

Goldsboro Weekly Argus

"This ARGUS o'er the people's rights
Doth an eternal vigil keep;
No soothing strains of Malin's son
Can lull its hundred eyes to sleep."

VOL. XX

GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1905.

NO 46

A HORRIBLE COLLISION.

ON THE A. & N. C. ROAD FRIDAY NIGHT.

Passenger Train No. 6, Due Here at 8:10 p. m., Runs into an Open Switch Near the Rice Mills and Collides with a Truck Train which was Standing on Siding--The Passengers Were Badly Shaken up, but the Colored Fireman was the Only Person Fatally Hurt--He Died from His Injuries This Morning at 10 o'clock.

A horrible collision occurred on the A. & N. C. road in the northern part of the city, just opposite the Goldsboro Hospital, Friday night about 8:30 o'clock.

Just as the A. & N. C. shoo-fly, due here at 8:10, was approaching the crossing near the rice mills, Engineer Marshall, who was in charge of the train, discovered that he had run into an open switch, which threw his engine off the main line and on to the side track.

On this track and facing the approaching engine, stood engine No. 19, attached to a string of freight cars, which was due to leave here as soon as the main train cleared the main line and was out of the way.

This train was in charge of Engineer Murray Flowers, who but a few minutes before was on his engine, but at that time, his fireman being in front of the engine, wiping off the headlights.

Engineer Flowers was on his engine in a second's time and was preparing to make an effort to get his train out of the way, but he saw at a glance that it was impossible, as a Coast Line freight train was across the track of the main line of the said road, which placed him between the Coast Line train and the approaching engine, and there was nothing left for him to do but get out of the way and watch results.

As above stated, his fireman was on the front of the engine cleaning the headlights just in time to see the approaching train just in time to jump and escape with his life.

As soon as Engineer Marshall discovered the impending danger, and saw the engine he was facing and which he was bound to collide with, he blew the danger signal three times, reversed his engine and applied the emergency brakes and did everything in the power of a skilled engineer, with remarkable presence of mind, to prevent the collision, but without avail. On sped the great iron monster, beyond the power of man to control, and the two mighty engines went together with a tremendous clash, the thunderous sound of which could be distinctly heard for blocks away.

It was a trying moment for all concerned--train crew, passengers, and all--but every one used unusual presence of mind and made the best of the situation possible.

When the final crash came, which was utterly unexpected by the passengers, they were all terribly shaken up and some of them thrown to the floor of the cars, so great was the jar, but fortunately no one was seriously hurt of the large number of passengers on board.

Conductor Hancock, who was in charge of the train, was badly shaken up and right painfully hurt, but we are glad to know not seriously. He was soon on his feet and was unusually alert in looking after the comfort of his passengers and administering to their wants and enquiring about their injuries. They all had a miraculous escape, and the result could have been much worse.

The only one seriously hurt was the fireman, Abe Richardson. As soon as Abe saw the approaching danger he went to the door of the cab--so it is surmised--for the purpose of jumping, but before he could put his desire into execution the crash came and Abe was pinned between the tender and the cab, and was mashed in a horrible manner, and it was sometime before he could be liberated. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital and Drs. John Spicer and Robt. Miller dressed his wounds. He was found to be injured internally, and died from his injuries this morning at 10 o'clock.

Engineer Marshall remained at his post, with his hand on the throttle, and stange to say, he was uninjured. When the crash came he was thrown to the floor of the cab and received a severe jar, but otherwise he was not hurt.

Both of the engines are considerably damaged, the "cow-catchers" smashed into splinters, but it could have been much worse.

The cause of the accident was due to an open switch, which is the fault of the rear end brakeman on the truck train which had a short while before passed through.

No blame is attached to the company, under the prevailing circumstances, or either of the engineers. A number of the officials were soon on the scene for the purpose of having the injured ones cared for in the event that any were hurt, and to ascertain the direct cause of the trouble, and everything possible was done for the injured fireman, and the passengers conveyed to the hotel by backs.

The company is to be congratulated that the loss is no greater than it is and the result is no worse.

LOOKING FOR A FIGHT.

The Fleet Has Gone Northward Leaving Transports Behind.

