DAILY AND WEEKLY.

LODGE DIRECTORY.

Wayne Lodge No. 112, A. F. & A. M., meets 1st and 3rd Monday evenings, 7:30 o'clock, in Odd Fellows Hall. Visiting brothers heartily welcomed.

Rouse Lodge No. 6, I. O. O. F., meets every Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, in Odd Fellows Hall. Cordial welcome to visitors.

Ruffin Lodge No. 6, K. of P., meets every Friday evening, 7:30 o'clock in Odd Fellows Hall. Knightly welcome to visitors.

Goldsboro Council No. 39, Jr. O. U. A. M., meets every Wednesday evening, 7:30 o'clock, in Odd Fellows Hall. Cordial welcome to all visiting brethren.

OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Mrs. Capt. J. B. Edgerton is visiting Mrs. Governor Aycock, in Raleigh.

Goldsboro is holding its own as the best tobacco and cotton market in the State.

Mr. F. G. Middleton, of Warsaw, was here Saturday delivering trees from his large nursery farm.

The Presbyterian congregation will build a Sunday school room to the rear of their church at an early day.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Kinston, is assisting in the conduct of revival services in the Second Baptist church in Webbtown, this week.

News from Mr. Ed. Lehman, who has been at St. Vincent's Hospital in Norfolk for several months, is that he has cancer of the throat and is in a critical condition.

The ladies of the Goldsboro Baptist church promise an amusing entertainment in the "Hot Party" to be given by them in the Sunday school room of their church next Friday evening.

A number of our farmers are now preparing to plant their wheat crop. The number of wheat growers would be much larger in this section if a first class flouring mill was running in Goldsboro.

Mr. Geo. D. Bennett left last night to spend several months in the big stock markets of the west, making purchases of stock for dealers in this section and for his own extensive trade in this city, Raleigh and Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Edgerton, of this city, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter Miss Besie Myrtle to Mr. N. S. Hunter, of Greensboro, on Wednesday afternoon, November 27, at 1 o'clock, the ceremony to take place at the home.

Mr. Alex. Aycock, who, with his brother Miford, has opened a general merchandise business on their farm near Fremont, was in the city to-day making purchases. They are sons of Mr. Barnes Aycock, a member of the County Board of Education.

It is the laudable custom of the Hines Brothers Lumber Company, of Kinston, to give $25 per year to the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home in this city. Their annual check came Tuesday. This is the more generous in that these gentlemen in that none of them belong to that order.

Miss Stella Jenkins, who made the highest average under the civil service examination, has accepted a temporary position at the stamp window in the post-office. When the office goes into the classified service she will most probably receive an appointment as clerk in the office at the regulation salary.

Col. T. H. B. says that a plan is on foot to carry a regiment of the North Carolina State Guard to the Charleston Exposition on some time in January, to remain three or four days and show the efficiency in drill of the Tar Heel Soldiers. The State will furnish transportation, the exposition will furnish tents and each company will have to pay its own board bill. One company for this regiment will be formed out of the two military companies in this city.

It is said that they are betting in New York middling cotton will reach 10 cents before the first of January and 12 cents during the current commercial year. It will be noted, however, that if the betting predictions should be verified it will be after the staple has passed from the hands of the farmer.

The directors of the Goldsboro National Bank met Monday and declared a dividend of 6 per cent., besides passing up a goodly sum to the undivided profits. There is no better index to the stability of the business progress and financial strength of a community than the condition of its banks, and in this particular Goldsboro, as in many other features of abiding prosperity, stands in the very forefront.

Georgia Dewey, colored, who went to Norfolk some time ago and married a man named Lloyd, was murdered in Norfolk Saturday night by a negro named Moses Turner and her remains were brought to this city Monday night. The murder took place at 1 o'clock Saturday night. Turner stabbed her in the neck with an oyster knife as he was leaving the house in which she had other company. The murderer was arrested and locked up.

Mayor Geo. E. Hood made the proposition to Mr. Andrew Carnegie to build a library in Goldsboro and the latter readily consented, provided the city would contribute 10 per cent. of the cost of the library annually for its support, which means that if Mr. Carnegie should build a library to cost $15,000, the city would have to contribute $1,500 for its support annually. This is the proposition and if the people of Goldsboro want the library, now is the time to act.

Keep up interest in the good roads movement. The want of good roads is the great need of the entire South, and those country districts of the South that are most prosperous—and the towns contiguous thereto—are those that have made progress in improving their public roads. One of the chief needs of Goldsboro is the improvement of its public road approaches, and this is one of the important undertakings that the Goldsboro Chamber of Commerce have now in hand. Success to their commendable enterprise.

The Good Roads Committee of the Goldsboro Chamber of Commerce waited on the Board of County Commissioners, in special session Thursday, and had a most satisfactory and encouraging interview with those gentlemen, which will doubtless culminate in substantial aid to the good roads movement for Wayne county at an early day. The Board listened with interest to the strong argument of Mr. Geo. C. Royall, president of the Chamber, and invited the committee to meet with them again on the first Monday in December, when definite arrangements will be determined upon.

