WILLIAMS IND-FATIGAB.D!

PREACHES DOCTRINE OF TARIFF FOR REVENUE ONLY.

After Two Hours of Speaking He Stops and Will Conclude His Speech To-morrow. Many Interruptions Fail to Confuse or Trip Him.

Washington, April 27.—The tariff debate which was precipitated upon the House yesterday through the speeches of Mr. Boutell (Ill.) and Mr. H-pburn (Iowa.) was further continued today by Mr. Williams (Miss.), the minority leader, who early in the day arranged to reply to them. For two hours Mr. Williams stood the fire of the Republicans, holding the attention of the members throughout his presentation of the Democratic doctrine of tariff for revenue only.

Without concluding, owing to his physical condition, Mr. Williams will finish his address to-morrow.

The House passed an emergency appropriation bill carrying $17,000 for the benefit of the sufferers at San Francisco and the employment of laborers at Mare yau yard.

During the day 315 pension bills were passed.

In the course of Mr. Williams' speech he asserted that the Republicans could not get away from the proposition that American made goods were sold cheaper in Europe than in this country, and it could never be justified no matter how specious the reasoning.

Mr. Williams, continuing, said he was a cotton planter. Mr. Boutell asked him if there was any difference in the selling price of cotton between the port of entry and Manchester, England.

"Oh, yes," he replied, "but I don't get any benefit out of it," which brought a round of applause from the Democratic side.

Mr. Boutell then called attention to an "infant" that had appeared in the ways and means committee providing for the levying of an import duty on Egyptian and other long staple cotton imported into the United States from foreign countries.

Mr. Williams said it was not a Democratic measure and he would be everlastingly opposed to it.

Mr. Boutell said it had been introduced by a well known Democrat, Mr. Clegg, of Florida, which was met with rounds of applause from the Republican side of the chamber.

This brought Mr. Clark to his feet with an explanation.

"I introduced that bill," he said, "to levy a duty on Egyptian and other long staple cotton because I am in favor of a tariff to pay the expenses of the government, but I think the duties ought to be levied mainly upon the luxuries and in such a manner as to benefit the farmers and other producers as well as the manufacturers."

A statement that was applauded to the echo by the Republicans.

The House adjourned until tomorrow.

DANGEROUS ACCIDENT.

Unmanageable Team Runs Into and Kills Young Tommy Dortch's Pet Pony.

A somewhat peculiar accident occurred on John street, last evening about 7.30 o'clock, nearly opposite Mr. Jim Howell's ice house. A team of horses, hitched to a two-horse wagon, belonging to Mr. Tom Farnior and driven by a young negro boy by the name of Robert Dye, became frightened at a shifting engine on West Centre street, and began to run. The negro boy was powerless to hold them, so they ran down Walnut and took up John street, and continued to run, the driver being unable to check them, until about forty feet beyond Mr. R. W. Woodard's store, where they collided with young Mr. Tommy Dortch, son of Mr. L. P. Dortch, who had been to the store to buy a pair of shoes, and was passing on the sidewalk at the time, driving his pony into a baggy.

The runaway team and the pony and baggy, driven by Tom Dortch came together with a terrific crash and both were brought to a sudden standstill. Young Dortch was thrown violently under the wheels, and his baggy was literally torn into fragments.

The tongue of the wagon was driven into the left shoulder of the pony, and he too was thrown to the ground. The brave little animal hastily recovered and was soon on his feet again, but a frightful stream of blood was flowing from the wound and he soon succumbed to the loss of blood and fell over dead in the street.

Young Mr. Dortch had just left home on an errand for his father and at the time he was run into by the team of frightened horses was driving leisurely along and was looking off in an opposite direction.

Several bystanders who witnessed the frightful scene and saw what was inevitable, called to the young man, to warn him of the impending danger, but he failed to hear them.

The pony, which was a beautiful little animal, was raised by Tommy from a little colt and was as gentle as a cat and a family pet, and he is very much distressed at his death.

It was indeed a miraculous escape for the young man, for many that witnessed the collision expected to find him dead, but fortunately, save the shock, he came out without a scratch, which fact is very gratifying to his many friends.

