-in-law Mr. J. B. Faulkner, who was at work in his tobacco barn. Mr. Davis asked if he could be of assistance and received a discourteous, negative answer from his son-in-law. Davis turned to walk away and said that Faulkner had to quit talking about him. Faulkner grabbed a chair and ran up behind Davis and knocked him down. Davis got up and clinched Faulkner and had him on the ground beating him when a younger brother of Faulkner named Noah came up and stabbed Davis in the back twice with a knife. The wounds may prove fatal, as the point of the knife entered the lungs.—Daily Argus, Thursday, August Aug. 9.

Nearly a thousand people assembled at Pleasant last H. Thursday to participate in a great Sunday School mass meeting held there. Several Sunday Schools were present from Wayne, Wilson and Johnston counties. The exercises were greatly enjoyed. Several strong speeches were made by prominent citizens. The programmes rendered by the various schools present demonstrated the good that is being accomplished in this work. The singing, essays and recitations all reflected credit upon the young people who so cheerfully took part in the meeting. It was altogether a general good time for those present.

Mr. Jas. A. Bryar, president of the A. & N. C. R. R. and Mr. W. H. Griffin, roadmaster, arrived in the city last Friday on a special from Newbern and left that afternoon. The purpose of the visit was to fix the location for the new storage warehouse which Mr. Bryar proposes to build for the benefit of the merchants and shipping public of this section. The material for the erection of the warehouse has already been placed on the vacant lot belonging to the A. & N. C. on the west of their freight depot, but it has been decided that this was not so easy of access, and a change is now under consideration. The vacant lot adjoining the cotton storage warehouses will probably be the next place selected. The warehouse will be a great convenience to the merchants of Goldsboro.

Sallie Winn, a colored woman who runs a restaurant near the corner of Walnut and John streets, was badly burned Friday about 2 o'clock while trying to start a fire with kerosene oil. She was pouring the oil in the stove from a lamp, when the oil ignited and the flames reached the lamp, which exploded, covering the woman's arm and shoulder with the burning oil. She ran into the street with the blaze reaching above her head and had to hold her head to one side to keep the flames out of her face. The first person to reach her was a colored man named J. L. Brewington, who tore every vestige of clothing from her. She was burned very badly about the arm and shoulder and it is doubtful if she will recover.

The Democratic national executive committee has appointed upon its staff as an aid a prominent Democrat in each and every voting precinct in the United States. The person so honored is expected to contribute one dollar semi-annually as subscription to a committee publication, the proceeds to swell the Democratic treasury. J. G. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee, thinks this an excellent means of keeping in touch with the voters and that the sum realized is more welcome coming from such a source than from the trusts. It is estimated that every appointee contributes the aggregate will be about a quarter of a million. Who will be the lucky men in this county.

The monthly report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture at Washington shows the average condition of cotton on August 1 to have been 76, as compared with 75.8 on July 1, 1900, 84 on August 1, 1899, 91.2 on August 1, 1898, and 85.3 the mean of the August averages of the last ten years. There was an improvement of condition during July amounting to 5 points in Texas and Arkansas, 3 points in Georgia, 10 in Missouri and 1 in Tennessee. On the other hand, there was a decline of 9 points in North Carolina, 5 in South Carolina and Indiana Territory, 4 in Mississippi, Louisiana and Florida, 3 in Alabama, 2 in Oklahoma and 13 in Virginia.

A young steer arrived in the city last Thursday with a boy fastened to the end of a rope. The steer was behaving himself very nicely and was carrying the boy along all right until he got down on Walnut street in front of the postoffice. At this point he concluded to have a little fun and proceeded to try to get the boy loose from the other end of the rope, so he could "take in the town" by himself. It is possible that the steer was ashamed of his partner, whose clothes were torn and whose face was black. However this may be, the steer soon raised a dust and drew a crowd. He jumped back and forth across the street a few times and finally got the boy and the rope hung around a post at Davis' meat scaffold. He pushed the scaffold down and threw himself on the ground. While he was on the ground ropes were fastened to all four of his feet. With all these ropes hung to him he was finally persuaded to a big oak tree and tied and left to cool off. Later in the day his captives returned and loosed him from the tree, whereupon he loosed himself from his captors and put out down Walnut street with an immense crowd following and yelling. We have not heard where or when he stopped, if he ever did. The police were present and saw the disorderly conduct, but made no attempt to arrest the steer.
