CONGRATULATIONS.

LET US HOPE THE END HAS COME.

The Gattis-Kilgo Case Is At Last Thrown Out of Court.
By Judge Moore.

Raleigh Post.

Judge Fred Moore dismissed the action in the Gattis-Kilgo suit yesterday at a quarter to 1 o'clock.

Two great speeches had just been made to the court on the motion to dismiss the day before, one by Col. T. M. Argo for the plaintiff against the motion, and the other by ex-Gov. Charles B. Aycock for the defendant, and Gov. Aycock had just concluded when Judge Moore at once, without a moment's hesitation, said:

"Gentlemen, I am very aware indeed of withdrawing any case from the jury, but after considerable thought and as careful an examination of the evidence as I could make, I fail to find any evidence sufficient to go to the jury."

"That settles it," was heard from Mr. Pou's direction.

"Don't you be too sure about that," from Judge Graham.

Friends, trustees of Trinity college present, ministers and counsel surrounded Dr. Kilgo, Mr. Duke and Gov. Aycock, shaking their hands and saying words of congratulation. Dr. Kilgo was visibly affected. He almost broke down.

While the congratulations were going on Mr. Pou was trying to be heard. He was saying to Judge Moore:

"I think that your Honor has done a very great service to the country and deserves the thanks of the people, as the surgeon who finds a diseased vermiform appendix annoying a patient, and cuts it off so that his body may be healthy again deserves thanks."

Judge Graham listened very attentively to this, and when Mr. Pou finished, he said: "I have no doubt your Honor feels much obliged for Mr. Pou's congratulations."

Judge Graham at once gave notice of appeal.

Judge Moore then spoke of the fact that one of the regular jurors summoned for the term had stated that he had been approached and asked to do his best for one of the defendants. The judge said that he would issue a rule for that man who had approached the juror to come in to court at half-past 9 o'clock this morning to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court.

During the recess Judge Moore was informed that one of the members of the jury that served in this case had also been requested to help out Dr. Kilgo. That juror is S. P. Marcom.

So yesterday afternoon two rules for contempt were issued by the judge, one for ex-Sheriff J. Rowan Rogers of this city and the other for J. P. Sorrell of Cedar Fork, to be in court at 9:30 this morning to show cause. It will be remembered that R. M. King was the juror who said Sheriff Rogers had tried to influence him.

Telephones On The Farm.
New York Times.

The rural telephones are making a change in farm life. A Shelby county, Kansas, farmer got into trouble in town the other day. Later he was called up over his rural telephone and informed that a warrant had been issued for him and that he might consider himself under arrest, and he was asked by the officer if he would come into town or would he have to come after him? The farmer asked the nature of the charge, and was told that it was disturbance and that the fine and costs would be $14. The farmer telephoned back that he would go to quit work, but would plead guilty and send the money by the rural carrier the next day, and he did.

Up in New York State the hired man eloped with a farmer's daughter. Before going he took the precaution to cut the rural telephone wires, so there was nothing left for the father to do but wait till the wires were repaired and telephone his blessing.

A Can of Beets Exploded.
Durham, N. C., June 15.—Late last evening Mrs. May, a widow lady living in the northern part of the city, was seriously burned in a most peculiar manner. She was cooking beets in a closed can and just as she was in the act of taking the can from the stove the accumulated steam caused the can to explode and she was badly burned about the face, chest and arms. To-day it was reported that she was resting very well. While very painful the burns are not of a fatal nature.

THE SLAIN ONES.

FLORENCE WILKINSON.

What of the gallant dead
Borne from the field?
Oh, the draped silent head,
The empty shield!

Kiss the swift moveless feet
That won their goal;
Crown the unseeing brow,
Joy to that deathless soul!

What of the gallant hearts
Slain, that live on,
Who eat their daily bread
When joy is done?

Nay, not for them the wreath,
The bugle's note;
Theirs to taste morn and night
The sword within their throat.

What of the gallant hearts
Slain, that must live?
God of the Shrouded Hands,
Shall they forgive?