Those who witnessed the accident say that the negro did all in his power to control the horses and stuck to his post until the last, although his position, too, was very dangerous one. He was uninjured.

Will Number 277.

Washington, April 24.—The official report from General Greeley of the extent of the loss of life in San Francisco is as follows:

"Very careful investigation made by Captain Winn today limits as far as information is obtainable the entire San Francisco death list from the late disaster to two hundred and seventy-seven victims; of these about fifty unknown, gathered from various parts of the city, have been temporarily buried in Lombard and Bay streets, Washington Square and Portsmouth square. In the Valencia Hotel fourteen bodies were recovered and fifteen others are believed to have perished in the ruins."

FIRE RATES GO HIGHER.

INSURANCE PEOPLE TO RECOUP SAN FRANCISCO LOSS.

General Advance in Rates in Business Sections of American Cities is Predicted.

Chicago, April 26.—The tribune today says:

"There will be a general advance in fire insurance rates in the business centers of all cities of the United States in the near future to enable the companies to recoup in a measure their San Francisco losses. A meeting of all western managers was held in Chicago yesterday to discuss the situation. The governing committee of the Western Union, the large legislative body of the west, decided that in the face of present conditions an advance must be made, eastern officials had advised their western men to prepare for the increase and the meeting approved the plan.

Company officials meeting in the east decided that the advance should go into effect simultaneously over the country. To that end they asked the Western Union to send a committee of five to New York to attend a general meeting to determine the nature and plan of action. A similar committee will attend from the south.

President J. W. Coffey of the Western Union said that the western committee would be appointed today.

It is stated that the Western Union will see to it that the companies are charged on class that a bonus considered unprofitable and that care be taken for defects will be insisted upon emphatically.

FRISCO'S CHINATOWN.

The Earthquake and the Fire Destroyed It Root and Branch.

In the heart of Old San Francisco, covering ten contiguous blocks, stood Chinatown. The earthquake and the fire destroyed it root and branch, a few holes in the ground is all that is left to tell where the Chinese settlement once stood.

It will never stand there again, and already a syndicate of Chinese merchants are planning to build a new Chinatown on the coast near, but not in, San Francisco. The scheme is already well started, and a site will soon be purchased.

The Chinese are more stung against than sinning. They furnish no beggars, no tramps. They are industrious, prudent and temperate. The word of their merchants is as good as their bond. From the ranks of the everyday workers are drawn excellent servants, successful truck raisers, and clever fishermen. It is a race that presents in an unfavorable environment many good qualities. In the south the regret is that the exclusion law is so rigid it will not permit more to come here. If the question were submitted to southern voters the exclusion law would be largely modified. San Francisco is, however, opposed to any change, but when the new Chinatown is built without the walls, so to speak, perhaps it will be possible to get a law that is not wholly unjust to the Chinese people. No one desires to see this country flooded with Chinese, but the South would be glad to furnish employment to a considerable number of Celestials.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child awakes an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the best step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as next people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

EDWARD SEES VESUVIUS.

He Talks With the Scientists—Imprisoned on Its Slope During the Eruption.

Naples, April 30.—The weather continuing fine, King Edward said he would not leave Naples without visiting the royal observatory on Vesuvius. The Duke and Duchess of Aosta were delighted and offered to guide the King. Five automobiles were ordered to convey the royal party to Mount Vesuvius. They were met by Prof. Ors Matteucci and Perret. The King congratulated both the scientists on their work and drew from them a minute account of their experience in the days they passed as prisoners in the observatory during the recent eruption of Vesuvius, a period in which the seismologists were exposed to momentary danger of a horrible death.

Afterward the royal party ascended above the observatory through two feet of volcanic ashes, which had scarcely dried since the torrential rains of last week.

The fatigue of the walk was repaid by a view of the smoking volcano beneath which spread such destruction over the devastated plains and valleys.

The court of claims found for the Indians with interest since 1838, but held that the Indians who did not go to the territory were not entitled to participate in the award.

PASSING OF THE VETERANS.

The Old Soldiers Will Soon be But a Small Percentage of the Population.

