A WILD TRAIN ON SOUTHERN

TRUNDERS DOWN BALSAM MOUNTAIN AND IS WRECKED.

Engineer Moore Dies From the Blow of a Log—Brakeman Porter's Body Found Beneath the Wreckage of Train.

Asheville, Nov. 23.—An extra freight train, westbound, engine No. 1347, was wrecked near Balsam at 11 o'clock last night. Engineer D. Guy Moore was killed. The official report this morning was to the effect that brakeman Charles Porter, of Andrews, was missing, and that three others received injuries. The engine was not derailed, but the eight cars attached were, and also much damaged.

Engineer Moore lost control of his train while descending the steep grade of Balsam mountain, which is about 35 miles from Asheville on the Murphy Branch of the Southern. So far as can be learned all the men jumped.

Immediately behind the engine was a car loaded with heavy piling, one of the pieces of timber struck Mr. Moore on the back of the head, killing him instantly. All the injuries, it is said, were caused in a somewhat similar manner, by the falling of material.

The conductor of the train was B. M. Boone, of Waynesville, a nephew of J. P. Kerr, of this city. Captain Boone was slightly bruised about the head. Fireman R. M. Fortune, a brother of Law Agent Fortune, of the Southern, was bruised also on the head, but not seriously. Flagman G. W. Killiam received slight injuries.

A relief train was sent out upon receipt of news here. Superintendent Lamser and a large number of railroad men went out to the scene of the wreck.

Word was received here to-night that the body of brakeman Porter had been found beneath the wreckage.

TIED THE REDSKINS.

Virginia Meets Desperate Players in Carlisle. It Was a Fierce Game From Beginning to the End.

Norfolk, Nov. 21.—Six to six was the result of to-day's game between the University of Virginia and Carlisle.

The contest was replete with the fiercest line bucking and the ball was first in one team's territory and then in the others until the end. Neither scored in the first half, but Virginia clearly outplayed the redskins. In the second half the pale faces on a kick-off and a series of brilliant rushes earned a touch-down and goal.

Then Captain Johnson, of Carlisle, put in four fresh men and started an uphill game that was the most desperate ever seen on Lafayette field. His efforts to tie the score succeeded three minutes before the end of the game.

BROADHURST-PINCHON.

A Pretty Wedding In Which A Goldsboro Boy Was The Fortunate Groom.

The ARGUS noted in its Saturday issue the presence in the city of Mr. Walter Broadhurst and bride, on a visit to his parents. From the Morning Sentinel, of Atlantic City, N. J., we copy the following brilliant account of their wedding:

What was one of the fall's most fashionable weddings was solemnized last evening at the residence of Mrs. Henri Pinchon, 22 North Carolina avenue, south, when Miss Eugenie Marie Pinchon and Mr. William Walter Broadhurst were married. The Rev. Father J. J. Farrell, of St. Nicholas' church, officiated at the ceremony.

About sixty-five guests were in attendance. The scene was an artistically beautiful one, old family candelabras lighting up the long drawing rooms. The large bay window, before which the ceremony was performed, was deeply banked with palms and anilax and vines trailed gracefully over the mantels.

At eight o'clock the bridal party entered and passed up the ribboned aisle, the groom and his brother, Mr. Hugh H. Broadhurst, at the right following Father Farrell and Mrs. Pinchon and Miss Louise Pinchon at the left. On the arm of her uncle, Dr. Leon Dandurand, of Philadelphia, who gave her away, the bride entered.

Her wedding gown was a magnificent robe of chiffon ebouissant, sun pleated, over white taffeta with a bodice of hand-made lace over the chiffon and taffeta. From the blouse exquisite touches of the chameleon pleated chiffon peeped and formed part of the loose flowing sleeves held in at the wrist by deep lace cuffs. She carried an arm bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Pinchon was a symphony in soft gray peau de soie and Duchesse lace. Miss Pinchon wore an elaborate toilet of ivory doekin broadcloth, the waist of which was combined with old family lace and strapings of the broadcloth. Miss Lila Broadhurst, a sister of the groom, was exquisitely gowned in an ivory crepe de chine over taffeta.

Mr. Hugh H. Broadhurst, of West Point, attended in full dress uniform.

A wedding supper, following the ceremony, was served in the candle lighted dining-room, where great golden chrysanthemums mingled with the heavy gold and cut glass candelabras forming the tables' decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Broadhurst leave this morning for a wedding trip which will be spent mostly in the South. They will be at home to their friends after January the first at the Darlington apartments.