Mr. Geo. W. Brown, foreman of the ARGUS, who, besides being an all-round printer, is a merchant as well, and has been doing a successful business at the corner of East Boundary and East Centre streets. He has done so well with his up-town store that he has now decided to venture down the street, and has leased the store where Charley Croom has been doing business on Walnut street, East. He has purchased the stock which Croom had on hand and added several hundred dollars to it. He has employed Mr. Ernie Wilson, a young man who is well known as a clerk, to take charge of the business, which is now open and ready for public patronage. Mr. Brown will still continue to run his up-town store. The ARGUS wishes him success in his new venture.

Friday night's concert of the Presbyterian ladies in the parlors of the Olympia Club was a brilliant success in every feature, and the large attendance were more than repaid in the delightfully rendered musical program, not to speak of the enjoyable social intercourse, the delicious refreshments, the beautiful floral decorations and the admirably appointed and comfortable furnishing of the club's parlors. Every number on the charmingly diversified program was faultlessly rendered, and so highly appreciated by the cultured audience that encore after encore followed. The ladies desire the ARGUS to acknowledge their thanks to the Olympia Club, to those who so generously assisted them in the evening's program, and to the public who so liberally patronized them.

The ARGUS is glad to note that a number of the higher grade pupils of the Goldsboro Graded School have organized a debating society, known as the "Z. B. Vance Debating Society," and have gone earnestly to work discussing public issues. No thing is more calculated to build these boys up into intelligent, well-informed, aggressive, public-spirited citizens than this debating society which they have organized, and we heartily commend them. The boys held a debate last night on "Resolved that the City Bonds for Public Improvements were advisable." The negative was sustained by Messrs. Israel Meyerberg and Norwood Bass, and the affirmative by Messrs. Clarence Aycock and Emmet Guiley. The committee reported in favor of the affirmative, but complimented the fine speeches of the negative supporters.

The stockholders of the electric light plant will come into possession of $25,000 in cash as soon as the city can secure the money for the bonds and turn it over to the stockholders. The ARGUS does not presume to dictate how the stockholders shall spend this money. It is their money and it is none of our business what they do with it, but we simply wish to suggest that they invest it in some manufacturing enterprise which will make money for the stockholders and which will help Goldsboro at the same time. Why not have a knitting mill, or a cold storage, or something else just as good? There will be no canvassing to secure subscriptions; the money will already be paid in, and the ARGUS believes that those who own the stock and who will soon come into possession of the money would rather invest it in a manufacturing plant, where it will make something and do the town good, than let it lie idle. These are simple suggestions and if they are worth anything we hope the stockholders will accept them in the spirit in which they are tendered—viz: for the best interests of Goldsboro and her people.

CHARLESTON'S SHOW.

The South Carolina and West Indian exposition is a big name and represents a big thing. It is the designation of what will be one of the largest and most interesting expositions ever held in the South.

The people of Charleston have supported this enterprise with a liberality, enthusiasm and unanimity that does them honor and insures success. The exposition is heartily endorsed also by South Carolina generally, and the surrounding States feel a genuine interest in it.

We frequently hear citizens of Goldsboro and other parts of North Carolina express the intention of visiting Charleston during the exposition. North Carolina will, first and last, send a large representation.

The preparations are already so near completion as to insure a very handsome show from the start. We are reliably informed that exhibits for the exposition are arriving at the rate of fifty car loads a day. They come from every part of the country and represent all the leading industries.

The collective exhibits will form a fine study and will have a very stimulating effect toward the development of South Carolina and the South generally.

Charleston is making ample preparations for the host of visitors whom she is reasonably expecting.

There are few more beautiful cities and the historic metropolis of South Carolina will be at its best throughout the entire period of the exposition.

TERMS EXPIRE.

THREE SUPREME COURT AND TEN SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES TO BE ELECTED.

Sixteen Solicitors and a Member of the Corporation Commission Will be Chosen.

Gen. Carr a Candidate

Raleigh News & Observer.

Though the next general election is one year distant, the contest for nominations has begun in earnest, and is receiving much attention from the State press.

Of course interest will center in the election of a successor to Senator J. C. Pritchard, whose term of office expires March 4th, 1903, but just now there is more discussion of the three Supreme Court Judgeships, which must be filled.

A gentleman here from Elizabeth City yesterday stated that Gen. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, would be a candidate for the United States Senatorship. He announced that he had received the information from a reliable source. There will be other candidates and among those who will make the race for the Senatorship are Hon. Lee S. Overman, of Rowan, Hon. Locke Craig, of Buncombe, and Hon. R. B. Glenn, of Forsyth. Others spoken of in connection with the Senatorship are Mr. C. B. Watson, of Forsyth, and Judge W. A. Hoke, of Lenoir. The Senatorial campaign is a long way off and there may be many changes in the situation between now and the time the vote is cast for Pritchard's successor.

It is not generally known who will be voted for at the general election next year, and a list of the offices to be filled by the people will be of interest just now. They are as follows:

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to succeed Judge R. M. Furches, for a term of eight years.

Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to succeed Walter Clark for a term of eight years.

Associate Justice of the Supreme Court to succeed Judge Chas. A. Cook for a term of eight years.

