

NEWPORT READY TO RECEIVE PRINCE.

Will Arrive Tomorrow on the Cruiser Fylgia.

From Mrs. Fish's Dinner He Will Go to a Ball to Be Given in His Honor by Mrs. E. J. Berwind at Her Villa, The Elms.

(By special wire to THE ARGUS.)

Newport, R. I., Aug. 21.—Newport society is all agog in anticipation of the visit of Prince Wilhelm, of Sweden. Preparations for the reception and entertainment of the distinguished visitor are complete. The Prince will arrive tomorrow on the cruiser Fylgia and his visit will extend over four days.

The Prince will be entertained tomorrow night by Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish at Crossways, at a dinner, where a large number of the Newport summer residents will have an opportunity to meet him. From Mrs. Fish's dinner he will go to a ball to be given in his honor by Mrs. E. J. Berwind at her villa, The Elms.

Friday will be devoted to sightseeing about the city, with a visit to the Casino, Golf Club and other social organizations. In the evening Mrs. Ogdon Mills will give a dinner in his honor.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Richard Gambrill will give a garden party at her Bellevue avenue residence. In the evening the Prince will return the courtesies by a dinner to some of his friends on board the Fylgia, where, later, a larger number will be invited to a dance. On Sunday, the final day of his stay here, Mrs. Fish will give a farewell luncheon to the Prince at The Crossways. Later in the day the Fylgia will sail for Boston.

TEXAS CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Bowie Is Giving a Hearty Welcome to the Visitors.

Special to the ARGUS.

Bowie, Texas, Aug. 21.—This town is alive with Confederate veterans, sons of Confederate veterans, daughters of the Confederacy and other visitors, come to attend the annual State reunion of the veterans.

With the inspiring tune of "Dixie" played by a number of bands, and with the Stars and Bars floating in the breeze from almost every structure in the business section, Bowie is giving a hearty welcome to the visitors.

Appearances indicate that the reunion, which will last until the end of the week, will be the most enthusiastic gathering of the veterans of the Lost Cause ever held in Texas.

Major-General K. M. Van Zandt, of Fort Worth, commander of the Texas division, is one of the central figures among the visitors. Governor Campbell and Senator Bailey are among the scheduled speakers.

KILL THE GERMS.

That's the Only Way to Cure Dandruff—and Parisian Sage is the Only Killer.

"Parisian Sage," said a New York barber "will kill the destructive and persistent germs of dandruff and a rash disease. There may be other remedies that will do the same, but I never heard of one."

And just read what one of the foremost barbers of Springfield, Mass., says of Parisian Sage.

"Dear Sirs: I used your Parisian Sage and found it better than any other. It is the best Hair Restorer I ever used, and I have used them all I find it a great Dandruff remover also. You should get it into all the Barber Shops and get the barbers to use it as it is great. I remain, Yours truly, Geo. A. Stiltz, 73 1-2 Main street, Springfield, Mass.

Parisian Sage soaks into the scalp and when it reaches the roots of the hair it not only kills every dandruff germ, but it supplies the hair with just the right kind of nourishment to put vigor and strength into it and make it grow.

Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world; use it one week and you will never give it up.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by J. H. Hill & Son to stop falling hair; to cure dandruff; to darken gray and faded hair; to cure itching of the scalp or money back. Price 50 cents a bottle at J. H. Hill & Son or by mail, charges prepaid from Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

PRAYER AND ITS FRUITS.

(BY C. A. COX.)

When God made man, he made him a free, moral agent. Had He not done so, there would not have been any way for man to have shown his superiority, or God to have shown His superiority.

Man was made a dependent being; a being capable of realizing his weakness and unworthiness. Too many times we are inclined to forget our duty to our Creator, but we, sooner or later, have a consciousness of the fact that we have disobeyed. Then it is we are anxious to entreat our Maker for that consolation which comes only when we pray.

Those who have failed to put themselves in the attitude of prayer have failed, also, to have that sweet peace and comfort which belongs to every prayerful servant of the Lord. Can you imagine, dear reader, how great would be the joy in heaven, and on the earth, if every being would, at one time, and with the same mind, humbly submit to God in fervent prayer? Then let us all be more devoted, more consecrated, and more nearly perfect in every way.