BOB'S SUCCESS.

Edward Bok gets the biggest salary of any editor in this country and is married to the daughter of a multimillionaire.

A few years ago he was a poor Dutch immigrant in New York city, selling lemonade from a bucket. Then he carried a newspaper route, cleaned windows, worked in a bakery, ran errands—anything to make a living. He left school at 13 and studied stenography at night.

Young Bok began to take down the sermons of Henry Ward Beecher. Then he printed and sold them. This led in time to the publishing of the Brooklyn Magazine.

He sold the magazine and started in to learn the publishing business. He started a newspaper syndicate. Publishers kept an eye on this hard-working young man. Mr. Curtis, of Philadelphia, offered him $10,000 a year to edit one of his publications.

Seven years after he began with Curtis he married the latter's daughter.

Asked by the interviewer, who got the foregoing facts concerning the secret of his success, he answered: "Work. I worked like the devil."

Not a nice thing for the editor of a woman's paper to say?

Mr. Bok simply meant to emphasize the word work. But he added: "Work for the delight of it."

That's better.

He got into work it delighted him. He found his job for the joy set before him.

There is no finer thing in the universe than to feel you have found your place and can do something with your whole heart.

Young man:
There is no other way. First get into your right place. Then work it. Work is genius. Work is brilliancy. Work is success. Find the job you delight in, and—Work.

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.

A Young Man of Rowan County Starts on Road to Ruin.

Spencer, N. C., June 15.—H. T. Lynch, a well known young man of Rowan county, was arrested here yesterday afternoon on the charge of forgery. His most recent operations have been in floating forged checks, the name of Mr. Allen Knox, a prominent citizen of Cleveland, having been attached to two checks by the young man. One of the checks for a small amount was cashed, but suspicion was aroused when a second one with the same name for $100 was produced. The young man, who is barely out of his teens, was subsequently arrested and held for forgery. Later it was learned that he was wanted in McDowell county, the sheriff of that county wiring that he would come for the prisoner.

Arrested For Forgery.

Wilmington, N. C., June 19.—Upon his arrival in the city on the A. & Y. train W. Leigh, a young white man, was arrested by Constable W. B. Savage upon a warrant charging him with forgery, alleged to have been committed while in the employ of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, at Alhiza, near Macon, Ga. The arrest was at the instance of Mr. C. Horgan, a special agent of the Singer company. It is understood that the grand jury at Macon found a true bill against Leigh, but his arrest was not accomplished at once and he fled the State a bond of $1,000 was fixed as the amount of security for his appearance and failing to give the same, he was committed to jail last night awaiting requisition papers from Georgia.

JAPAN ON PEACE.

THE GOVERNMENT SPEAKS OF NEGOTIATIONS.

Declaring Its Readiness to Appear Plenipotentiaries to Consider Terms With Russian Representatives.

Washington, June 16.—The following is the text of the Japanese treaty on the subject of negotiations for peace:

"The imperial government have given to the suggestions of the President of the United States, embodied in the note handed to the minister for foreign affairs by the United States minister on the 9th instant, very serious consideration, to which, because of its source and its import it is justly entitled. Desiring, in the interest of the world, as well as in the interest of Japan, the re-establishment of peace with Russia on terms and conditions that will fully guarantee its stability, the imperial government will, in response to the suggestions of the President, appoint plenipotentiaries of Japan to meet the plenipotentiaries of Russia at such time and place as may be found to be mutually agreeable and convenient, for the purpose of negotiating and concluding terms of peace directly and exclusively between the two belligerent powers."

GO TO JAIL FOR 30 DAYS.

Rogers and Sorrell are Charged With Attempting to Influence Jurors—Found Guilty.

Raleigh, June 17.—In the case of J. Rowan Rogers, who is criser of the Federal court here, and J. P. Sorrell, farmer, for contempt of Superior court in seeking to influence jurors R. M. King and S. P. Marcom in favor of Kilgo and Duke in the noted libel damage case of Gattis against Kilgo, Juror King and Marcom today swore positively that Rogers and Sorrell went to their homes and asked them to do all they could for Kilgo, saying if the latter lost the case he would be ruined; to keep the matter quiet, and if there was trouble after the trial was over Kilgo and Duke would straighten the matter out.

