GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1905. TO OUR FRIENDS.

WALL STREET TAKES A HAND

That Is The Post Mark, But The "Parties In Interest" May Be Subterfuging. The Story Runneth Thus:

It is well understood that Wall Street undertakes to run the finances of this country, but until recently it had not been understood that it undertook to instruct our people on the question whether or not bar rooms would be a good thing for Goldsboro. The mails are now flooded with circulars contained in an envelope post-marked "Wall Street Station, New York," undertaking to show that prohibition is a great failure, and citing Rev. Dr. Neah Porter, Prof. Charles Elliott Norion and Rev. Sanford H. Cobb to that effect. We do not know whether the gentlemen quoted ever said the though imputed to them, and certainly R. v. Sanford H. Cobb might have tera petter employed than in writing the silly article attributed to him; but the inquiry we wish to make most especially is why Wall Street should be spending its hard-earned dollars aiding the Liquor Dealers Association and the bar keepers in Goldsboro without reward or the hope of reward, and expressing its fear that if we quit drinking liquor we will take to eating opium, unless it may be that it is thought that the more liquor imbibed the more reckless will be the speculation in Walt Streat. Now most of the dealers in Wall street in cotton, stocks, etc., do not hesitate to give us their names, but the Wall Street gentlemen who have interested themselves in our prohibition election are too modest. There are some people who think that the Wall Street post-mark is a meredodge, and that the Liquor Dealers Association who are known to be interest d in bringing back bar rooms in the North Carolina towns are really having these misleading and untruthful circulars sent broad cast over the country.

Mr. Ed V. Donton, Secretary and Treasurer and a former bar keeper of Raleigh recently sent out some letters for the purpose of securing contributions from wholesale liquor dealers for the purpose of fighting the Dispensary in Raleigh. These letters were published in the News and relied upon to do just what it claims. Observer of Oct. 4tn, last. We quote this sentence from Mr. Denton's The complete outlit of Hyomei costs letter of Aug. 25th, 1905, which is signed by him as Secretary and Trea - $1.00, and consists of an inhaler, a urer, and approved by "S. T. Smith, L. N. Wnite, M. Woodar I and Ed. m dicine dropper, and a bottle of V. Denton, Campaiga Committee," all of whom are ex bar keepers: -"Raileigh is the pivotal point in a great battle in which the whole

State is interested, and the eyes of all liquor interests will be centered on this point until after the October election. We will do our whole duty day, and it will care the worst a majority of cases they pay for the fairly and honestly as we see it, but we must have assistance from our friends whose interests from a business point of view are equal to curs, the mucous membrane of the air pos-We know the ways but we need the means in more abundance than we

This letter apparently did not bring as much money as Mr. Denton _ In Goldsboro there are scores of dicted, we can still feel thankful thought the liquor dealers need d in their light, and he followed it up by well known people who have been that we do not live in Rooshia. the following letter:

"Office E. V. Denton, Secretary and Treasurer, Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 13, 1905.

We are in the midst of our campaign in Raieigh and are need ing fun is, and we sincerely trust that you will send us check for your contribution at once upon receipt of this.

"Raleign is the capital of the State and if the liquor men can win the fight here it will, of course, mean a great deal to the other towns in North Carolina in their fight which are now being waged. We can't make these fights without outside aid, and we feel confident that we have an excellent

"Please do not delay this matter, but let us hear from you with your contribution at once, as the same will be placed to your credit upon our ory, but no man complains of his list of those who contribute in this Campaign, and of course, we will judgment. Our pride will not sufremember our friends.

"Thanking you in advance, I am,

"Yours truly, "Ed. V. Denton,"

It may be that the money secured as the result of these letters is paying for the Wall Street literature which is being circulated; certainly nobody but one interested in the liquor business would pay the expenses of printing and mailing these circulars. We know our people will pay little attention to anonymous circulars which have the ear mark of the bar-room bor, most seriously threatens our on them. It is barely possible that Mr. Denton and his friends in addi-selves. tion to having the circulars sent to us, may send some of the money down to Goldsboro, which now seems to be the "pivotal point" in the liquor fight, for the purpo e of influencing voters. He says, "We know the into the means by which they have ways, but we need the means." We feel confident, however, that neither the Wall Street circulars "nor the ways nor means" of Mr. Ed. V. Denton, Secretary and Treasurer, will be able to drive or buy enough voters in Goldsboro to prevent the registration of a good majority against the relitself of haste and uncertanity. turn of bar-rooms to this city.

DOWNFALL OF AUTOCRACY

What an important war that in the Far East proves to have been! Its effects in Japan were less indeed than were its effects in China, in Russia and even in England. It changed, not only the Far East, but all the rest of the world.

The marvelous changes in Russia, by which autocracy is swept wholly away, sprang directly from that war. They came from its negative side, for when that war proved the rottenness and inefficiency of the autocratic system in Russia the people of that country were emboldened to strike for their just rights.

Without bloodshed they have won all they demanded, and Russia is to be fully westernized by Count Witte, who is to see that she secures parliamentary rule, a responsible ministry and all the guarantees of freedom that the Germans, even the English, have. The electorate is to be enlarged, and no law can be adopted which has not been approved by the douma. The change is radical, thorough and marvelous. There are no reservations, no qualifications. Count Witte would not accept the premiership under any halting compromise. All or nothing, was his programme. Parliamentary rule is to supplant the autocracy in December, and the long story of the Romanoffs as dictators is already ended. Count Witte is in fact the provisional ruler of the country, and he will act until the douma meets. Then the douma and he will co-operate, the Czar becoming the nation's figurehead. The programme will be carried Miss Mattie Uzzell arrived las out exactly as it has been outlined Saturday to teach the school at Ebe

The only other chance that the Romanoffs have is summed up in one man, Count Witte. His wife, nowa countess, is a Jewess, and for the first time she was recently received by the Czarina. Count Witte is now cution to Count Witte as premier, possibly the country can be induced to tolerate the Romanoffs.
