FATED LAUNCH FOUND.

Several Bodies Found, But on Account of Confined Space, Their Number Could Not Be Counted.

Newport News, Va., June 15.—With canopy frame crushed, but canvass still tightly fastened down the missing launch of the battleship Minnesota was located in 27 feet of water, about 1,400 yards west by south of Fort Wool yesterday afternoon. Across the little craft was a tall-tale piece of towing line serving to convince the naval officers that they are right in their theory that the launch was run down by a float of some kind in tow of a tug. The diver who went down to examine the launch, reported that the heads and arms of three men were protruding from beneath the canvas covering; the men having made a desperate fight for life when they were carried down like rats in a trap.

It will be hours before the launch can be raised and at the present time no one knows how many bodies will be found. It is believed that certainly nine of the bodies will be under the canopy, but the fact that uniform capes of Midshipmen Ulrich and Stevenson were picked up in the roads indicates that these two must have succeeded in getting free from the boat before they were drowned.

BIDS FOR BATTLESHIPS.

Washington, D. C., June 17.—It is expected that some time this week bids for the Delaware and Utah, the two 20,000 ton battleships which were authorized by the last session of Congress, will be opened at the navy department. Both vessels when completed will exceed the English battleship Dreadnought in power and strength.

It is expected that at least five contractors will put in bids for the construction of these two vessels. They are the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, Cramps of Philadelphia, the Bath, Me. Iron Works, and the New York Shipbuilding Company, Camden, N. J. It is not expected that the government will construct either of the vessels.

THE ROW AND CASE.

It Is Assuming Sensational Character.

There May Have Been Conspiracy and Deadly Doings, After All.

Many Witnesses on Hand.

Special to THE ARGUS.

Raleigh, N. C., June 17.—The hearing in the Rowland case began at 12:30. After a warm argument by Lawyer Holding for the prisoner, demanding his release, Justice Separk, who is both coroner and committing magistrate, ruled that he would first hold coroner's inquest. If the inquest developed that Strange died by foul means or the evidence pointed to others as implicated therein, he would issue warrants accordingly for any or all persons according to law.

After Chemist Syme had testified to his failure to find any poison, Engineer Michael Tighe was sworn. He testified he had seen Dr. Rowland and the present Mrs. Rowland (while she was yet the wife of Engineer Strange) in each other's company on the streets as far back as last March and that he had seen her go to Rowland's office at 7 o'clock one evening.

This evidence is considered important, because it has been claimed that Dr. and Mrs. Rowland had not been acquainted until the day he was called in to attend Strange the day he died. Strange died in April.

Mrs. Rowland, beautiful and pale, and her sister were present when argument opened and before the investigation under evidence began.

Evidence is still being taken at four o'clock, and there are thirty-eight witnesses present to be examined. The coroner's investigation will, therefore, consume all the evening, and in all probability may not be concluded today.

GIFT TO BATTLESHIP KANSAS.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 17.—At the League Island navy yard today the battleship Kansas, one of the most recent additions to the American navy, was presented with a handsome silver service, a gift from the state after which the warship was named. The presentation was accompanied by the usual speeches and ceremonies. The State of Kansas was represented by a distinguished party headed by Governor Hoch and including Secretary of State Denton, State Auditor Nation, State Treasurer Tully, Attorney General Jackson and Adjutant General Hughes. The state officials were accompanied by their wives.

The silver service is one of the finest ever given to an American warship. The service is of beautiful creation and design, its massiveness being enhanced by its simplicity. Each piece is decorated with the state seal and other appropriate emblems. In addition to the silver service, the Kansas party presented to the ship a set of handsome flags donated by the Kansas branch of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

WE GO FORWARD.

Wayne County Gets Five Thousand for High Schools.

Special to THE ARGUS.

Raleigh, June 17.—The State Board of Education made loans today of State funds aggregating twenty-five thousand dollars, for new school houses and equipment.

Various counties, including five thousand dollars to Wayne county for high schools, were generously aided by the Board from the special appropriation.

DELEGATES LEAVE FOR THE HAGUE.

(By Special Wire to the Argus.)

London, June 18.—The most of the British and American delegates to the International Peace Conference left for The Hague today. The conference is to begin its sessions day after tomorrow.

MARCUM'S ALLEGED ASSASSIN.

Special Term of Court Convened Today To Try Him a Second Time.

Special to THE ARGUS.

Beattyville, Ky., June 17.—A special term of the Lee Circuit Court convened here today for the second trial of B. Fulton French, one of the Breathitt county feud leaders charged with the assassination of James B. Marcum.

The assassination of Marcum occurred May 4, 1903. He was killed as he stood at the court house door in Jackson. Judge James Hargis, the Breathitt county feud leader, and Sheriff Edd Callahan, of the same county, were accused of employing Curt Jett and Tom White to do the killing. Jett was sentenced to hang and White was given a life term in the penitentiary.