London, May 20.--Naval officers and newspaper correspondents are speculating upon the forthcoming naval battle and forecasting the result. It is believed that the departure of the Russian fleet from French waters shows that a fight is to be expected immediately. The fact that he has abandoned his transport fleet in the neighborhood of Saigon indicates that his departure is final. At the moment of writing nothing can be learned of the Russian movements later than May 17, when the fleet was seen proceeding northward.

He Bought the Factory.

Because he was told that one factory could not supply the bronze work for his palace now being erected in New York Senator Clark of Montana bought the plant, "lock, stock and barrel." Now he is going to run the factory himself and will have his house finished according to schedule time or make a serious error in his calculations. Senator Clark could have purchased a pipe plant to manufacture his plumbing necessities just as easily as he bought the bronze works. It is such privileges as these that make the life of an American millionaire worth living.

LIST OF LETTERS

Remaining in Postoffice, Goldsboro, Wayne County, N. C., May 22, 1905.

MEN'S LIST.

B--William Brown, Freddie Bankon.
C--H P Clingman.
D--Alford Dusen.
F--O J Fitzgerald.
G--M H Garland.
H--A Hill, Francis Hodges.
J--W A Jones.
L--Chas Long.
M--L L Martin.
O--E E Orten.
R--G W Raper, E S Radd.
W--J M Wood.

LADIES LIST.

A--Annie Adams.
B--Gleennie Barnes.
E--Fannie Edwards.
H--R J Hardison.
J--Betty Johnson, Hannah Jones.
P--Cally Phillips.
S--Julia Stevens.
V--Mary Vinson.

Persons calling for above letters will please say advertised. Rules and regulations require that one cent be paid on all advertised letters.

J. F. DOBSON,
Postmaster.

George E. Hood, Supreme Judge.

We clip the following complimentary notice from the Raleigh "American", the official organ of the Jr. Order United American Mechanics, of our worthy townsman and popular young Mayor, Mr. Geo. E. Hood, which will be read with real pleasure by his many friends in this city and throughout the State:

"Owing to the resignation of Bro. C. C. Newman, of West Virginia, Bro. Geo. E. Hood, Past State Councilor of North Carolina, has been appointed one of the Supreme Judges of the National Judiciary. This is a well merited appointment, and we feel sure that Brother Hood will meet every requirement that is expected in so high and important a position. In our next issue we will present a cut and sketch of this brilliant young North Carolinian."

New York's four hundred are to hear old-fashioned Southern songs at an approaching society concert. This indicates plainly that New York's four hundred are becoming more cultured.

HOW GERM DISEASES START.

People with Weak Stomachs in a Continual State of Danger.

Nearly all disease germs that find lodgment in the system gain entrance with the air we breathe or through our food and drink.

If the stomach and digestive organs are weak, so that food does not readily digest they will contain a sour, slimy fermenting mass, an ideal spot for the disease germs to grow and spread through the whole system.

If you suffer with headache back-

JEFFRIES QUITS RING.

He Leaves Robert Fitzsimmons the World's Champion. He Says Lanky Bob is the One to Defend the Title Now.

The unbeaten Monarch of Wallopville has abdicated. King Jeff has removed pugdom's crown from his massive nodule and passed it over to Bob Fitzsimmons, from whom he won it over six years ago. With the passing of the giant Californian there is no real champion in the world of scrap-to-day, although Fitzsimmons deserves the honor and the Australian will be heralded as champion until he is beaten in a battle for the title.

Jeffries literally fought himself out of a job. Sullivan was forced into retirement after his New Orleans downfall in '92, but Jeffries leaves unbeaten and there is no one even to be classed with him. Corbett trimmed Sullivan, Ruby Robert took the measure of Gentleman Jim and the massive westerner annexed Fitzsimmons' scalp. Fitzsimmons will doubtless take on all comers for the championship after his theatrical engagements have closed in June.

One a Minute.

After all the world does not advance so rapidly. At least it would appear that people are just as they were ten or even twenty years ago. After a time they learn the trams of the old world, but all else has to do in order to cope with new victims in a change the appearance of his race and the rest is easy.

