STILL FIGHTING.

Russians Admire the Cleanliness and Perfect Order of the Japanese Soldiers on the Field. Japanese Noted For Their Honesty.

Mukden, Via Tien Tsin, Nov. 21.—Since the Japanese failed in the attack which they made on Poutiloff Hill, November 18, the old order of affairs has been resumed. There are frequent skirmishes, particular in the vicinity of the Russian center where both sides have daily clashed.

There was an exchange of artillery fire during the greater part of November 20.

It appears that the affair of November 18 was a reconnaissance in force and that had it been successful it was to be followed by a general attack.

The Japanese got within thirty paces of the Russian outer positions before being driven back. They left over a hundred soldiers dead on the field.

The Russians are comfortable in their dugouts.

The weather continues extremely cold.

Berlin, Nov. 22.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Mukden, says:

The health of both armies are good.

The Russians admire the cleanliness, perfect order and equipment of the Japanese. One does not see any trace of race hatred. It is a fact that the Japanese return through French intermediation all valuables found on dead Russians. This has made a deep impression here and is reciprocated.

Port Arthur, Nov. 22.—The Japanese are now constructing coast defense forts at Pigeon Bay, which is accepted as an indication that they expect to be defending Port Arthur some day.

MORE THAN FAIR.

Read J. H. Hill and Son's Guarantee Bond That Mi-o-na Will Cure the Worst Case of Dyspepsia.

The unique plan on which Mi-o-na is sold is more than fair. Unless it cures dyspepsia and all forms of stomach trouble, the purchase price is returned at once in accordance with the following guarantee bond:

COUPON.

This coupon entitles any reader of the ARGUS to have the purchase price of Mi-o-na refunded in case it does not increase the weight and cure stomach troubles. We assume all the risk, and Mi-o-na is absolutely free unless it gives satisfaction. J. H. Hill & Son. WE TAKE ALL RISK.

If it were not practically infallible in curing dyspepsia and the melancholy, sleeplessness, and weak nerves caused by that disease, J. H. Hill & Son could not afford to sell the remedy in this way. Their faith in the medicine is so implicit that this guarantee bond is given with every box they sell.

Begin the use of Mi-o-na to-day, as a few days' treatment will give relief and its continued use, perfect health.

CIRCUS ROBBED.

FOREPAUGH AND SELLS BROS. CIRCUS LOST $30,000.

Bold Thieves Touch the Pay Wagon For a Fortune While Train Was Running. Police Believe Crime Was Committed By Circus Employees. No Trace of Robbers Found.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 19.—While en route on a flat car between Greenville and Tarboro, N. C., early Saturday morning, the ticket wagon of the Forepaugh & Sells Bros.' circus was entered and robbed of $30,000.

The entrance to the wagon was effected by the use of the regular keys, which had been stolen from the treasurer of the circus. The robbery was not discovered until after the entire circus, which was traveling in three sections over the Atlantic Coast Line, had reached Tarboro. The ticket wagon was on the second section, and arrived at Tarboro at 1 o'clock Saturday morning. The first section reached there a half-hour earlier, and the third at 3 o'clock in the morning.

It was 5 o'clock before the robbery had been discovered, and from that time on until late to-night, when the last report was received at Norfolk, a search of the people connected with the circus has been in progress. The police are holding a man and woman, both performers, on suspicion of having committed the robbery. It has been impossible so far to secure the names of these two people.

Several theories are held by the police and circus people. One of these is that the robbery was committed while the train was in motion, and that the money was thrown off the train.

Searching parties are at work all along the line between Tarboro and Greenville in an effort to find any trace of the money or of any person who might have left the train with it. Up to this time no one has been missed from the circus crowd.

Another theory is that the cash has been hidden in Tarboro by the robbers, and innumerable search warrants have been sworn out. Armed with these, the regular police and special detectives are searching every place in Tarboro thought likely to conceal the money.

There were a score of arrests made during the day among the circus people. All apprehended were taken into custody on suspicion, and while in the town lockup their belongings were searched at the show grounds. Absolutely no trace of the money has been found.

Columbus, O., Nov. 19.—A telegram received this afternoon by Mrs. Lewis Sells, of Columbus, confirmed the story of the robbery of the Forepaugh-Sells circus at Tarboro, N. C. The amount secured by the robbers who held up the ticket wagon was $30,000.

No details of the robbery are given in the telegram.

Mrs. Sells is the wife of Lewis Sells, one of the owners of the show and the message received by her asked that arrangements be made through a Columbus bank to provide money to pay off the employees of the circus, which closes the season at Tarboro to-night.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 19.—A dispatch to the Observer from Tarboro, is $2,500 reward is offered for the apprehension of the person or persons who robbed the Forepaugh-Sells pay wagon.

