ITEMS OF INTEREST IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

All aboard for Seven Springs!

Mrs. Ed. L. Edmundson continues to improve, we are glad to chronicle.

If you have not paid your taxes before the first of May you cannot vote.

A series of revival meetings will be inaugurated in the First Baptist church next month.

There is general satisfaction in this section at the selection of Greensboro as the State convention city.

Mr. Stephen W. Isler will not be at his office here this week, on account of having to attend court at Kinston.

Mr. Leslie Weil, of the firm of H. Well & Bros., who has been on an extended purchasing trip north, has returned to the city.

Those gentlemen who happen to get on the wrong side of the market are apt to conclude that cotton isn't such a soft thing after all.

With good weather from this on the truckers between here and Wilmington will soon be shipping strawberries to Northern markets.

Shad fishing in the rivers hereabouts has begun in earnest and the much desired white shad is for sale every morning on the streets.

One of the attractions on John St. Saturday was a four-legged chicken which was exhibited in a tent next to the headquarters of the fire department.

Miss Marie Antoinette Hughes, of New York, and expert an experienced milliner, has arrived in the city, to fill the position of head milliner at Mr. I. Meyer's this season.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of The John Slaughter Company was held on Monday evening, March 14. Mr. D. H. Dixon was elected secretary and treasurer to succeed Mr. Thos. B. Jacobs, who resigned.

The sale of the Wayne Cotton Mill took place at public auction Monday at noon. The property was bid off to Mr. Frank K. Borden at $18,000, subject to its bonded indebtedness of $40,000, which would bring the actual selling price of the property up to $68,000.

Much has been said and written about the practice of parting one's hair in the middle as a sign of intellectual weakness. This is foolish prattle. Some of the ablest men in the country part their hair in the middle, some do not part it at all, while others haven't any hair to part.

The brick work on the foundations of Goldsboro's new post office is making progress, and soon, with favorable weather, the work will begin to assume definite outlines that will give an idea of the manner of building the Government is going to construct.

The death of Louisa Peel, colored, wife of Willis Peel, and who for twenty years has been a servant in the household of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lee, the nurse of their children and faithful to all trusts, occurred Saturday last and is deeply deplored by the family, who hold her in sincere regard.

The profits from "blind tigers" are continually tempting some colored individual to violate the law in reference to the sale of liquor in Goldsboro and as a consequence there are several now under bond for their appearance at court for this offense. On Tuesday Charley Manuel was before Mayor Hood for selling whiskey and he has been locked up because he could not give bond in the sum of $100. This case was brought to the attention of the police by a colored woman who had fallen out with Manuel and who had, she claims, bought whiskey from him. The police say that most of the cases of this kind have been reported to them by other negroes.

Health

"For 25 years I have never missed taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla every spring. It cleanses my blood, makes me feel strong, and does me good in every way." — John P. Hodnette, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Pure and rich blood carries new life to every part of the body. You are invigorated, refreshed. You feel anxious to be active. You become strong, steady, courageous. That's what Ayer's Sarsaparilla will do for you.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied.

St. Stephen's Guild will hold the sale of stock collars and other articles on Saturday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock at the store of Royall & Borden. It will be to the interest of all the ladies to attend this sale in order to supply themselves with the latest and daintiest of hand made neckwear.

While eating their dinner in the boiler rooms of the Enterprise Lumber company Thursday a steam pipe gave way and caused a draft through the fire box which brought the flames through the front and badly burned two colored hands at work at the mill. The accident did not cause any delay at the mill, but will cause the two workmen to be laid up for some days.

The amount of improved farm machinery which is being sold this spring is worthy of note. It shows that the farmers of Wayne county are getting to be more progressive and that they are going to be more independent of cheap labor, which is getting to be scarce and unsatisfactory. The improved farm machinery does away with farm hands and does the work in a better manner.

Two negro boys between the ages of 12 and 14 years were sent to jail on Tuesday. They with some other boys of their same age were engaged in a game of crap in Little Washington that morning. The two boys had a dispute over a nickle. One pulled a knife and the other a razor, the negro's favorite, weapon and they came together. Their clothes were cut and the skin lacerated in a few places.

Misses Nora and Hattie Midyette entertained the Epworth League of St. John church at a social session Monday night at home on Boundary street. In the "A Penny for Your Thoughts" contest Miss Ida Starling won the prize, a handsome stick pin. After the contest was over the evening was spent in spirited conversation interspersed with music, vocal and instrumental. Light refreshments were served.

