Thereby Shall Be Overcome the Devils of Care and Wrong.

the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you."

Be diligent, let who will be idle. Be diligent in all well-doing; especially in seeking after happiness. Thereby shall be overcome the devils buildings have been erected during the first dose. It acts searching for truth may lead too far two thousand, with plenty of ready and reveal-the truth.

Truth concerning all things is not of no avail and are even discomfort- one vacant house in town. and poetry, romance and song, piety found in the county. and prayer. Above all things in life shall she love prayer and the holy things signified in praying.

who does anything, knows anything, substantial and wonderful progress believes anything, hopes anything of Dunn. which she may not name in silent prayer or voiceful:-It were better she had never been born.

The devil rejoices in the upbringing of little children who grow to the years of sin untaught and unstrengthened of mother's prayers.

Let him believe who will, but it is not given to any soul this side of eternity to scoff the religious convictions of any other soul. And apart from the monstrous negation of divine teaching, scoffing is vulgar, unseemly, unrighteous, vain and silly. So also is scotting the arts, learning and any or all of the eviadences of culture and refinement. And likewise is it vulgar to scoff and sneer at sentiment or song, or any honest emotion of souls which appear to be striving after the finer; qualities and possessions

The inequalities of humanity are as distinctly marked as innocence is from sin. That all men are born free and equal is a political fiction, and politics is uncleanliness. It was as untrue when first it was uttered as it is untrue to-day. Men are not only not free and equal before the law, but they are hopelessly so in the social life of the world. The law for the poor and helpless is not law for the rich and the influential. The worthy Chase. Clark & Kennington's of the world have a kingdom all their own.

The good folk, the gentle, the true, the unpretending-those have their own, they have one another; and they will be diligent in well-doing. Their women will be diligent in keeping their souls tidy, their hearts fresh with the dews of a spirit of youth that shall not pass.

For every good woman upon whom rests the light of heaven some evil strives and awaits opportunity; but so long as she deserves the guardianship of the angels just so long shall evil be powerless to harm her. Whose would give his tongue evil speech concerning her is the devil poorly disguised; for so fair a flower is woman's good name that even the breath of the liar shakes it rudely as noxious breezes bend lilies

The Renewal a Strain.

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, ness in Goldsboro. the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most thirty days and all stock on hand rugged. The little girl that a few will be sold at actual cost. Now is days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the time to get a tombstone cheap. the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic, which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

In S. S. S. Nature has provided a tonic suited to every requirement of the system when in a debilitated, run down condition. It contains no strong minerals or drugs, but is a pleasant vegetable preparation. You can find no better remedy for toning up the nerves and bringing refreshing, restful sleep when in a low state of health, or sick and worn out with work or worry.

S. S. S. improves the appetite, aids the digestion and reinforces the system, and its good effects are seen almost from the first dose. It acts

I have no hesitancy in recommending your S. S. S. as the best Spring tonic on the market. I have used many other medicines, but find S. S. S. to be undoubtedly the only tonic that will build up the system. I shall take pleasure in telling all whom I think in need of a good blood tonic of your medicine.

Yours truly,