Mr. L. P. Sorrell swore he met Rogers, and the latter said he was trying to correct sentiment against Dr. Kilgo. All the attorneys for Kilgo and Duke swore they had not employed Rogers or Sorrell and knew nothing of the matter. Dukes and Kilgo swore the same thing.

The judge fined Rogers and Sorrell each $50 and thirty days in jail, but remitted the fine and the men went immediately to jail, taking no appeal the judge saying their guilt was clear.

COLORED BAPTIST CONVENTION.

Great Meeting To Be Held In Durham Next Month.

Rev. L. T. Christmas, the noted and zealous colored Baptist divine, who is State missionary, under both the State and National boards of missions, was in the city yesterday and Sunday in the interest of the coming State colored Baptist convention to be held in Durham July 17-19.

Rev. Christmas is working along right lines for the betterment of his race, and is receiving, as he deserves, the cordial support of all right-thinking people. He is teaching his people self-reliance, industrial development and stable morality, and behind him is the largest religious organization of colored people in the world—an organization that has active workers all over North and South America, and Africa and conduct their own publishing house, printing all their own bibles, hymnals and such other literature as they may require.

Much interest, therefore attaches to the Durham convention next month. Its sessions will be held in St. John's Church, and the delegates representing a roll of more than 3,000,000 communicants will attend. A number of delegates will be present from the churches of this city. Special reduced rates will be granted by the railroads from all points over all lines.

In addition to a number of others, Dr. George W. Lee, of Washington; Dr. Bishop Johnson, of Washington; William Baker, of Tennessee, and Dr. E. W. D. Isaac, editor of the National Baptist, of Nashville, Tenn., will be some of the principal addresses. An interesting program is also prepared.

Peace Institute.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Peace Institute which appears in another column of this issue. Peace is one of our oldest and best known schools and has for years been one of the most influential in the South. The courses of instruction are modeled after those of colleges for men and careful training is given in each department. The Music and Art department together with that of Expression are under the charge of specialists and offer superior advantages and attractive course. With its cheerful home like surrounding and its high standard Peace appeals to those parents who desire the best for their children's. The number of resident students is limited to 85 and early application is necessary in order to secure a place on this list. Write President James Dinwiddie for further particulars.

STATE NEWS.

Items of Interest Clipped From our State Exchanges.

Raleigh News and Observer.—The hope of the country is in such honest men, who live by toil, as Mr. Marcom and Mr. King, who can neither be influenced nor bribed or silenced. A cause may be soberly submitted to jurors of such integrity.

Asheville Citizen.—Miss Ward's party which went out to Mount Mitchell the first of the week and camped for three days returned yesterday. The party was given in honor of Miss Ward's guests, Miss Harker of Snow Hill and Miss Fanny Moseley of Kingston.

Charlotte Observer.—The Southern Cotton Oil Company is building one of the most interesting as well as complete mattress-making plants in the country. The structure is unique in that it is to be constructed without the use of and would whatsoever and will be the most sanitary mattress factory in the United States.

Salisbury Post.—Mr. W. J. Leach left this morning for Mocksville, where tomorrow afternoon a delegation from the Salisbury councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will decorate the double grave of his son and daughter. The young man was 19 and the daughter 18 and they died of typhoid fever within a day.

Greensboro Record.—According to Mr. A. P. Eckel, who immigrated to this town seventy years ago, the removing of the Glenn drug store building leaves only one of the old stores of a generation ago standing—the Pickard store, or East Market and North Elm. There are of course some old structures left, but they are not so aged as these two.

In the case of the United States against J. B. Powell, the Norfolk man convicted at Raleigh Friday of swindling by the use of the mail, and of two other charges; namely, planning to swindle and carrying out that plan, Judge Parnell overrule a motion for a new trial and also set aside the verdict and sentenced the prisoner to two and a half years in prison.

