CAPT. J. W. LAMB DEAD.

nesday Night.

The death of Capt. Junius Washington Lamb occurred at his home in this city Wednesday evening about 7:30 o'clock, having been confined to his bed only since Monday, although he had been in feeble health for many months, and his death, therefore, was not a surprise to his family, as his physicians had forewarned them that the end was liable to come at any moment.

Capt. Lamb was born on the farm in Duplin county on February 27, 1850, and was therefore in the 57th year of his age. He moved to this city from Wilmington some 25 years ago and engaged in the livery and stock business, in which he had been almost continuously engaged ever since until a few years ago, when he sold out to Mr. Jno. M. Grantham, and engaged in the harness business. Recently he became a partner in the Fonveille-Lamb Grocery Company, to which he gave his attention until he took his bed Monday.

Capt. Lamb had an army of friends with whom he was very popular, and for years he has been a member of the Board of City Aldermen.

He is survived by his devoted wife, who was Miss Ella Jones, of Wilmington, two daughters Misses Annie and Fannie Jones Lamb, one sister, Mrs. T. J. Southerland, and three brothers, Messrs. John, Henry and Roscoe Lamb, a wide circle of relatives and many friends.

The remains will be taken to Wilmington on the early train in the morning for interment in the family plot in all felt, or at least said so. Nobody exthe cemetery of that city beside the remains of his young son, the late lamented Richard, and in consequence the funeral service will be held at the home here, on John street, this evening at 9 o'clock, conducted by Revs. F. W. Farries, of the Presbyterian church and E. H. Davis, of St. Paul M. E.

In addition to the family and other relatives and friends from this city, the Turn Over $175,000 of Money Earnremains will be accompanied to Wilmington by the following pall bearers, representing the several fraternal organizations of this city of which he was a member: Messrs. But I do not see that this will have any effect upon the bills to publish all the financial transactions of the campaign committees, or the bills to prohibit the contributions of corporations. Everybody has known all along that Judge Parker's charges were true. The whole country knew last year just what these letters just published reveal, that the corporations financed Roosevelt's campaign, and the country knows that these corporations do not make contributions for nothing. They expected something from the administration in return. Why when the Tillman resolution for a investigation came up before the elections committee of the Senate the Republicans admitted it. What's the use of investigating a thing which everybody knows about?' some one said. And that is the way they cept the President, has seriously denied that the corporations contributed this money, and, of course, nobody except a fool would say they contributed it without a consideration."

Poet Laureate's 70th Birthday.

London, April 5:--- Algernon Charles Swinburne, England's poet laureate. was seventy years old today. Though he has been writing for upwards of forty years his poetic gifts were not generally recognized until a much later date. His first literary efforts, in fact, fell very flat. His radical opinions militated for a long time against his success in the higher circles of society, but his undeniable genius finally won over all obstables. For a quarter of a century the poet has lived quietly at The Pines, on the edge of Wimbledon Common, where his slight figure has long been familiar to those who dwell in the neighborhood. Zealous admirers of Mr. Swinburne's poetry are to be seen daily wandering about the common in the hope of getting a glimpse of the writer who by general consent is the chief living representative of English

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way. The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

SKIN SOFT AS A BABY'S AND WITHOUT A SCAR

"I have a cousin in Rockingham Co. who once had a skin disease from her birth until she was six years of age. Her father had spent a fortune on her to get her cured and none of the treatments did her any good. Old Dr. Gsuggested that he try the Cuticura Remedies which he did. When he commenced to use it the child was almost in a solid scab. He had used it about two months and the child was well. I was there when they commenced to use your Cuticura Remedies. I stayed that week and then returned home and stayed two weeks and then went back and stayed with them two weeks longer and when I went home I could hardly believe she was the same child. Her skin was as soft as a baby's without a scar on it. I have not seen her in seventeen years but have not seen her in seventeen years but I have heard from her and the last time I heard from her she was well. That is where I became acquainted with Cuticura. I hope this may be of some service to you in the future. Mrs. W. P. Ingle, Burlington, N. C., June 16, 1905."