It is reported that a Missouri stockman was drawing $20,000 out of a bank to purchase two "gold" disks worth $37,000 when the cashier became suspicious, began to ask questions and finally learned enough to keep the stockman from paying over his money until the deal could be investigated.

It was the same old gold brick ruse. The only change was in the shape of the merchandise, the gold was in the form of disks to be sure, but still it was the gold brick swindle, and if the intended victim had not been a lucky person he would have been $20,000 short with nothing to show for his expenditure but a lot of copper alloy. Verily and once again, "A sucker is born every minute."

NOVEL HILL ITEMS.

The Doings of a Week in and Around This Thriving Neighborhood.

Rev H E Tripp filled his regular appointment at Salem Sunday, to a large and attentive audience.

Miss Suddie Deans, returned home Saturday from Buie's Creek, where she has been attending school.

Mr Bud Thompson, of Rocky Mount, was in our midst Sunday, to the delight of his many friends.

Prof Cullum will be at Thompson's Chapel next Sunday evening for the purpose of organizing a vocal music class.

Masters Ed L and Dewey Edmondson, and sister Miss Addie, spent Sunday at their uncle's, Mr A P Howell.

Misses May and Pearl Fields and Nannie Epps, of Goldsboro, spent Saturday night and Sunday with the Misses Hill.

Mr H M Cates, of Alamance, spoke to the farmers of this section last Friday evening, which was beneficial to all present.

We are glad to say that the exercises at Salem and Novel Hill last Sunday was quite a success and was a pleasant occasion for all present.

The Bell telephone has been extended as near us as Mr Richard Montague's store, and we have all since taken the electric fever, which we hope may prove contagious.

We congratulate the people of Scottsville, as they have been successful in making Scottsville a shipping point. This has been greatly needed for sometime and will be a great benefit to truckers in this section.

Novel Hill, May 23.

GOSSIP OF THE WORLD.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM DIVERSE SOURCES.

The Latest Telegraphic News of the Day Bolled Down to a Focus For Busy Readers.

"Shall we spell it Rozhdvestenski?" asks a subscriber. The question is not shall we, but can we? Rozhdvestenski is easier.

If Mr. Rockefeller will agree to report in sackcloth and ashes instead of dollars and cents, perhaps Dr. Gladden will withdraw his protest.

A thirty dollar cow has been before the supreme court of Colorado for fifteen years. Doubtless both the case and the cow have gone dry by now.

Guth, Cal., May 22.--M. G. Guin, assistant agent for the Frisco at this place, had the misfortune to have his right foot cut off here this morning about 11 o'clock.

A machine has been invented for making pretzels. It comes in very handy for the summer season now at hand. The populace must have beer and pretzels along with liberty.

The governor of Montana is to wed a stenographer. There is no excuse for a telephone girl or woman stenographer ever applying to a matrimonial bureau for a husband. They can't stay single long.

A man leaped upon the stage before 300 people, stabbed himself and cried, "Drink did it!" Now isn't that remarkable? It is curious how a man will lay all the blame for a wrecked life on whiskey, when it is his hand that pours the poison.

New York, May 22.--Brooklyn in a few months will have a twenty story tenement house, the largest in this city, and it will occupy a whole block. Children not only will be welcome, but no apartment will be rented to a family unless they have at least one child.

Charleston, S. C., May 22.--Dr. Frank A. Waddill, a prominent business man of Chew, S. C.; died today after a short illness. He graduated from Washington Lee University shortly after the war and for some time was private secretary to General R. E. Lee. He afterwards graduated at the Baltimore Medical College. Mr. Waddill had been an officer in the Bank of Chew since 1882.

For some days a strange negro has been canvassing in parts of Cabarrus county, taking orders from the colored people for groceries at low wholesale prices. He required them to advance the money for the freight on the goods, and in this way collected a good deal of money from the unsuspecting darkies who were eager to buy the cheap goods. The wily salesman has fled to parts unknown, leaving his colored dupes to whistle for their money.

Up in Oaaha a celebrated phrenologist felt the bumps of sixty clerks in the passenger department of the Union Pacific railway to determine for which department of railroad they are best adapted. The specialist was employed to discover hidden genius that has not yet made its appearance, and if that is not applying science to business with a vengeance the trick was never attempted. A written recommendation would cut a very poor figure in the presence of a gentleman who can tell what's in you by feeling your head.