The Mt. Olive Tribune is the name of a new paper which has recently begun publication in this county at Mt. Olive. Mr. Fred Mintz, formerly with the Southport Standard, is the hustling young editor. Mt. Olive is a prosperous town with a good back country. The trucking business at that point is something immense. Editor Mintz has selected a splendid location and if he pushes his paper he will no doubt do well.

The base ball season will open up in this city the first week in April with a game between the colored local team and a colored team from Raleigh. Goldsboro has the same team which visited Wilmington, Norfolk and Richmond last year and carried off the honors at each place. Large crowds of white people went out to see the team play last year and they will draw the majority of their patronage from the same source this year.

The Board of County Commissioners in special session March 16 ordered an election for Goldsboro, New Hope and Indian Spring townships in which the citizens of these townships may vote on the question of a bond issue for subscription to the capital stock of the Goldsboro and Seven Spring Railroad. The election for Goldsboro township is ordered for April 19, and New Hope and Indian Springs for April 21. Goldsboro township will vote on $25,000; New Hope on $5,000 and Indian Springs on $7,500.

Mr. W. T. Dorch has returned from attending Duplin county Superior court. He is one of the counsel for Dan Teachey, the man who is accused of killing Bob Rivenbark in that county last May. The Supreme court recently decided that Teachey was entitled to a new trial and counsel for the defendant succeeded in having the case postponed until the August term of Duplin Superior Court. In the meantime Teachey will remain in jail in this city, where there is also another murderer confined under sentence of death. The white man Daniels who killed Will Maxwell in the same county some months ago has taken an appeal to the Supreme court but that court has not passed upon his case and he is still held in jail here for safe keeping.

No. 325, an extra freight train on the Atlantic Coast Line which left Wilmington on Sunday for Rocky Mount, did not arrive in this city until Monday a.m. at 7 o'clock. When the train, which was in charge of conductor Newell and Engineer Powell, neared Wallace a coal car attached to the train jumped the track, carrying with it six or seven other cars, which were entirely demolished. The wrecking crew from Wilmington were soon on the scene and cleared the debris. No one was hurt.

Spring arrived Sunday in season and in fact. At least so weather augurs say and the weather fervor itself intimidated; but there are some folks—many folks—hereabouts, who do not go into spring attire nor plant their gardens until Jim Hollowell's "Spring Poem" is published in the ARGUS, and hence we are being daily interrogated now in regard to its forth coming. Has the Muse—or the "bitters" stirred your fancy into fine frenzy yet, Jim? But, since we come to think about it, maybe Jim hasn't got any "bitters." At least, we have not heard of his going to Pikeville.

Capt. Will Hinnant, who brought up the shoo-fly passenger train on the A. & N. C. railroad Saturday night, reports that he had a lively time just this side of Newbern. Several negroes who had filled up on "corn juice" boarded the train at Newbern for a point at a station some few miles distant. Two of the negroes, a father and son, became boisterous and a colored porter tried to quiet them, when one of the negroes pulled out his knife and cut the porter across the hand. A general mix-up followed in which Capt. Hinnant and others of the train crew participated. The troublesome negroes were finally overpowered and put off the train and had to walk to their destination. Capt. Hinnant received no injury.

A large congregation assembled at the First Baptist church on Sunday morning to hear the address of Mr. Mark Levy. His discourse was particularly directed to encouraging Christian denominations to undertake missionary work among the Hebrews in this country. His message was full of pathos, burning eloquence and yearning solicitude for the spiritual welfare of his people, and made a profound impression upon the hearts of his hearers. A feature of this service was the singing of a duet, "O Morning Land," by Miss Annie Pipkin and Mrs. W. F. Frye, which was superbly rendered and lent an added solemnity to the impressive occasion. At night a union service was held in the same church when Mr. Levy again addressed the people. The edifice was packed, the galleries and Sunday school room being used, and Mr. Levy delivered a sermon couched in simple language, yet full of wisdom and powerful in persuasive entreaty. It was one of the best discourses Mr. Levy has delivered during his stay in our city.

MASS OF SORES

Awful Suffering of a Boy from an Itching Humour.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Not One Square Inch of Skin on His Whole Body Was Unaffected.

"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did not do any good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura Remedies he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heart-breaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. I used the Cuticura Resolvent for his blood, and now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day."