A year ago Jett confessed, saying he had killed Marcum at the behest of Hargis and Callahan. He said White had nothing to do with it. Later, however, Jett was put on the witness stand, and he then repudiated in full his confession, saying he had been forced to make it by the attorneys for the prosecution.

Judge Hargis and Callahan were acquitted, while Mrs. Marcum, widow of the murdered man, swore vengeance. Later Curt Jett was given a life sentence for the assassination of James Cookrill, and upon a reversal of his death sentence for killing Marcum was given a life sentence for that murder also.

Fulton French, John Smith and John Abner were charged with complicity in the assassination of Marcum, and tried here last summer on a charge of vent from Breathitt county. The jury stood eight for hanging and four for acquittal. They could not agree and were discharged. French, the man who is now to be tried the second time, is the former leader of his faction in the French-Eversole feud war in Perry county, in which nearly one hundred people were killed. French is said to be personally responsible for the deaths of more than thirty of these men. He is now a lawyer and lives at Winchester with his family.

A DOUBLE MURDERER.

Fatal Family Rows Near Salisbury.

The Man who Shot His own Father Now the Murderer of his Brother-in-Law.

(Special to THE ARGUS.)

Salisbury, June 17.—Strenuous efforts were made all through last night to effect the capture of James Ashby, who yesterday, near Kannapolis, just over the Cabarrus county line, shot and killed Daniel Overcash, his brother-in-law, a well known and prosperous citizen.

The trouble grew out of a family dispute. This same Ashby shot and killed, with the same gun, his own father two years ago, also in a family row.

At this hour he has not been captured. The shooting yesterday was done from ambush.

LIFE.

The poet's exclamation: "O Life! I feel thee bounding in my veins," is a joyous one. Persons that can rarely or never make it, in honesty to themselves, are among the most unfortunate. They do not live, but exist; for to live implies more than to be. To live is to be well and strong—to arise feeling equal to the ordinary duties of the day, and to retire not overcome by them—to feel life bounding in the veins. A medicine that has made thousands of people, men and women, well and strong, has accomplished a great work, bestowing the richest blessings, and that medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. The weak, run-down, or debilitated, from any cause, should not fail to take it. It builds up the whole system, changes existence into life, and makes life more abounding. We are glad to say these words in its favor to the readers of our columns.

THREATENED UPRISING.

The Government of Poland May Be Wrested From The Czar.

(By special wire to THE ARGUS.)

St. Petersburg, June 17.—The Czar has assembled fifty thousand troops at Warsaw because of the threatened revolt against the government in Poland.

Today the police are searching all houses indiscriminately. The dissolution of Russian douma and the promulgation of the new franchise edict has practically disfranchised the masses, who in consequence are threatening an uprising and revolution, which if it is not speedily and promptly checked will be as an irresistible avalanche.

St. Petersburg, June 17.—The spark of revolution has struck fire.—Seamen of the Black Sea fleet of the Russian navy, as soon as they heard of the dissolution of the douma, mutinied. They openly defied the naval officers, and today seven hundred of the sailors were thrown into irons. This act being done promptly, prevented, temporarily at least, the seizure of the warships by the mutineers.

Great masses of troops today are policing the streets of St. Petersburg, Vienna, June 17.—The entire Black Sea squadron has been put out of commission and seven hundred sailors thrown in prison. Royal troops are being rushed to Odessa.

A PERTINENT ENQUIRY.

A Suggestion That Should Not Pass the Aldermen Without Favorable Action.

Editor ARGUS:

I note in the printed proceedings of the Board of Aldermen that mention is made of contemplated changes in some of the Ordinance now in force, and while it may and doubtless will be well to do something along that line, it would also be well to enact some rules and regulations regarding hacks and drays. How much longer are we to submit to the conditions as they now are and have been for the past several years? Poor, scantily fed, blind, broken down horses and rickety old worn out hacks and drays. If the Aldermen have the authority under the law, some regulation should be adopted requiring a lineup at least once in every three months, and often if necessary, for inspection, the inspectors to have power to condemn either horses or vehicles or both. Something ought to be done, and now is the time to do it.

Respectfully,
CITIZEN.

THAT HIGH SCHOOL.

The Isler Lot Is The Ideal Location.

Editor ARGUS:

I see in your paper yesterday that the Board of Trustees of the Public Schools will meet next week to settle the question of a site for the High School.

Let me add my endorsement to the several correspondents in your paper advocating the Isler property. This site is ideal. It is high, spacious, centrally located, yet so admirably provisioned by nature that it furnishes just the retirement essential for study—remote enough to permit of no passing distractions to the pupils.