Bordeaux, May 21--Judge Albion Wingard Tourgee, of Mayville, N. Y., American consul here, died this morning of acute uricemia, which resulted from an old wound Judge Tourgee was taken seriously ill some months ago, but his condition afterwards improved and it was believed his recovery was probable. Recently, however, the disease took another serious turn and Judge Tourgee lingered until this morning. He was born at Williamsfield, Ohio, May 2, 1838.

Salisbury, N. C., May 22.--H. Clay Grubb and Clarence Thompson, the former a big distiller of Davidson county, who was acquitted last Saturday of murdering O. L. Davis, his brother-in-law; the latter a prominent witness in the recent trial, were dangerously shot from ambush near Churchland, 5 miles east of this city, at 8:30 o'clock this a. m. The two men were on their way to Salisbury in an open buggy and the shooting took place but a short distance from the Grubb mansion. Both Grubb and Thompson are painfully injured, having received a portion of several loads of buckshot in their bodies. They lost much blood before a physician could be reached. Thompson is seriously injured by about a dozen leaden missiles which passed through his lungs and back. He is in a dangerous condition to-night. The worst injuries sustained by Grubb were in the shoulders, arms and head, but it is thought he will soon recover.

SCARCITY OF LABOR.

Vagrancy in Cities a Chief Cause: Mayor Hood's Com- mendable Move.

There is considerable complaint about the scarcity of labor on the farms, and some of our farmers say that unless conditions improve they will be compelled of necessity to reduce their acreage not only in cotton and corn but other products, in order that they may be able to give their crops proper attention, and depend alone on the labor of their own household.

This is indeed a serious state of affairs. Why this scarcity of labor? Is it because there is no one to do the work, or because the price offered is too insignificant?

Not so. There is plenty of labor and the price offered now is at least one-third more than was paid a few years ago. Then you could hire a splendid farm hand for $8.00 a month and board, and now from 65 to 75 cents a day is offered and labor cannot be secured at that. On many farms in this county the grass has taken the crop and there seems to be no help for it.

Can this state of affairs be overcome? Of course it can. Everybody has to eat, work or play, and the question naturally arises, where does a certain class of people get something to eat and wear, who are never known to work a lick, and who have no visible means of support?

Why they beg it, or steal it, and in many instances live on half enough just for the sake of loafing around town. It is hard work on the farm and they want to live easy, and it matters not how they get a living unless they have a good time.

We have a vagrancy law, and it is one of the best laws on the statute books and it was only enforced. Now the easy way to make these people go to work and stop loafing, is to enforce this law to the letter and you have solved the problem.

It is a common thing to see big able-bodied men hanging around the dice negro restaurants and street corners half clothed and half starved, trying to live easy.

Of course they don't loaf around the hotel or city hall, but go down in Little Washington, and in these back alleys and restaurants and you can find them--plenty of them. And ask one if he wants a job and he is grossly insulted at once.

An idle person is ready to yield to all kind of temptations. If he fails to get a square meal during the day he will enter some honest, hard-working man's pantry while he is resting from the day's toil and steal everything in sight, or enter a chicken coop and steal a nice fat hen, and he won't have any trouble in getting his stuff cooked after he has stolen it, either.

So the greatest reason why labor is so scarce is because the vagrancy law is not properly and rigidly enforced. Not only is this applicable to Goldsboro but every town, both large and small, in the State. Enforce the law to the letter, make these whites, mean, lazy negroes--and some whites, too--go to work, either at the mills, on the farms or on the county roads, and labor will not be so scarce and crime in this state will be greatly decreased.

It will not only be far better for them, but better for all concerned.

Again we say, let the vagrancy law be enforced to the letter.

One negro was sent to the roads yesterday by the Mayor for 30 days for vagrancy, and Bud Bain, another well-known negro loafer, was arrested and locked up this morning and will doubtless serve 30 days on the roads, also; but there are others still, and we hope the Mayor will not stop until the whole town is rid of these loafers.

Letter to T. N. Warters.

Goldsboro, N. C.

Dear Sir: Here's a sample: how Devoe upsets things.