Statesville Landmark.—Tampering with jurors is getting to be entirely too common in North Carolina. Some year ago an important murder case was tried in a nearby county and is charged and not denied that the defendant, a man of means, had through agents, canvassed the entire county, and that the sentiment of every possible juror was known. As a result, under the latitude allowed the defence in selecting acquittal.

Elizabeth City Economist.—Hon. I. M. Meekins, of this city, and W. L. Poteat, K. L. D., of Wake Forest, will leave to day enroute to Europe of which continent they will make an extended tour, the trip to last about four months. They will visit Ireland, Scotland, England, France, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Corsica, Sicily, and Egypt in which countries they will view the many places of biblical and historic fame.

Kingston Free Press.—Abner Miller, a color-d driver for Koonce & Harper's grocery, stole a ham Saturday evening and hid it away that he might carry it home when he was released from duty late at night. He was seen by another colored man going through back alleys, with the ham, and the suspicious circumstance caused the man to report the matter to Koonce & Harper who secured police and went to Miller's house and had him arrested.

Miller denied having the ham and started to come away with them, but later opened it and the party went back with him and got the ham. On recovering the ham the owners did not insist on Miller's being held and he was released, it being ascertained that his wife was critically ill and hardly expected to live. She did not die however, and is better.

WALTER LETTER.

Chronicles of a Week's Events in That Thriving Neighborhood.

ARGUS BUREAU
WALTER, N. C.
June 14, 1905.

Mrs. Jno Carroll and children from Durham were visiting at Mrs. H. T. Jones last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Aycock, from near Pinkney, spent Sunday with Mrs. Fannie Hooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swinson, from your city, were visiting in our community yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Frank Yelverton, from Fremont, was here Sunday visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Yelverton.

Miss Ophelia Carr returned home Sunday from a weeks visit to her sister Mrs. Milford Aycock near Pinkney.

Miss Annie Yelverton, from Stantonsburg, is on a visit to Miss Lizzie Beaton, to the delight of her many friends.

Miss Mamie Hooks, who has been very sick with fever at her mother's Mrs. Fannie Hooks, for several weeks, is better, we are glad to know, and hope soon to see her fully restored.

The small grain crop in our community is very poor, and the continued rains have damaged it some in the shock. Spring oats are not yet out, and some of them are so small, Toby says, they will have to be cut with the sheep shears if they are saved.

The fact that peace is being established in the far East will be a source of relief to many who have been watching proceedings, and awaiting results. Divine power must have been on the little mess side, but if the Russians had been as hard to handle on land and sea, as they are in print they soon would have annihilated the Japs.

Work on the new school building near Mrs. Fannie Hooks was begun yesterday and will be pushed rapidly to completion. Mr. Mathew Woodard of your city has the contract, who with his force, assisted by Mr. Edward Hooks, will have it ready in time for a very fall term.

A suitable man for the school is being considered, and while we are not in the district, our own private opinions is that no more appropriate name could be given than "La Fayette."

This thing of farmers trying to hire their neighbors' hands, should be stopped. There is a law to prevent such, and its efficacy should be tested. It not only makes labor dissatisfied and harder to contract for, but it causes one to come along and offer to pay higher wages, but it causes reticence among neighbors, who are commanded to "leave our neighbor." If we would take the Golden Rule from our guides, we would be saved many annoyances here, and a happier hereafter.

PINE BUFF ITEMS.

The Doings and Sayings of a Week In and Around Our Thriving Neighborhood.

Mrs. Mary H. Iland continues very ill.

Prof. Cullom was with us Saturday evening.

Our farmers were glad to see the rain this week.

Misses Lona and Maggie Edgerton have returned from a visit to Wilson.

Mr. George Sasser, of Elm City, was in our section visiting relatives Sunday.

Some of our truckers are still picking beans, though the price they realize does not pay them for their trouble.

Mrs. L. Mitchell, who has been confined to her home by illness for the past two months, is no letter we regret to note.