Member of the Corporation Commission to succeed Dr. D. H. Abbott for a term of six years.

Successors to the Superior Court Judges for terms of eight years are to be voted for also.

Those whose terms expire are:

Second district, Judge F. D. Winston.

Fourth District, Judge E. W. Timberlake.

Sixth District, Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson.

Eighth District, Judge W. H. Neal.

Tenth District, Judge A. L. Coble.

Eleventh District, Judge H. R. Starbuck.

Thirteenth District, Judge W. B. Council.

Fourteenth District, Judge M. J. Justice.

Fifteenth District, Judge Frederick Moore.

Sixteenth District, Judge Thos. Jones.

The Solicitors in all sixteen of the districts will be voted for at the coming election.

There are two of the Supreme Court Justices, whose terms do not expire until 1905. These are Judges W. J. Montgomery and R. M. Doulass. Of the sixteen Superior Court Judges, six are not disturbed at this election. The terms of ten expire. The four newly created Judgeships are to be filled by election before the people.

There are a number of candidates to fill the three Supreme Court vacancies. Judge Clark will be a candidate for Chief Justice. He has the field to himself. It was stated yesterday that

CANCER

Sufferers from this horrible malady nearly always inherit it—not necessarily from the parents, but may be from some remote ancestor, for Cancer often runs through several generations. This deadly poison may lay dormant in the blood for years, or until you reach middle life, then the first little sore or ulcer makes its appearance—or a swollen gland in the breast, or some other part of the body, gives the first warning.

To cure Cancer thoroughly and permanently all the poisonous virus must be eliminated from the blood—every vestige of it driven out. This S. S. S. does, and is the only medicine that can reach deep-seated, obstinate blood troubles like this. When all the poison has been forced out of the system the Cancer heals, and the disease never returns.

Cancer begins often in a small way, as the following letter from Mrs. Shirer shows:

A small pimple came on my jaw about an inch below the ear on the left side of my face. It gave me no pain or inconvenience, and I should have forgotten about it had it not begun to inflame and itch; it would bleed a little, then scab over, but would not heal. This continued for some time, when my jaw began to swell, becoming very painful. The Cancer began to eat and spread, until it was as large as a half dollar, when I heard of S. S. S. and determined to give it a fair trial, and it was remarkable what a wonderful effect it had from the very beginning; the sore began to heal and after taking a few bottles disappeared entirely. This was two years ago; there are still no signs of the Cancer, and my general health continues good.—Mrs. R. Shirer, La. Plata, Mo.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Col. H. C. Jones would be a candidate for Chief Justice, but that gentleman, who was in the city yesterday, failed to confirm the report. Col. Jones and Mr. Platt D. Waiker, of Charlotte, are both urged by their friends for vacancies on the Supreme Court bench, but it is said that they will not let their interests conflict. Among the other candidates for the Supreme Court Judgeships are Mr. Chas. F. Armfield, Mr. Chas. A. Moore, Mr. J. A. Lockbar, and Mr. F. D. Sonley in the west, and Ex-Judge H. G. Connor, Judge Geo. H. Brown, and Ex-Judge T. N. Hill in the east.

The election will be held next November, the Legislature having changed the time for State elections from August to November.

The Democratic State Executive Committee will choose the place for holding the convention, and Greensboro is making a strong bid for it.

A FINE SERMON.

Sunday night at St. Paul's Methodist church in this city, by invitation, Rev. F. A. Bishop, presiding Elder of the Washington District, preached a sermon to Ruffin Lodge, Knights of Pythians.

At 7 o'clock, the Knights assembled at their castle hall, and marched in a body to the church.

A large number of seats had been reserved in the front part of the church, and the long line of Knights, by twos, marched in and were seated in the space provided for them. In a few minutes, the excellent choir of the church began the voluntary with the opening ode of the Knights of Pythians, "God Bless Our Knightly Band, Firm May It Ever Stand, Through Storm and Night," the Knights themselves heartily joining in the singing. The words of the beautiful ode, the splendid voices and the notes of the great organ produced a most thrilling effect, which swept over the entire audience that filled the big church.

Mr. Bishop then began his sermon, which was in every way a most excellent one. For an hour he held his audience, Knights and laymen all alike, for the speaker came with a message to all the people, and with power and eloquence he delivered that message to the great audience, who hung upon his words.

The Knights of Pythians are strong in Goldsboro, as they deserve to be, for the principles of the order. As Mr. Bishop declared them Sunday night, are principles that can never die.

LADY CAREW DEAD.

Had Danced at Famous Brussels Ball on Eve of Waterloo.

London, N. C. 13.—Lady Catherine Ja e Carew, grandmother of the present Baron Carew, died yesterday at Wood-town, Waterford, Ireland, aged 104.

(Lady Catherine was a guest at the famous ball given in Brussels on the eve of the battle of Waterloo by the Duchess of Richmond and referred to in Byron's Child Harold in the lines opening:

"There was a sound of revelry by night."

Lady Catherine was in Paris during the occupation of the French capital by the allies. She was one of the noted beauties of her day and was a great favorite of King Louis Philippe of France.)