Littlestown, Pa, was a cheap-paint town up to a year ago, when Messrs. Basehoar & Mehring took over agency. They send us the names of the painters now painting Devoe's.

A C Bollinger, A Wm Unger, Joshua Beihl, Edw L Kellenberger, John F Kellenberger, J B McSherry, John G Frey, G C Lawrence, Charles Steich, L C March and forty names of property-owners painting D-voe; and every-one of the painters tells why he paints Devoe.

They are not mistaken; Devoe is the cheapest paint in the world--so far as we know the world and paint.

If painters everywhere knew it, they'd paint it, every man of 'em.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

P. S.--Smith & Yelvarion sell our paint.

Administrator's Notice.

Having qualified as administrator of W M Devoe, deceased, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned on or before the 30th day of February 1906, or this notice will be voided in favor of his recovery. All persons indebted to the said estate will please make immediate payment.

This 25th day of February, 1905.
F. S. BARBER, Administrator
Wilson 80

WALTER LETTER.

ARGUS BUREAU WALTER, N. C., May 23, 1905.

Chronicle of a Week's Events in That Thriving Neighbor- hood.

Miss Lizzie Becton left yesterday to visit relatives at Stantonburg.

Miss Suddie Howell and Bessie Swinson, of your city, were visitors here Sunday.

Mr. Larry Overman, of Stantonburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Becton.

Mrs. Millie Swinson is on a visit to your city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howell.

Mrs. A. L. Sasser spent last week in Raleigh, on a visit to her daughter Mrs. Dr Jordan.

Mr. H. M. Cates, of Alamance county, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell last week.

Miss Anna Pipkin returned home last week from Lemon Spring, where she has been attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lane, of your city, spent Sunday at Grassmere, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lane.

Mr Ernest Dixon was visiting Mr. Wade Caldwell last week, on his way home from Pamlico, where he has been teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Sasser spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thedie Hill, at Eureka, where they were glad to find the report that Mrs. Hill was seriously ill, to be a mistake.

The recent storm and continued wet weather has damaged crops very much. Corn and cotton are dying and what is standing is red and does not look thrifty and a good deal of it is wrapped up in grass, and labor very scarce.

There is more sickness than usual in our community, due to the fact that plums are dropping and people are grabbing Irish potatoes and eating green apple pies. Over indulgence and imprudence in diet, cause most of our ills.

We do not think we would be very far from "de God's truth" if we say that if all the grass in our section was let mature and saved, and marketed at what the farmers are paying for hay, it would bring more than the cotton crop at ten cents per pound.

The township Sunday School Convention, which convened at Spring Hill last Saturday, is said to have been the most creditable ever held in the community, and that is saying a good deal. There was a large crowd in attendance, notwithstanding many were too busy with their crops to attend. The speech on Christian Education by Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, is said to have been the finest ever heard in these parts. The exercises by the different schools were well rendered, and the singing commented on by those who fully appreciate soul stirring music, instead of this high-faluting kind, which comes on the installment plan and never touches the heart.

Dyspeptics

Quickly relieves Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Nausea, and all other disorders of indigestion. Sold in 10-cent bottles. 10c. or 25c. Druggists or by mail.

Cataracts

Gives instant relief in all cases. No operation. No pain. No danger. Best result. Best price. Best value. Sold by C. H. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass. It is made by Hood's Eye Goods.

State of North Carolina, Wayne Co. Superior Court, April Term 1905.

John Henry Aycock and others vs
Easter Ann Groves and others

In pursuance of the order of the court made in the above entitled cause, we the undersigned commissioners appointed by the Court will expose to public sale at the court house door in the city of Goldsboro on the 5th day of June 1905 the following tracts of land situated in the county and state aforesaid, bounded as follows: One tract of land bounded as follows: by the lands of B. E. Perkins, B. F. Scott and D. W. Peel, it being the same on which Mariah Aycock resides containing thirty-five acres more or less. One other tract of land bounded as follows: on North by Nahanta Swamp adjoining the lands of G. C. Garris, P. B. Scott heirs, containing forty acres more or less, it being the same conveyed to Mrs. McEllen Holland by G. W. Boswell, recorded in the Register's office of Wayne County in Book No. 67, page 227 it being also the same mortgaged by Stauffer to Mrs. McEllen Holland recorded in the Register's office of Wayne County in Book No. 67, page 184; one other tract of land in Pikeville bounded by the lands of Johnathan Garris, W. B. Fall and W. E. Ham; all of the above mentioned tracts of lands being the same also lot to the late Stanford Aycock as a homestead recorded in the Register's office of Wayne County in Book No. 65, page 410.

