FINLEY ASKS SOUTH TO AID, AS WE GO ALONG.

Appeals to Southerners to Stand by Transportation Companies.

New Orleans, March 15.—An appeal to all southerners to stand by the railroads for the sake of the development of the south, was made to-night by W. W. Finley, president of the Southern railway, at a business banquet tendered him here. He says: "The railways of the south are to be brought up to the standard required by the expanding business of southern communities the people of the south must be actuated by the same spirit of cooperation they showed in the early days of railway building, when communities vied with each other in offering inducements for construction. The day for governmental and municipal financial aid for railway lines has passed, and the many millions of dollars that will be required for additional track capacity and terminal facilities must be obtained from private investors. "The great part of the money must be borrowed. "Identified during most of my business career with the railways of the south, I know the resources of its railways will be taxed to the utmost to provide the additional facilities that will be required. The provision of these facilities at the earliest possible date is of incalculably more importance to the south than any possible rate reduction, or any proposition to penalize roads for failure to perform services which are beyond their present capacity. "I believe that it is to the interest of the railways and the people that a spirit of harmony and just dealing be fostered."

Snap-Shots, Witty, Wise and Otherwise.

If a man has one enemy he has enough. If you won't think about it you won't grow old. If you can't make millions you can make friends. Poverty has taken many a hard fall out of ambition. Dowie found his Waterloo in Madison Square Garden. Hope is a good germicide for the microbe of despair. A man can brag even about how loud his baby can cry. Some think Dowie's epitaph should be, "It didn't pay." An easy mark by any other name would be just as foolish. The pretty girl in business is bound to succeed or get married. Too often when trouble comes he finds the door of your heart open. The worst thing about honesty is the way you can't get rich by it. Reports from all parts of the country indicate that the sap is rising. Women learn more as they grow older; it's different with men. It is more glorious to win a battle in the last ditch than in the first. You can't twist and quibble over the unwritten law—it is too elusive. The pictures of Archie Roosevelt really make the boy appear worse than he is. The greatest comfort in being poor is the thought that some day you may be rich. Uncle Joe Cannon has gone to Panama to find out why more canal digging is not going on. "Eat what your appetite craves," says a doctor who probably always has the price with him. A man who leads a double life seems to be ever ready to shuffle them both off by the suicide route. A brother of Bill Nye will be a member of the next Congress, but there are jokes enough in Congress now. A man has entered a suit for $30,000,000 against the sugar trust. If he gets it—it will be in the sweet by and by. "What is a man worth?" asks exchange. That depends some upon whether he is just going in or coming out. "Let your thoughts turn waistward," says an advertiser of women's wear. What is one going to do with his arm?

Dear Sirs: Every job Devoe is done with less gallons than ever before with any other paint. S. J. Field, Indianola, Fla., says: "All houses here are painted Devoe. The hot air is too trying for other paints. One coat Devoe is better than two of any other paint, so far as we know." Less gallons, less cost. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO. P. HONOR FOR A COLORED YOUTH.

Wins Rhodes Scholarship in Field of Fifty.

First Member of His Race to be Chosen from America will Finish Harvard Law Course in Three Years.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 12.—The Rhodes scholarship of the State of Pennsylvania has this year been awarded to a colored man. He is Alain Le Roy Locke, 712 South Twelfth St., this city, a senior at Harvard University.

In the provisions of the will of the late Cecil Rhodes it is stated that color or religion shall make no difference in the selection of the candidate, and Locke was chosen on his merits. There were five who passed the examinations which were held at Lafayette College on the 17th and 18th of January, and of these Locke was deemed the best fitted to receive the award.

The scholarship provides for a three years course at Oxford University, $1,500 a year being its value.

Locke will be the first colored man to receive one of the American Rhodes scholarships. The new Rhodes scholar is 21 years old. He was born in this city and was educated here. He entered Harvard University in the fall of 1904. From Harvard he will be graduated next June, after having completed the regular four years course in three years.

The qualifying examinations were taken by some fifty candidates. To be eligible for the examinations the candidates are required to have reached, before going into residence, at least the end of their sophomore year at a recognized degree granting university or college.

The examinations are a severe test, the candidate's knowledge of arithmetic, algebra, geometry, Greek and Latin being learned. Five of the candidates passed the last examination.

From these five it was for the selection committee to decide who should receive the scholarship. The candidates appeared before the committee and their personal qualifications were inquired into. Character and manliness are as important qualifications as scholarship, and a preference is given to those who are popular with their fellow-students and have taken an active part in athletic sports.

It was the decision of the committee that Locke was the best fitted to receive the scholarship. The committee is composed of Charles C. Harrison, L. L. D. chairman, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia; the Rev. James D. Moffat, D. D., Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa.; Robert McWatty Russell, D. D., L. L. D., Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa.; Joseph Swain, L. L. D., Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa., and John A. W. Haas, D. D., Muhlenberg College, Allentown, Pa.

HURTING LABOR AS WELL

Confidence in all Forms of Business Investments Being Undetermined.

Atlanta, Ga., March 14.—Before adjourning its annual convention today, the Southern Ice Exchange adopted resolutions viewing "with great alarm the action of, national, state and municipal governments in present aggressive movements against all invested wealth in general, and corporations and transportation interests in particular."

