

ANTI-JUG PROVISION.

JUDGE GEORGE H. BROWN UP-HOLDS ANTI-JUG LAW.

Decides the Test Case of State vs.
Long Against Defendant—Appeal Taken To the Supreme Court.

Raleigh Post.

Judge Geo. H. Brown in the superior court yesterday rendered his decision in the test case brought before him to ascertain whether the "anti-jug law" applied to all prohibition territory in the State. Judge Brown said that he could not conceive that the legislature intended to pass such a misleading title, but he knew no way out of the difficulty and he would leave the supreme court to wrestle with the question.

This test case was argued by Mr.
Cameron Morrison and Mr. Claudius Dockeroy for the defendant, Z. F.
Long, and by Mr. W. N. Jones, president of the anti-saloon league, for the prosecution.

Judge Brown's decision is as follows:

"State vs. Z. F. Long, North Carolina, Wake County—Superior Court.

"This is an indictment for selling and delivering whiskey within prohibition territory contrary to chapter 88 Private Laws of 1874 and 1875, as amended by chapter 13, Private Laws of 1879.

"The defendant by entry of record and in open court waived a jury trial, and it was agreed the court should find the facts.

"The defendant is a resident and citizen of Hoffman, Richmond county, North Carolina, and a regularly licensed wholesale and retail liquor dealer in said town.

"That at the time mentioned in indictment the defendant received an order, a letter through the mail from Simon Poacher, who resides in Wake Forest, N. C., and is not a druggist.
The letter was mailed at Wake Forest, directed to defendant at Hoffman and contained the cash price for one gallon of whiskey, and the letter directed the defendant to send said Poacher by express one gallon of whiskey. That said defendant, on receipt of said money and letter, delivered to the express company at Hoffman a package containing one gallon of whiskey addressed on the outside to Simon Poacher, Wake Forest, N. C. That said express company received said package of whiskey and carried it to said Poacher at Wake Forest and said Poacher there received it from the express company.

"Wake Forest College is situated within said town of Wake Forest.

"It is contended by the State that the act of 1903, chapter 349, entitled "An act to prohibit the manufacture, sale and importation of liquors in Cleveland, Cabarrus, Mitchell and Gaston counties," extends to the entire State and makes the place of delivery the place of sale in every part of the State and that under the facts of this case the sale took place within prohibited territory. It is extremely difficult for me to believe that the general assembly intended to enact what is commonly called an 'anti-jug law' for the entire State under such a misleading title as that given to the above recited act. Yet a careful study of the body of the act forces me to such conclusion and that it is an offence to ship packages containing intoxicating liquors from a point within this State into any territory within this State, where the sale is prohibited by law."

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

By local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube.
When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for cir-

FACTIONS IN OHIO.

While Marcus A. Hanna is bravely and persistently endeavoring to convince himself he is not a candidate for President, his friends in Ohio are actively engaged in the preliminary work of electing a set of delegates committed to Mr. Hanna and opposed to Mr. Roosevelt. The contest is open and undi-guised. The Hanna slate for delegates-at-large consists of Governor Herrick, ex-Governor Nash, Congressman Dick, and George B. Cox, the republican boss in Cincinnati. The administration slate for delegates-at-large is to be headed by Senator Foraker, but the other three names have not been announced. Senator Foraker plainly says, however, that he will meet the Hannaites at Philippi, and that the matter will be duly fought out. Mr.
Foraker throws down the gauge of battle defiantly and unflinchingly.
He says of President Roosevelt: "I believe in the man; I believe in his administration; I believe he will be the strongest candidate who can be named, and I believe he will be triumphantly elected, and I believe there should not be any halting or hesitation on the part of Ohio republicans about supporting him." This is the issue. This is the sum and substance of the fight, and the Hannaites stand ready to accept the gauge of battle.

The bitterness of the struggle promises to Ohio an excellent missionary field, and the democratic missionaries will no doubt be ready to improve the opportunity. There will be no warmer fight in the country than the coming one in Ohio, where Hanna and Foraker will contend for supremacy, and the title of Theodore Roosevelt to another lease of the White House may be tied up in the struggle. Strange things have happened in American politics.

SENATOR HALE'S PROPOSITION.

Even Senator Hale of Maine thinks some way should be found in which the grievances of Colombia, so truthfully and eloquently presented by General Reyes can be adjusted. Senator Hale's proposition is not very promising, but it shows that his conscience has been stirred until he has ceased to be a blind follower of Mr.
Foraker and Mr. Lodge.

He says the quarrel is between Columbia and Panama, and he proposes that the President of the United States tender his best offices towards a peaceful adjustment of all controversies that have arisen or that may arise between Colombia and Panama.
The Hale proposition is, it is true, superficial and impracticable, but it at least shows that the Maine senator thinks something should be done.

The United States cannot intervene with effect because its hands are not clean. It directly aided, if it did not connive at, the secession of Panama.

Its ships and its marines made the act of secession possible. It is the United States that wronged Colombia, and we are in no position to tender "our best offices." We are the cat that has taken the canary, and Mr. Hale will have to look elsewhere for an intervener and peacemaker. Let us, however, be glad that a republican conscience has been discovered in Maine, and that Messrs.
Foraker and Lodge cannot count on a solid republican vote in favor of their robber scheme.