The recent reunion at New Orleans recalls the fact that the veterans of the civil war will soon pass away. The heroic deeds they wrought will live as long as the republic does, and perhaps even longer, but in a few years the last soldier of the greatest civil struggle in the history of the world will have gone to his reward.

It is estimated that 40,000 Confederate soldiers survived the war, out of a total enrollment of 6,000,000 men. The north put 2,750,000 soldiers in the field, of whom 2,500,000 came out of the war alive. The Jacksonville Times-Union takes these figures, and by applying to them the rules of insurance it tries to construct a table of survival by ten-year periods of the veterans, as follows:

The old soldiers will soon be but a small percentage of the population, and this sad but inevitable fact should not be lost sight of.

A Wreck in Virginia.

Danville, Va., April 26.—A south-bound Southern Railroad wreck train, carrying a derrick car, was wrecked this evening near Chatham, Va., killing one and injuring two of the crew. The train was en route from the shops at Monroe to a point near Greensboro, N. C., to remove a wrecked locomotive. It was running at a high rate of speed, and the impact caused the car carrying the heavy derrick to turn over. J. T. Madison, of Charlottesville, Va., was instantly mashed to death, and E. H. Gregory and W. A. Tucker, both of Monroe, were hurt. The track was cleared at 9 o'clock to-night.

RICH INDIANS.

TRIBE IN THIS STATE TO SHARE IN $4,000,000.

Supreme Court of United States Modifies Decree of Lower Court in Cherokee Award.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—In accordance with a decision handed down in the United States supreme court today the Cherokee Indians still remaining in North Carolina, Tennessee and Alabama will participate with the tribes in Indian Territory in an award aggregating $4,000,000 found due the Cherokees by the federal government.

This case has been before the courts and congress for many years, and arose over the fact that the government, after agreeing to pay the Cherokees $5,000,000 for their lands in North Carolina under the treaty of New Echota, in 1838, withheld from them the cost of transporting the tribe to the Indian Territory amounting to more than one million dollars.

The court of claims found for the Indians with interest since 1838, but held that the Indians who did not go to the territory were not entitled to participate in the award.

Letter to E. L. Edmundson. Goldsboro.

Dear Sir: Some think we take a good deal of risk in inviting complaints of Devco lead-and-zinc—we authorize our agents to sell it under this guarantee:

"If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it."

"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense."

The following story tells how little the risk is:

J. H. Asher & Co., hardware dealers Rhinebeck, N. Y., have sold Devco from 76 to now have sold thousands of gallons and have had just one complaint in all this time.

Three sides of a house were perfect; the fourth was as bad as the three were good.

Explanation—It rained the night before the fourth side was painted; and the painters didn't wait for the wood to dry.

What is done in such a case? What ever the dealer, who sold the paint, considers it fair to do. We leave it to him. He may not do exactly what we should do if we were there; but we are not there. The best we can do is to leave it to him.

Yours truly F. W. Devco & Co. New York.

The Yelverton Hardware Co., sell our paint.

NEWS FROM WALTER.

ARGUS BUREAU WALTER, N. C. May 2, 1906.

Chronicle of a Week's Events in That Thriving Neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Aycock, from near Pinckney, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lon Dail last Sunday.

Messrs. Alden and Will Yelverton, from Fremont, were here Sunday on a visit to their father Mr. Geo. Yelverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Gady, from your city, were visitors here last Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Massey and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Massey, from Johnstown county, were visitors at Mr. W. H. Neals last Sunday.

Messrs. John Johnson and Wiley Love, from Lucama, spent Saturday night at Mr. Toby Howells, in attendance upon the Union meeting at Chapel.

Mr. N. B. Hinton, a prosperous farmer near here, who is very much interested in stock, has a breed mare which gave birth to twin male colts last Thursday night.

The milk of human kindness is all right so far as it goes, but we find that when the cold cash is necessary to keep buckle and tongue together, the cream is so thin that it would require the skinning of an ape to produce financial fat globules sufficient for a very small churning.