F. A. Daniels,
Stephen W. Lile,
Commissioners.

THE ONLY True Blood Purifier

is prominently in the public eye by its Hood's Sarsaparilla. This is not Hood's and ONLY HOOD'S.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

STATE NEWS.

Items of Interest Clipped From our State Exchanges.

Newbern Journal--Yesterday a shipment of 23 solid carloads of cabbages were made in Swift Refrigerator cars to New York and other Northern markets. This was the largest shipment ever made in refrigerator cars from this section.

Dick Johnson, white a state convict, age 55, was shot Saturday by two guards at the camp on the line of the Raleigh & Cape Fear railway near Lillington and instantly killed. He ran, declined to halt and was shot three times, thirty-six buckshot striking his body and head, one shot going entirely through his head. He was serving his third term, a thirteen years, for forgery. Officials say he was a desperate fellow and that he was simply shot pieces.

Raleigh Post--Grand Tiler R. H. Brauley of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons has engagements to attend the special session of the Grand Lodge at the Capitan Orphanage on the 24th of June, St. John's Day. On the 27th of May he goes to Koper to participate in the ceremony of laying the corner stone of a new building there. And on June 28th he will be at Kingston for a big reunion of 20 lodges a feature of which will be the opening of a special session of the Grand Lodge.

H. Clay Grubb, the prominent distiller of Davidson county, who for ten days has been on trial at Salisbury for his life, charged with killing his brother-in-law, O. L. Davis, in October last, was acquitted in the Rowan Superior court today.

At 7:30 o'clock this morning the jury, after having been out twelve hours, returned a verdict of not guilty. Five ballots were taken before an agreement was reached. On the first ballot nine men stood for acquittal and three for conviction of murder in the first degree. On the fourth ballot six stood for acquittal and six for conviction.

Grubb was released at once, and after shaking hands with his attorneys and a number of friends, left this afternoon for his home in Davidson, where he is very prominent. He was accompanied by Mrs. Davis, who is a sister of Davis, who was shot to death by Grubb. Both men were wealthy and had been associated together in business.

Asheville Citizen--R. McNapland left town suddenly on a mule Friday afternoon, and his departure, coupled with a failure to return, will cost D. G. Noland $50. The man was out on bond to appear before Magistrate Waddell yesterday evening to answer charge of slander and perjury, but when the hour arrived the man was not present, and with the aid of a captain the sheriff's force has not yet been capable of locating him. An investigation brought out the fact that when last seen he was riding toward South Carolina on a mule. The trouble out of which the trial grew began in police court Friday morning, when McFarland is said to have made charges concerning members of J. F. Rodgers' family which the latter declared to be untrue and slanderous. He presented a warrant and as McFarland left the courtroom he was arrested on the two charges. Through his attorney he secured a postponement of the case until 6 o'clock and D. G. Noland went on his bond, with the result above mentioned.

Tarborough Southerner--Probably not in a dozen years, if so few, have McComas to Be Judge.

Washington, May 19--It was announced at the White House today by Attorney General Moody that ex-Senator Louis E. McComas of Maryland will shortly be named as an associate justice of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia. He will succeed Justice Martin F. Morris, who has written to the president of his intention to retire.

CORN FIELDS ARE GOLD FIELDS!

to the farmer who understands how to feed his crops, Fertilizers for Corn must contain at least 7 per cent actual

Potash

Send for our books--they tell why Potash is as necessary to plant life as sun and rain; sent free, if you ask. Write today.

GERMAN KALI WORKS
New York--93 Nassau Street, or
Albion, Ga.--1/2 South Broad St.

To Cure a Cold in One Day,
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine
Tablets. All druggists return the money if it fails to cure. E. W.
Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.