MR. ROOSEVELT

FEELS HE HAS BEEN MIS- UNDERSTOOD.

Thinks Southern Press Has Been Unduly Harsh. Feels Especially Keenly the Charge That He Favors Social Equality of Races.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The first expression of President Roosevelt's view with reference to the South since his election by an overwhelming majority one week ago was given to Frank Michinard, the Washington correspondent of the New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Mr. Michinard sent his paper the following story with reference to his talk with the president:

"As has been indicated in these dispatches, Mr. Roosevelt feels that the Southern people have entirely misunderstood his attitude towards them and that section of the union. He thinks the Southern press has been unduly harsh in its criticisms of administration policy, principally with reference to the views he holds concerning the treatment of the negro."

"Regarding the negro, Mr. Roosevelt holds to the opinions of Abraham Lincoln. He believes that as there is no discrimination in business because of religion, there should be none in politics because of race or color."

"The president feels especially keenly the charge made by a portion of the press that he favors social equality and miscegenation. The president has said that he who would advocate either of these would be an enemy to both races. His views on the negro question coincide fully with those of Judge Jones, former governor of Alabama, a Confederate soldier and a Democrat."

"His friendliness to the South, Mr. Roosevelt thinks, is clearly indicated by the character of the men whom he has appointed to office in the various Southern States. He has professed in every instance an earnest desire to appoint the best Republican available for the position. A further evidence of his kindly feeling towards the South is his appointment of Gen. Luke Wright of Tennessee to the office of Governor General of the Philippines, a position which the administration regards as equal in dignity and importance to a cabinet officer."

EX-GOV. THOMPSON DEAD.

Former South Carolina Executive Passes Away at His Home in New York. Funeral Will be at Columbia.

New York, Nov. 20.—Hugh S. Thompson, former Governor of South Carolina, died at his residence here to-night.

He was born in Charleston, S. C., in 1836. In recent years he was comptroller of the New York Life Insurance Company.

No funeral services over the body of Mr. Thompson will be held in this city. The body will be taken South from here at 2:25 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. No arrangements for services in Columbia have yet been made, except that the interment will take place on Wednesday afternoon.

The direst calamity of the campaign impends. There is a threat to publish in a series of volumes the speeches of the campaign.

The St. Louis exposition has paid off its debt to the government. Now Uncle Sam will be unable to foreclose his mortgage on the Pike, and will be compelled once more to fall back upon congress as his sole winter amusement.

There is some curiosity to know whether the incoming congress will admit the territories to statehood. This cannot be determined until the Republican managers have an opportunity to examine the returns to ascertain how the territories voted.

Bakersfield, Cal., Nov. 21.—William Crutchfield, a middle aged man, walked into the county jail today and gave himself up, saying that he was implicated in a murder committed in Winston, N. C., sixteen years ago, and that he and three other boys were the slayers.

Asheville, Nov. 20.—John O. Grimes, a well-known young man of this city, employed as book-keeper in the nursery department of the Vanderbilt estate, at Biltmore, committed suicide this morning between 10 and 11 o'clock by taking poison and then plunging into the river. It is said that a love affair is responsible.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 21.—Forepaugh & Sells Brothers circus, whose pay car was robbed at Tarboro, N. C., last Saturday of $31,000 in cash, arrived here this morning en route to Shelbyville, five miles from Columbus, Ohio, where the circus will go into winter quarters. Nothing new was learned about the robbery. The men were paid off last night.

Vienna, Nov. 21.—More than ten thousand Russian deserters are in Galicia. There are a thousand of them hungry and shivering. They keep themselves alive by begging. Every day they throng the offices of relief committees to obtain a piece of bread and a place to sleep. The fugitives come from all parts of Russia, some of them from the most distant provinces. Their object in fleeing from their country is to escape conscription for service with the army in Manchuria.

TRIBUTES TO STATEMAN.

Telegrams From All Over the Country to Col. Breckinridge's Family. Special Honors For the Funeral To-Day.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 20.—All the immediate kin, save his brother, Major General Jos. C. Breckinridge, and his son, Robert, who are abroad, have arrived for the funeral of Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge to-morrow evening, from the First Presbyterian church.

Telegrams from all parts of the country to-day have brought expressions of sympathy to the family of the dead statesman. Local papers are crowded with tributes from friends, war comrades and colleagues in public life.

The Mayor has issued a proclamation convening the general council in special session to adopt resolutions and calling upon business houses to close their doors during the funeral. The chamber of commerce and Lexington bar will also hold special meetings to take action on his death.

MAKE IT UNANIMOUS.

PROPOSAL THAT OUR ELEC- TORS VOTE FOR MR. ROOSEVELT.