Mrs. Broadhurst's going-away costume was in the two-tone brown effect of brown brilliantine with a smart French felt toque and three-quarter jacket of a lighter shade.

Both members of the Eastern and Southern aristocracy, Mr. and Mrs. Broadhurst number among the resort's most prominent people socially. The bride is gifted with a marvelous soprano voice of great range and sweetness besides being a most charming and beautiful woman. Mr. Broadhurst, who is prominently associated with the Pennsylvania Railroad, is a North Carolinian and has only been making his home in Atlantic City for the past several years.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—The street car strike is still on. A fierce fight took place to-day between the strikers and police. No serious damage was done outside of a few cracked heads.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 23.—Rev. Thomas Smith, senior chaplain of the Confederate Army, died of general debility to-day at St. Luke's Hospital in this city, aged 81 years.

N. C. CONFERENCE.

OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH SOUTH.

It Convened With St. Paul M. E. Church in this City Yesterday Morning, With Bishop Candler Presiding.

WELCOME TO GOLDSBORO.

At 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, in St. Paul M. E. church in this city the North Carolina Conference convened in annual session, with Bishop Candler presiding, and the ARGUS for itself and its fellow citizens extends to that body a most cordial welcome within our gates and to our homes.

And in the gathering of these Godly men in our city, who come together in His name, to confer for His greater glory in the garnering of souls to Christ, surely is He in our midst, for we have His promise so, which never fails of fulfillment; therefore, as a Christian people let us at this gracious time in spirit acclaim with the Psalmist of old, "the Lord is King, let the people be never so impatient; He sitteth between the cherubim, let the earth be never so unquiet."

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Hyomei Cures This Common and Diagreeable Disease.

Hyomei cures catarrh by the simple method of breathing it into the air passages and lungs. It kills the germs of catarrhal poison, heals and soothes the irritated mucous membrane, enters the blood with the oxygen and kills the germs present there, effectually driving this disease from the system.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and comprises an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei and a dropper. The inhaler will last a lifetime; and additional bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50c.

If you have any of the following symptoms, catarrhal germs are at work somewhere in the mucous membrane of the nose, throat, bronchial tubes or tissues of the lungs.

offensive breath	stoppage of the nose at night
dryness of the nose	aching of the body
gum across the eyes	droppings in the throat
pain in back of the head	mouth open while sleeping
pain in front of the head	ticking back of the palate
tendency to take cold	formation of crusts in the nose
burning pain in the throat	dryness of the throat in the morning
hawking to clear the throat	loss of strength
pain in the chest	spasms of coughing
a cough	cough short and hacking
stitch in side	cough worse nights and mornings
losing of flesh	loss in vital force
variable appetite	a feeling of tightness across the upper part of the chest
low spirited at times raising of frothy mucus expectorating yellow matter
difficulty in breathing frequent sneezing
huskiness of voice
discharge from the nose

Hyomei will destroy activity of all catarrhal germs in the respiratory organs and in a few weeks the cure will be complete.

This is a strong statement, but J. H. Hill & Son emphasize it by agreeing to refund your money if Hyomei does not cure.

Scientific men tell us that the earth will go out of business in 100,000,000 years. It will be a warm day when the Earth corporation liquidates.

THE A. & N. C. LEASE.

Another Proposition Will Be Made the Governor—Who Constitute the Syndicate—Next Month's Meeting of Stockholders.

The proposition to lease the A. & N. C. Railroad, discussed so fully by the press of the State some weeks ago, and coupled as it was with a provision of extending that road fifty miles westward, within the next five years, to touch the great Seaboard system, is, in our opinion, one of the most fortuitous opportunities that has come not only to Goldsboro but to all of eastern North Carolina in half a century for greater physical development; while as a purely financial proposition the State and private stockholders of the A. & N. C. R. Co. considered and assured something they have never experienced before, nor can hope to realize otherwise for years to come, viz: a permanent, profitable, increasing annual dividend on their stock for the term of lease, with professed safeguards that the property will be maintained in as good physical condition as when received and so returned to the company at the expiration of the lease.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the A. & N. C. R. Co., at Newbern, in September, the private stockholders, by an almost unanimous vote, endorsed the pending proposition to lease their road, but as the Governor had declined to consider it favorably on behalf of the State's stock, a resolution was adopted to hold a special meeting of the stockholders in Newbern on December 10; that in the meantime the Governor might more maturely consider the conditions and situation and the interests and wishes of the private stockholders—all of whom, nearly, favor the lease—and the ethics of the compact between them and the State.

