Dyspepsia Cure

You might as well put fuel under a boiler without burning it and expect the engine to run, as to eat food and not digest it and expect to keep up nourishment for your body. You must have nourishment to live and when you cannot digest your food, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will do it for you, with no aid whatever from the stomach. It contains exactly the same elements as Nature's digestive fluids and can't help but produce the same results.—David Taylor, Blind Ridge, Pa., writes:—"I have been afflicted for a number of years with dyspepsia and have tried various remedies without good results but was cured by one bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. I cannot say too much in its favor."

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1. bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c. size. When you need a soothing and healing application for piles, sores and skin diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel SALVE. Beware of counterfeits.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

A Study in Caste.
Human nature is so happily constituted that as long as the humble man has a humbler man to look down upon he can still maintain a degree of dignity and self respect.

To the back door of a city residence the other day came an old man tramp. He was grimy and tattered, weary and wretched in appearance, but asked no money, merely something to eat. A cup of hot coffee was added to the bread and meat bestowed upon the poor old fellow, and as he munched and sipped contentedly, albeit ravenously, on the doorstep the lady of the house chatted with him. He said that he was from old England, that he was once a traveling tinker and made good wages every day, but that he had grown old, work made him very tired, so he had concluded to beg his bread.

"Couldn't you find occupation of some kind somewhere?" asked the sympathetic lady. "It would surely be less tiresome than walking as much as you do to beg."
"Oh, no, lady," replied the old tramp. "An' I hain't a low down begger; I hain't the lowest o' th' low, lady. No, no; there's a class 'twixt me an' th' gypsies."—Detroit Free Press.

And It's Often Done.
"Are we all out of debt at last?" she asked.
"Thank heaven, we are!" he answered.

"Then let's give a swell dinner and dance," she suggested.
"But that will put us in debt again," he protested.
"Of course it will," she returned, "but what's the good of making our credit so good if we don't use it?"—Chicago Post.

A Suggestion Considered.
"An actor must often leave his real self behind him when he goes on the stage, must he not?" said the inquisitive young woman.

"Well," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes, "it would assuredly be a great convenience if there were two of him so that one could remain out and watch the box office."—Washington Star.

Might Be Worse.
"Oh, doctor," exclaimed a rheumatic patient, "I suffer dreadfully with my hands and feet."
"But, my dear sir," rejoined the physician, "just try to think how much inconvenience you would suffer without them."—Chicago News.

W-h-a-t!

Footit—Who was that impudent little brat who came into your room and acted in such an ill bred manner while I was calling on you this morning?
Mr. Muckton—Er—why, to tell the truth, that is our youngest son.—Ohio State Journal.

Elsie—Really? Well, who took care of the babies then?—Philadelphia Press.

McELREE'S WINE OF CARDUI OR WOMAN'S RELIEF

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1899.
I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it.
