LOOKS TO UNCLE SAM

To Liberate the Captives Held For Ransom at Morocco.

London, May 26.—A dispatch to the Times from Tangier says there is great confidence that the efforts of Sir Arthur Nicholson, the British minister to Morocco, to secure the release of Ion Perdicaris and Cromwell Varley, will prove successful. It is universally hoped that the United States will not treat the outrage on its citizens with the same apathy that European powers have treated similar happenings to their subjects. The non-arrival of American warships, expected before now, increases the feeling of insecurity.

Several people have received warnings of future outrages. No policies of any kind exist and until protective measures are taken Europeans will remain absolutely at the mercy of the tribesmen. Everybody knows the temperament of the natives and agrees that the situation requires more than mere protests.

GIVEN TO THE SICK ON TRIAL.

J. H. Hill & Son's Generous Offer—Hyomei Treatment Costs Nothing Unless It Cures Catarrh.

Many who are in need of Hyomei, the treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing, have not yet realized its wonderful healing powers. They want everyone who is troubled with catarrhal colds, to get a Hyomei outfit from them with the understanding that it is absolutely free unless it cures catarrh and frees the system from germs of grippe and influenza.

The first day's use of Hyomei will show by its exhilarating and vitalizing effects, that it is doing good. Use it for a full month entirely at J. H. Hill & Son's risk. If, at the end of thirty days, you can say that Hyomei has not helped you, they will return your money without question or argument.

The complete Hyomei treatment costs but one dollar, and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the pocket or purse, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler does not cure, extra bottles can be obtained for fifty cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and the only one where you can obtain a month's treatment from your local druggist that costs nothing if it fails to cure.

Try Hyomei for a month. It cannot harm you, as it is purely vegetable, and cures catarrh without any stomach dosing. If it fails, the loss falls entirely upon J. H. Hill & Son.

The further hearing of the case is set before Col. S. G. Ryan, of this city, as special master, to take evidence, which is to be completed by the first of July, when action is to be taken as to a permanent receiver.

WAGING WAR.

The Contempt Proceedings of the Lumberton Bar Reached a Climax Saturday.

Raleigh, N. C., May 28.—A climax came in the contempt proceedings at Lumberton to-day when Judge Peebles, with the order before him for removal of the case to Judge Brown, awaiting his signature, suddenly turned on three witnesses for respondents, E. W. Kerr, of Sampson, C. F. Carroll, of Duplin, and R. C. Southerland, of Sampson, and ordered them to jail for direct contempt in that their affidavits charging him with drunkenness were corruptly false. The Lumberton bar are preparing to come to Raleigh and apply for habeas corpus for imprisoned witnesses. Mr. Kerr is also fined $250 and Mr. Southerland $100.

Judge Peebles says he will send the case against the Lumberton bar to Judge Brown, as agreed, but will himself deal with these witnesses and others to be arrested, as they could not be convicted before another judge under the rule.

MR. JOSEPHUS DANIELS

IS HELD FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Rule Issued Yesterday by Judge Purnell in Federal Court—Alleged Contempt Grows Out of Editorial.

Raleigh Post.

The feature of the day in the district Federal court yesterday was the issuance of a rule by Judge Purnell against Josephus Daniels, the editor of the News and Observer, to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt of court.

Judge Purnell's statement from the bench soon after court met yesterday morning that he had issued such a rule was the most sensational incident witnessed in court here in recent years, and has been the general topic for discussion among the citizens and visitors since it became known. And the news spread rapidly. It was telegraphed over the State and people arriving on the afternoon trains asked eagerly of bystanders about the depot what the latest developments were. It was like an electric shock. Everybody knew about it and talked about it.

The rule was first made returnable at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but Judge Purnell later changed the order and made it returnable at 10 o'clock this morning, as yesterday was a national holiday and he desired to adjourn court at 2 o'clock for the day.

The matter out of which these contempt proceedings started was contained in certain editorial reference to Judge Purnell in Sunday's News and Observer regarding the appointment of a new receiver for the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.

The rule was served on Mr. Daniels and he at once consulted his lawyers, arranging for a defense. He will appear before the court at ten o'clock this morning and will be represented by Mr. R. T. Gray, regular attorney for The News and Observer, and associated with him will be Messrs. Busbee & Busbee, of Raleigh, Judge B. W. Winston, of Durham, Mr. F. A. Woodard, of Wilson, Judge T. B. Womack and Messrs. J. N. Holding and Walter L. Watson, of Raleigh.

A Big Fire.

New York, May 30.—The river front of Hoboken to-day presents a smoking mass of ruins. For twelve blocks of smouldering piles, piers and barges offer a dumb testimony to the flames that yesterday destroyed five million dollars worth of property.

Letter to Orphan Home.

Goldsboro, N. C. Dear Sir: Two years ago the estate of the late Congressman Scott, of Erie, Pa., painted 24 Rolling-Mill houses one coat Devco at a saving of 11 per cent. for paint (lead-and-oil was after the job).

That's how the tale reads. We infer what really happened.

The buyer, as usual, went by the cost of paint; got bids. Lead-and-oil bid low and guessed the quantity low; the saving was only 11 per cent.

Nobody seems to have thought of this: the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint. How much did we save on the painting? Don't know.

The tale ends with this. We often refer inquiries to those houses, for wear of Devco.

That's a good-enough story; but nobody knows what it is. Our only difficulty is want of paint-intelligence.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVCO & Co. P. S.—Smith & Yelverton sell our paint.