The elevation, too, is such as to permit of a basement to the building for furnace and other things, such as storage room for coal, etc., without possibility of dampness. The price, too, is certainly reasonable.

In building for all time the Board should act wisely.

The people will endorse the selection of the Isler property.

Tay Payer.

TOCACCO CROP.

Durham, June 17.—The outlook for the tobacco crop in this section is poor.

An average crop in acreage was planted, but the weather has been so cool plants could not mature, and the crop, in consequence, will hardly average 75 per-centage.

Love in cottage would be a dream indeed if the bill collector did never come around.

T. P. A. MEETS AT NORFOLK.

More Than 400 Delegates Representing 32 States Are in Attendance.

(By special wire to THE ARGUS.)

Norfolk, Va., June 17.—More than 400 delegates representing 32 States were present this morning at the opening of the annual national convention of the Travelers' Protective Association of America. In addition to the regular delegates many other members of the organization are in attendance.

The proceedings were opened at 10 o'clock this morning with an offering of prayer by the national chaplain, Rev. Homer T. W. Wilson, of San Antonio, Texas. Governor Swanson welcomed the visitors in behalf of the State and Mayor Riddick spoke for the City of Norfolk. The response was by the national president, Thad H. Howe, of Chicago. Committees were appointed and a recess was then taken for luncheon.

The business sessions began this afternoon and probably will continue until Friday or Saturday. The annual memorial exercises will be heard Friday. Between sessions the visitors will view sights of the Exposition and take part in other entertainment arranged in their honor. A large and enthusiastic delegation is here from Wisconsin with an invitation to hold the convention next year in Milwaukee.

CIGARETTES AND BUSINESS.

How Cigarettes Destroy a Young Man's Chance.

Raleigh News & Observer:

Mr. John Murphy, superintendent of the Pittsburg Railway Company, has issued an order forbidding employees using cigarettes. He is the head of a company that hauls over two hundred and twenty-five million people per year, and he says his duty to protect them impelled him to issue the order. He says that his own observation and that of his twelve superintendents is that "persons addicted to the use of cigarettes, especially young men, are the most careless in their duties and less able to perform them than men using liquor in moderation." And he adds this remarkable statement, which we wish could be read by ambitious youth in North Carolina:

"I may also mention that in seventeen years' experience as manager of public utility corporations I have had occasion to promote many of our men from the rank of conductors and motormen to officers, and in no case has a man using whiskey come up to the requirements."

There are young men who use cigarettes wondering why their services are not demanded. The above statement from a practical railroad man answers the question. He is no preacher or sentimentalist, but a hard-headed man who gives his life to railroad work, and his views are based upon long experience. The truth is that, other things being half way equal, a business man prefers a young man not afflicted with the cigarette habit. Of course there are capable and honorable men who smoke cigarettes, but the average man is seriously injured by it and the more than average man will after awhile feel the bad effects it keeps up the use of cigarettes.

The only safe thing for a young man is to shun cigarettes as he would coffin racks.

THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The Isler Property is the Place for the Present and the Future.

Editor ARGUS:

The Board of Trustees meet, I see, tomorrow to decide upon the site for the High School.

Let me through your columns, add my current endorsement of the Isler property as the most suitable location for the school. In fact, no other available site is comparable to it.

SKIN TORTURES AFFLICT CHILDREN

Obstinate Case of Eczema Covered Little Girl's Limbs with Running Sores—Poison Oak Made Boy's Hands and Arms a Mass of Torturing Sores—Sufferers Soon Relieved and Completely Cured—Grateful Mother Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES A HOUSEHOLD STANDBY"

"Last year, after having my little girl treated by a very prominent physician for an obstinate case of eczema, I resorted to the Cuticura Remedies, and was so well pleased with the almost instantaneous relief afforded that we discarded the physician's prescription and relied entirely on the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. When we commenced with the Cuticura Remedies her feet and limbs were covered with running sores. In about six weeks we had her completely well, and there has been no recurrence of the trouble.

"In July of this year a little boy in our family poisoned his hands and arms with poison oak, and in twenty-four hours his hands and arms were a mass of torturing sores. We used only the Cuticura Remedies, washing his hands and arms with the Cuticura Soap, and anointing them with the Cuticura Ointment, and then gave him the Cuticura Resolvent. In about three weeks his hands and arms healed up. So we have lots of cases for feeling grateful for the Cuticura Remedies. We find that the Cuticura Remedies are a valuable household standby, living as we do twelve miles from a doctor. Mrs. Lizzie Vincent Thomas, Fairmount, Walden's Ridge, Tenn., Oct. 13, 1905."

LET MOTHERS KNOW

That a warm bath with Cuticura Soap and a single anointing with Cuticura, the great Skin Cure, and purest and sweetest of emollients, will afford instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired and worn-out mothers.
