GOLDSBORO N. C., NOV. 1901

REDUCING SOUTHERN REPRESENTATION.

Messrs. Dick of Ohio, and Moody of Massachusetts, are trying to steal Mr. Crumpacker's thunder in the matter of reducing Southern representation. Each and all have hurled in resolutions looking to an investigation. Mr. Dick's resolution refers to acts "in certain States," but Mr. Moody is content to investigate acts in Louisiana alone. Mr. Dick desires the the committee on election of a President, Vice President and Congress to take hold of the matter, while Mr. Moody prefers to have a special committee of eleven to sit on the acts of Louisiana.

Mr. Crumpacker has not presented his old plan for reappointing representation in the South. He is desirous of ascertaining the attitude of President Roosevelt towards this measure. He hopes that the President will at least be neutral, and he does not propose to fire off his ancient war until he hears how the White House regards it. Mr. Moody is a friend of the new administration, but he is evidently acting individually and not in behalf of the administration.

The chances are that the entire scheme will end in smoke and talk. It is excellent material for Northern stumps, but a very difficult and engaging problem in other respects, for Massachusetts and Pennsylvania and other States have engaged in the business of abridging the ballot.

The Moody resolution, directed against Louisiana, aims to ascertain: (1.) Whether the right of voters in the exercise of the elective franchise is abridged by the constitution and laws of the State; in other words, if the fourteenth amendment of the constitution has been violated under the form of the law; (2.) whether, if there has been such abridgement, the Congressmen chosen from the State are entitled to membership in the House; (3.) whether in either event it is expedient to enforce the constitution, which provides for reduction of representation in consequence of such violations.

The Goldsboro Buggy Co.
BUGGY MANUFACTURERS, GOLDSBORO, N. C., Solicit your valued orders.

Not a Cheap John Groger, The Southern Railway.
BUT ONE WHO ADVOCATES QUALITY, FIRST, LAST AND ALL THE TIME.

DO you, on the mere ground of economy, buy the cheapest cloth for your dress, the cheapest carpet for your floor, the cheapest furniture for your house? And if you don't, why buy cheap coffee? It is the most expensive of all economies. Do you realize that the best coffee to be bought (Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand) costs actually only 1 cent a cup! You need to use very little of it because of its high quality. Don't take our word for this! Test it yourself!

When it comes to what we eat, I contend that low prices for sloppy trashy goods is not economy. What you want to do to live well and cheaply, is to buy goods of known high quality. NOT NECESSARILY THE HIGHEST PRICED, BUT GOODS THAT CARRY FULL VALUE FOR THE PRICE CHARGED.

Now I claim to be able to furnish you just that class of goods. I do not claim to know it all, not even by a Winfield Scott Schley majority, but our experience of 30 years should count for something, and I will be glad to give you the benefit of it.

This is the season when Extracts, Spices, Sauces; Salads and condiments of various kinds are largely in demand. I claim that the quality of our stock of these goods are not surpassed by any house in the State.

The price is no more than you will pay in many instances for inferior goods.

We will be glad to have your order for any thing you may need. REMEMBER if you cannot find what you want in our stock, it is little use to look elsewhere. Our prices are right.

Let us serve you.
I. B. Fonvielle.
