

WOMAN'S CLUB COLUMN.

How a New Cook Spoiled a Good Dinner While the Lady of the House Attended a Meeting of the Woman's Club on Domestic Science.

A Chapter In Housekeeping.

A rather amusing experience came to one of our club members the past week.

Before going to a meeting of the Domestic Science Department, she interviewed her new cook, thusly:

"Do you know how to make a grated sweet potatoe pudding?"

"Yes, mum."

"How do you make it?"

"I takes eggs, flour and taters and mixes 'em up together, and flavors 'em; then I cooks 'em until dey is done."

"Well, I do not make mine that way," replied the mistress, "I take one quart of milk, three grated potatoes, five eggs, one cup of sugar, a tablespoonful of butter and one tablespoonful of molasses, flavor with ginger and cinnamon, then bake one hour. Now do you think you can make it?"

"Yes, mum."

"Do you know how to prepare macaroni,?" she then asked:

"Yes, mum," replied the cook.

"Well, here is the macaroni, cheese, pepper, butter, milk and rice; you may prepare it for dinner."

Already it was late and the Domestic Science Department required her presence, so she hastened away. As the "servant problem" was discussed at the meeting, she was absent a long time. Indeed, the other half of the household would be waiting dinner, so away she hurried home. On entering the house a peculiar odor saluted her olfactory; she went immediately to the kitchen, opened the oven door and beheld her pudding. She tasted it, sniffed, then tasted it again.

"How did you make the pudding," she enquired.

The cook glibly repeated the recipe given, except, instead of a spoonful, she had added a cupful of molasses.

Turning from the pudding in dismay, she inquired for the macaroni.

"Hit's in dar," the cook replied.

"Where?" said the lady, peering around in the oven, "I don't see it."

"Hit's right in dar with the puddin'," said the cook.

And, sure enough, she had prepared both according to directions, carefully mixed them together and cooked them in the same dish.

It is funny now, but—well, it was past expressing the way she felt, just at that moment.

Our club women will have this advice at the next Domestic Science meeting: "Don't tell the new cook how to make more than one dish at a time."

I wonder how many of the comfortable looking, well fed men of Goldsboro, who, of course, expect the wife to greet them smiling and serene, know what hard experiences the women at home undergo? "Oh," some one says, "They know." No, they don't. We do not tell them half, or their heads would be gray before their time; only women can stand it.

CHILD'S STUDY DEPARTMENT.
The members of the Child's Study Department are reading with much pleasure, "Froebel's Mother Play." This book contains the plays, rhymes and songs, which babies have enjoyed in all ages; and in addition the interpretation of their true meaning and use in a baby's physical, mental and moral growth. While Froebel's influence has been felt,

It is to be noted that children are great for most of the world. The children of Miss M. Johnson, of the Kindergarten, at Beautiful C. See the Kindergarten fine training and great pleasure of hearing her in Goldsboro last spring await her second visit.

REPORTER.

STOCK LAW.

The County Commissioners at their special meeting on Thursday ordered the no fence law in the territory in New Hope township on the south side of the river. An effort was made at the last session of the Legislature to secure the stock law for the above named township, but at that time there was some opposition and the matter was referred to the county Commissioners, who because of the urgent appeals made by the residents and property holders in the territory mentioned, granted the law as required by the act of the legislature.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS: Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Not a Cheap John Groger,

BUT ONE WHO ADVOCATES QUALITY, FIRST, LAST AND ALL THE TIME.

Do you, on the mere ground of economy, buy the cheapest cloth for your dress, the cheapest carpet for your floor, the cheapest furniture for your house? And if you don't, why buy cheap coffee? It is the most expensive of all economies. Do you realize that the best coffee to be bought (Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand) costs actually only 1 cent a cup! You need to use very little of it because of its high quality. Don't take our word for this! Test it yourself!

In 2-lb. and 3-lb. Tin Cans (air tight). Other high grade in richly-colored parchment bags (moisture proof).

When it comes to what we eat, I contend that low prices for sloppy trashy goods is not economy. What you want to do to live well and cheaply, is to buy goods of known high quality. NOT NECESSARILY THE HIGHEST PRICED, BUT GOODS THAT CARRY FULL VALUE FOR THE PRICE CHARGED.

Now I claim to be able to furnish you just that class of goods. I do not claim to know it all, not even by a Winfield Scott Schley majority, but our experience of 30 years should count for something, and I will be glad to give you the benefit of it.

This is the season when Extracts, Spices, Sauces; Salads and condiments of various kinds are largely in demand. I claim that the quality of our stock of these goods are not surpassed by any house in the State.

The price is no more than you will pay in many instances for inferior goods.

We will be glad to have your order for any thing you may need. REMEMBER if you cannot find what you want in our stock, it is little use to look elsewhere. Our prices are right.

Let us serve you.