The barn on the farm of Mr. Billy Ezzell, near Mr. R. L. Hooks, was discovered to be on fire last Tuesday night shortly after dark, and was entirely consumed, together with a large amount of feed stuff and five tons of fertilizer, belonging to Mr. Person, who had the place rented. The origin of the fire is unknown.

An ebony hued youth hailed us as we were on our regular round and inquired if we wanted to purchase some very fine pills for which he was agent. We asked what they were good for, and were informed that they were specific for "billunes," newwom, neuralgia, brown cresters, and sich."

We told him we would take one and try it, if he would guarantee it to cure any thing from an acute attack of that tired feeling to a crop of bunions, to dissipate the lassitude of a weary, and over exerted condition of the gray matter, and stimulate renewed energy in a relaxed condition of the muscular system, and impart new vigor to the gastric functions causing a complete restoration of the normal supply of gastric juices and in supplying this deficiency promote a proper assimilation of the requirements necessary and conducive to health and happiness.

We stared at us with eyes and mouth open, and replied, "I don't know as how dry will do all that, but they are mighty good pills, I've tried 'em."

We took his word for it, and assured him our stock of pills was sufficiently replenished to meet present demands, and continued our journey, leaving him with a disappointed and far away look.

13 Scrofulous Lumps

Inherited Disease—Eyes Affected—Weak, Could Hardly Walk—Life of Suffering.

Still Another Great Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla

The following letter is from Mr. Geo. A. Zirkle, School Teacher in Mt. Horeb, Tenn., well-known all through that county, where he was born and has always lived. "Mt. Horeb, Tenn., Jan. 10, 1906. "C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass. "I have suffered all my life, until lately, from inherited scrofula. When a mere babe I had a scrofulous sore back of my ear. At 21 I had 13 scrofulous lumps on my neck. At 27 the disease assumed a new and tantalizing form. My eyes were affected so that I could not read after sunset, and when I closed them it was difficult to reopen them. There was always intolerable itching all over my body. Then a tumor on my neck changed to the front of my neck, suppurated and was followed by others, until six had formed and broken. I became so weak I could scarcely walk, and could hardly attend to my teaching. All the medicine I tried failed to help until I began the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In less than three months the sores healed, a troublesome catarrhal taint disappeared and the scrofulous habit steadily grew less apparent. Today I am in the best of health, weigh more than ever in my life. Do you wonder that I believe in Hood's Sarsaparilla? I can do no less than recommend it everywhere and every day."

RHEUMATISM TROUBLESOME PAINS AND ACES

While Rheumatism is usually worse in Winter because of the cold and dampness of a changing atmosphere, it is by no means a Winter disease entirely. Persons in whose blood the uric acid, which produces the disease, has collected, feel its troublesome pains and aches all the year round. The cause of Rheumatism is a sour acid condition of the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter, which the natural action of healthy waste have failed to carry off. This refuse matter coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. Rheumatic persons are almost constant sufferers; the nagging pains in joints and muscles, are ever present under the most favorable climatic conditions, while exposure to dampness or an attack of indigestion will often bring on the severer symptoms even in warm, pleasant weather. Liniments, plasters, lotions, etc., relieve the pain and give the sufferer temporary comfort, but are in no sense curative; because Rheumatism is not a disease that can be rubbed away or drawn out with a plaster. S. S. S. is the best treatment for Rheumatism; it goes down into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, and by neutralizing the acid and driving it out, and building up the thin, sour blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, S. S. S. will not injure the system in the least. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

9 Foot Cotton Stalks in Virginia

Among the many strong evidences of the great value of "Cereafite" we cut the following from the "Graphic" the local paper of Franklin, Va. The only other Fertilizer used under the cotton was "Home Fertilizer."

From the Franklin, Va., "Graphic."

"Mr. Albert Sidney Johnson, who is not only a good peanut buyer, but an expert farmer, for this latter fact is fully demonstrated by an exhibition of his cotton crop at 'The Graphic Office' this week. There were two stalks, one 9 ft. high with 60 bolls, and the other 5 feet 10 inches with 126 bolls, many additional blooms on either stalk. Who can beat this? The fertilizer used was 'Cereafite Top-Dressing,' one bag, 167 lbs to the acre."