It has been rumored that the Seaboard was really the syndicate (in disguise) that is bidding for the A. & N. C. R. lease; but in truth the syndicate making the proposition is composed of public spirited citizens of our own section, anxious for the development thereof for their own weal and, that those coming after them may hold their memories in grateful regard as public benefactors of their own time and posterity.

These gentlemen are as follows: Messrs. T. A. Green, President Citizens Bank, Newbern, N. C.; W. B. Blades, President Blades Lumber Co., Newbern, N. C.; W. A. Mills, President Lumber Co., Troy, N. C.; N. O. Berry, President Enterprise Lumber Co., and Whiteville Lumber Co.; Lovit Hines, President Hines Bros' Lumber Co., W. W. Zachry, Manager Standard Oil Co., Norfolk; Jno. A. Mills, President R. & C. F. R. R., Raleigh; H. L. Finlayson, National Oil Company, W. W. Mills, President Carolina Trust Co., Raleigh; Geo. A. Norwood, Jr., President National Bank of Goldsboro; Dr. A. H. Abbott, Raleigh; V. H. Boyden, Raleigh.

IN DEATH UNITED.

Samuel F. Phillips Buried by the Side of His Wife and Children.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 21.—The funeral of Hon. Samuel F. Phillips, of Washington, D. C., was conducted from the Presbyterian church here this afternoon by Rev. E. H. Harding, of Virginia, formerly of this State, who is here temporarily. The remains were laid to rest in the family burying lot of the cemetery here, in which are buried his wife and two children. Many of the older citizens of Chapel Hill and a number of the faculty attended the ceremony. The law class, out of respect to the former instructor in law at the University, attended in a body.

Mr. James Southgate, president of the board of trustees, has stated that this meeting is for the purpose of considering matters growing out of the Dr. Bassett incident.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The extraordinary session of congress would come to an end to-morrow but for the obstinacy of Speaker Cannon, who declares that he will not agree to any such program. Conferences to-day between House and Senate leaders failed to bring about an agreement as to adjournment, but the prediction is freely made that all sides will get together to-morrow and the finish will take place Wednesday. The House cannot now muster a quorum, and with the Senate fully resolved not to pass the Cuban reciprocity bill until the regular session the uselessness of further extending the extra session of congress is apparent. Most of the members of the House have departed for their homes with the intention of remaining until December. Representatives Thomas and Patterson, the only North Carolina members in the city, will leave for the state Wednesday.

BIG SPECIAL SALE.

Mr. Jos. Edwards, the Champion of Low Prices, Inaugurates a Great Slaughter In Prices.

Mr. Jos. Edwards, the well known East Centre street dry goods and clothing merchant, and "Champion of Low Prices," has inaugurated at his store for the next THIRTY DAYS only, concluding on DECEMBER 18, the greatest slaughter in prices ever known in Goldsboro.

This is no fairy tale, nor special manoeuvre to draw trade, but is a positive fact which the intelligent public can judge for themselves and be convinced of by a visit to his store and examining the wonderful offers he is making to the trade in this great slaughter sale.

Mr. Edwards has placed with the ARGUS, for its Weekly edition, the largest advertisement he has ever put before the public, and he does this in order that the public generally throughout the widespread territory of Goldsboro's country trade, covered by the circulation of the WEEKLY ARGUS, may have the benefit of this Jubilee sale and lay in their winter supplies and Christmas specialties, while the city readers of the DAILY ARGUS may do likewise.

SIGNED BOND PROTECTS YOU

Mi-o-na Costs You Nothing if it Fails to Restore Health, Says J. H. Hill & Son.

The poor, thin, emaciated dyspeptic, when he becomes plump, rosy and robust, after using Mi-o-na, forgets that there is such a thing as indigestion.

This treatment is entirely different from any other medicine or treatment for dyspepsia. It is so different and so uniformly successful that J. H. Hill & Son wants every reader of the ARGUS to take Mi-o-na for a month at their risk.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding, they will give the following signed bond with every package:

GUARANTEE BOND.

We hereby agree to refund the price paid for Mi-o-na, if the purchaser tells us that it has not increased flesh and given freedom from stomach troubles.
J. H. Hill & Son.

You will be your own judge as to whether you pay for Mi-o-na or not. Simply leave 50c on deposit with J. H. Hill & Son, getting their signed bond which will protect your deposit.

This remarkable flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, produces good, rich blood, tones up the weakened digestive organs and makes permanent cures in the worst cases of dyspepsia.

You certainly can afford to start using Mi-o-na to-day when J. H. Hill & Son takes all the risk of giving satisfaction.