ROBERT WATTAM,
4922 Center Ave., Chicago, Ill., Dec. 30, 1897.

No return in six years, Mr. Wattam writes, Feb. 23, 1905.

"Your letter of the 21st in regard to the case of my little boy at hand. I am truly thankful to say that the cure effected by the Cuticura Remedies has been a most thorough and successful cure to date."

A GEORGIA JUDGE WAS ALARMINGLY AFFLICTED WITH CATARRH OF THE LUNGS. CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

JUDGE DURHAM, OF GREENSBORO, GEORGIA.

Catarrh of the Lungs the First Stage of Consumption.

So All Medical Authorities Agree.

Judge Durham, a well-known local Judge of Greensboro, Ga., had an experience with Peruna well worth reciting. A report had become current among the Judge's friends that he was threatened with consumption. It was feared for a time that Georgia was to lose one of its most prominent and influential citizens. It was also reported that the judge had failed to get any relief from any of the medical aid at his command, that he had made use of the now world famous

A reward of $10,000 has been deposited in the Market Exchange Bank, Columbus, Ohio, as a guarantee that the above testimonial is genuine; that we hold in our possession authentic letters certifying to the same. Every one of our testimonials are genuine and in the words of the one whose name is appended.

"I continued using Peruna for a short while, and have never felt the least symptoms of catarrh since. Peruna is certainly a good medicine, and deserves the highest praise which is given it by the general public."

Judge Durham has been Secretary and Treasurer of the city of Greensboro, Ga., for the past three years, and has been a local judge for ten years.

Dread Consumption.

There are three roads which lead from health to consumption. Over one of these roads pass all of that great multitude of people who die every year of consumption. Each route begins with health and happiness and ends with disease and death.

First road: a slight cold—neglected—settles in the head or throat—chronic catarrh—extends to the lungs—consumption—death.

Second road: a slight cold—neglected cough—settles in the lungs—cough gradually growing worse—consumption—death.

Third road: a cold—neglected—settles in the throat—hoarseness—short breath—consumption—death.

Thousands have just started on one of these roads, all of whom could be easily cured by Peruna. Thousands more are half way to the fatal end of one of these roads who are still curable by a course of treatment by Peruna. Yet other thousands are near the end whose last days could be made bearable and hope of recovery more probable by commencing Peruna without delay.

remedy, Peruna, and made a prompt recovery. The affair created quite a sensation in medical circles especially, and the many friends of Judge Durham were not only exceedingly gratified at his recovery, but were enthusiastic in their praises of the remedy that had brought him relief.

The following written statement from the judge himself set forth the facts:

Greensboro, Ga., March 3, 1900.
"Some time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and in my head. I tried many remedies, all of which gave me no relief. I concluded that my case was catarrh of the head and lungs, and seeing Peruna so highly recommended I began using it, experiencing the very best results from the first bottle."

A PROMINENT RALEIGH MAN

Success of J. Hal Bobbitt and His Great Rheumatic Cure.

Raleigh News-Observer.
Mr. J. Hal Bobbitt, formerly of this city and president of the Bobbitt Chemical Company, manufacturers of "Rheumacide," tells an interesting story of the escape of his establishment from destruction in the great fire. The Bobbitt Chemical Company is situated on Lombard street on the nearest block to the ruins. At one time the fire threatened that block. Mr. Bobbitt and others whose buildings were nearby moved all of their valuable papers.

Mr. Bobbitt and the Bobbitt Chemical Company are both meeting with great success in Baltimore. "Rheumacide" has had an increase in business during the past year which has been most gratifying to the proprietors. In the territory which has thus far been worked "Rheumacide" is one of the best advertised articles offered the public.

OH THE FOLLY OF IT ALL!

This man actually made himself lame by walking all over the country looking for suitable material with which to build a house. He wanted good lumber, good brick, and good shingles; but his means were limited, and the prices at the mills were beyond his reach until he found A. T. GRIFFIN, who at once proved to him the folly of walking all over the face of the earth trying to find what he desired at reasonable prices. The man got what he wanted and went away wiser, and declared he would know where to go next time.

Mr. Griffin's Brick plant is situated just outside of the city limits, on the Southern Railroad, and his Lumber and Shingle plant is on the banks of Neuse river, near the mouth of Little river. When you need anything in his line, call on him or write your wants to