A Prominent Georgia Democrat Makes the Suggestion. Says It Would Be a Politic and Graceful Thing For the South to Do.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 21.—Julius Brown, son of the late Joseph E. Brown, Georgia's war Governor, is out with a card proposing that the electors of all the Southern States cast their votes for Roosevelt and thereby make his election unanimous.

He makes the proposition, he says, because Mr. Roosevelt has been unjustly attacked on the negro question and about the Philippines, and in fact, upon many public questions. He concludes his card by saying:

"He is a good man, and half Southern, and we of the South ought to be able to trust him."

Other prominent Democrats here express the opinion that it might be a politic as well as graceful thing for the Southern electors to do, especially in view of the announcement that the President favors a new deal in appointing Federal officials for the next four years, where the present incumbents have served two or more terms.

WHERE MILLIONS ARE MADE.

Interesting Letter That May Mean Much to Residents of Goldsboro.

Probably there is not a reader of the ARGUS who has not heard of the fortunes made in the Beaumont oil fields. While the tales of fortunes quickly made are interesting, they are really not half as valuable to our readers as the following letter from L. K. Preston, president of the Caswell-Preston Drug Company, of Beaumont, one of the largest wholesale and retail houses in Texas.

Mr. Preston writes: "Enclosed you will find a letter that came to us unsolicited from J. C. Reeves, 770 Pearl St. I have known Mr. Reeves for several years. He is a reliable man and very happy over his fortune."

"About four years ago," writes Mr. Reeves, "I lost the hearing in my right ear and about three or four months ago my left ear became almost as bad. In fact, I was so bad that people had to shout at me to make me hear. I had about given up in despair all hopes of ever recovering my hearing when I saw that you recommended Hyomei. I used two bottles and can now hear my watch tick with either ear, and my hearing is now all right. This deafness must have been caused from catarrh, for it is now cured. Hyomei certainly does what you claim for it."

Hyomei has made many cures of catarrh, and in combination with Hyomei balm, of catarrhal deafness in Goldsboro and nearby towns. J. H. Hill & Son give their personal guarantee to refund the money should it not give quick relief. The complete Hyomei outfit costs but one dollar while extra bottles can be obtained for fifty cents.

A FLOWER OF LOVE.

CAPTURED BY BANDITS A PART OF SCHEME TO REACH LOVER.

This Was the Aim of Miss Corelle, the Beautiful Young Army Nurse Who Sought the Handsome Officer Among the Japanese Soldiers.

Chefoo, Nov. 22.—A romantic story develops around Miss Corelle, the Russian war nurse who is on her way to Japan. She refuses to talk, but a reliable authority says her capture by the Chinese bandits who took her into the Japanese lines was part of her scheme to try and find her lover.

The first reports said Miss Corelle had voluntarily entered the Japanese lines. This now seems to be incorrect. Miss Corelle, it is now said, was a nurse during the Boxer rebellion and won the Stanislaus medal. During that war she was wounded in the arm and received the St. George medal, because she continued to work when her wound was dressed. She is a remarkably handsome woman of 21 years of age.

A young Russian officer fell in love with the pretty nurse who reciprocated his affection fully. Recently this officer was among the missing, and it was believed he was wounded or a prisoner among the Japanese. In order to find him it is alleged that Miss Corelle strolled from the Russian camp and very cheerfully allowed some Chinese bandits to capture her. This was about ten days ago.

The next step in her scheme was to become a Japanese prisoner or reach their lines. The bandits, it is asserted, allowed her to communicate with the French consul at New Chwang, following which a detail of Japanese soldiers reached the end of their campaign and Miss Corelle was taken to New Chwang. She tried to secure permission to go to Japan and search for her lover, but the Japanese gave her twenty-four hours in which to leave the town, suspecting her of being a spy.

The French consul at Chefoo is now endeavoring to obtain permission for Miss Corelle to nurse the wounded Russians in Japan.

Cody Bank Robber Captured.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 17.—A special to the Times from Cody Wyoming, says:

"According to news received by telephone from Thermopolis, one of the Cody bank robbers has been captured. This was the larger of the two men who robbed the Thermopolis saloon. The captured man appears to fill the description of the one who shot Middaugh in the attempted bank robbery in Cody. The capture was made about three and a quarter miles above the mouth of Owl Creek in the Big Horn Valley, a few miles from Thermopolis.

"The three rode cautiously up to the ruffian and succeeded in getting a drop on him before he was aware of their presence, and upon being questioned as to the identity and whereabouts of his partner he refused to utter a single word; in fact, he has remained silent ever since he was captured.

Upon his person were found a revolver and some money that are known to be the same as that taken from Edwards's saloon yesterday. Parties from Cody will go to Thermopolis for the purpose of identifying the captured man as the larger of the two who attempted to hold up the bank here. It was the larger of the two men who fired the shot that killed Middaugh.