The resolutions declared that legislative shortening of hours of labor, the interference against the employer in behalf of the employe by legislative action and the attempt to interfere with all kinds of business through the law, are undermining confidence in business investments and depreciating the quality and the Standard of labor and labor's product. It directed that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to President Roosevelt. Buy a home with rent money. See Graves J. Smith, Secretary and Treasurer Goldsboro Building and Loan Association.

DATE IS CALLED OFF.

No Railroad Conference at White House.

Four Magnates Confer and Decide Not to Act on the Engagement Made for Them by Pierpont Morgan.

New York, March 15.—Messrs. McCrea, Mellen, Hughitt and Newman, the railroad presidents for whose visit to the White House J. Pierpont Morgan arranged before his departure for Europe, held a conference at the Grand Central station in this city today. The whole situation was canvassed with great care and it was finally decided not to go to Washington.

It is understood that the reason for this conclusion was that the four gentlemen involved did not feel that they had any proper mandate from the railroad corporation to represent them. They felt that they could not assume the position of a self-constituted commission to formulate or present the views of the hundreds of railroad companies which in turn are owned by millions of shareholders. They recognized that the railway managers of United States are not themselves in perfect accord, and that until some method could be adopted for securing a consensus of opinion, a visit to the President would be idle.

At the conclusion of the conference the various presidents left for their homes.

E. H. Harriman will leave this city tomorrow for Virginia to join his family at one of the resorts of that state. Mr. Harriman in making the announcement of his intention of taking the trip said that he did not intend to stop at Washington either on his way South or on his return. Regarding the Wall street rumors that the control of Union Pacific had passed from his hands during the recent violent slump in the stock market. Mr. Harriman said that the report was quite incorrect.

WILL NOT RUN AGAIN.

Dr. Butler, President of Columbia Declares That Roosevelt's Principles Will Govern Party.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 13.—In an interview here, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, said:

"President Roosevelt will not run for president again, no matter what pressure is brought to bear upon him. The principles which Roosevelt stands for are greater than the man. The Republican party must support these principles no matter who its standard-bearer may be at the next election. With Mr. Root as President and Mr. Taft chief justice of the Supreme Court, conditions would be pretty nearly ideal. But I hardly look for such a combination to succeed."

HOW MANY ARE DEAD?

The Roll of the Battleship Jena is Called.

Toulon, March 13.—Minister of Marine Thompson arrived here this morning. The roll of the battleship Jena, on which the explosion occurred yesterday was called; 407 men replied to their names. Twenty-four officers and the engineers are also reported safe, and there are 44 members of the crew lying in hospitals seriously injured.

As the officers and crew numbered 630 it will thus be seen that 155 are not accounted for, but the naval authorities consider it probable that a large number of these have sought refuge in Toulon.

WORST SLUMP

IN MANY YEARS.

Due to Despondency Over Anticorporation Law.

Liquidation Witnessed Yesterday Has Not Been Equalled Since February, 1901.

New York, March 14.—Liquidation was of a volume and character today such as has not been witnessed on the stock exchange since February 9, 1901, when the development of a corner in Northern Pacific precipitated one of the severest short panics ever seen in the New York market.

The extreme violence of the declines on that occasion was due to the fact that it broke in abruptly upon a period of boom and rising prices. Today's demonstration was radically different, in that it succeeded a prolonged period of liquidation and severe declines in prices.

Not only had much been accomplished towards the necessary liquidation before the present break, but the action of the market had begun to reflect a return of confidence early this week, and a general conviction had grown up that the worst was over.

The sudden outbreak of renewed weakness today owed most of its violence to the feeling of despondency in speculative circles regarding the effects of public agitation against corporations and the nearly universal trend of legislative measures against them. The speculative circles are not disposed to rely on their own information and deductions as to the extent and the significance of these developments.

The extreme sensitiveness of sentiment on the subject is founded on suppositions of what the great authorities in the railroad and financial world think on the subject. The recent events have created the impression that these authorities are in a condition of keen anxiety and even of fright about the prospect they have to face in this matter. Some of the steps taken with the intention of allaying apprehension on the subject seem to have been principally instrumental in aggravating it. This was notably true of the visit to Washington early in the week of J. P. Morgan with the avowed purpose of acting as mediator between the President and the railroad companies in an effort to induce the President to take some step to allay public apprehension regarding the credit of railroad companies.

THE COAST GUARD.

War Department Sends Letter of Seaboard Governments.

Washington, March 14.—Letters were sent today by Assistant Secretary Oliver of the War Department, to the governors of all seaboard states asking their co-operation in the development of the War Department's plan for the training of a coast guard through the operation of the organized militia in connection with the regulars assigned to coast artillery service.

The letters were accompanied by circulars prepared by the chief of artillery setting forth his statement to set aside a portion of the State troops in all the coast States for artillery service, the State troops to have each year from seven to ten days training at an artillery post under the direction of the regulars. The chief of artillery also suggests designation of certain State troops to protect the land side of the coast artillery posts which plan entails no additional expenses on the States.