Our bodies must have food or they perish. Our souls, or our spiritual bodies, likewise must be fed. Prayer will feed the soul. After studying about ourselves and God awhile, it would be more encouraging to us if we were to see prayer thus: As a spirit of gentleness, akin to the Holy Spirit. We should remember that prayer—true prayer originates in the heart and mind of mankind.

Prayer has a dove-like simplicity. It has no tendency toward boastfulness. Jesus gives us examples how to pray. He it was who prayed for those who hung Him on the cross.

By prayer we show our willingness to conform to the will of Him whose anger marches slowly, is often hindered, and never hasty, and always just. Prayer is the peace of our spirits; the stillness of our thoughts, and the source of all true comfort.

The family altar is heaven's threshold. And happy are those children who at that altar have been consecrated by a devoted father's blessing; baptized, as it were, by a mother's tears, and borne up to heaven upon their joint petitions, as a voluntary thanks-offering to God.

Every home that has honored, and does yet honor God, with an altar of devotion may well be called blessed. The influence of family prayer is great, silent, irresistible, and permanent. Like the calm deep stream, it moves on in silent, but overwhelming power. It spreads its branches wide over the entire being. Like the lily that bears the tempest, and like the Alpine flower that leans its cheeks upon the bosom of eternal snows, it flourishes amid the wildest and most turbulent storms of life.

Prayer removes all family frictions, and causes all the wheels of domestic machinery to revolve silently and smoothly along. It allays all petulant feelings, and violent passions; destroys peevishness of temper, and makes a delightful place of every home in which it is practiced.

What, then is a home without that amiable spirit, and admirable characteristic of our Saviour and Friend? Home is then only a place of unrest, contention, strife, envy, hatred, malice, and every abominable principle so closely akin to the wicked one. It is in true earnest prayer that every intellectual and moral need is met and nourished and converted to a most glorious blessing.

Herein does our home education become impregnated with the spirit and elements of our preparation for eternity.

Christian friends, do not forget how true are those words above. They deserve our careful attention. Let a spirit of prayer abide in every heart.

May the Father of love bless you all and bless our paper to His gracious cause is our humble prayer.

Southern Railway Has Its Business Figured Out In This State.

The Poor House Would Soon Be In Plain Sight Did It Undertake to Follow Governor Glenn's Suggestion.

(By special wire to THE ARGUS.)

New York, Aug. 21.—There's no chance that the Southern Railway will accept the suggestion and proffer of Governor Glenn to withdraw all litigation and give the new rate law a fair trial, with the understanding that he will recommend its repeal if it is shown to be unjust and confiscatory.

That is the unanimous opinion of Wall street and in railway circles in New York.

One of the Southern Railway's attorneys said today:

"It costs us eighty-six and thirty-five one-hundredth cents for every dollar's worth of business we do in North Carolina. If we accepted the reduced rate for the interstate business we would make a profit of just thirty-nine and one one-hundredth of one per cent. So the poor house would soon be in plain sight of all of us."

Great Swamp Items.

Personals and Pertinent Happenings in That Prosperous Section.

Mr. Barnes Aycock went to Goldsboro Monday to meet with the Board of Education, of which he is a member.

Mr. Barnes Pope and family, who have typhoid fever, are all improving, we are glad to note.

Mr. G. W. Aycock made a business trip to Goldsboro on Friday.

Mr. Jessie Pope and family who have spent the summer with his people, here and at Morehead City, will leave in a few days for his home in Adell, Ga. He says he has enjoyed his vacation and we regret to see him leave us, and hope he will come again soon.

COTTON FARMERS MEET.

President Moore Has the Cotton Situation Well In Hand.

Gastonia, N. C., Aug. 20, 1907.

ED. ARGUS, Dear Sir:—

A large crowd of farmers and business men gathered at the City Hall to hear Pres. C. C. Moore on the cotton warehouse plan. He made an interesting talk, holding the crowd for an hour.

Mr. Moore has the cotton situation well in hand and tells it in an interesting manner. He is a valuable man to North Carolina.

A vote was taken on what the minimum price for cotton should be, and every farmer voted for 15 cents, as the minimum for the crop of 1907.

Mr. Moore will speak at Selma, Sept. 10th, at 10 a m; Princeton, Sept. 10th, at 2 p m; Lucama, Sept. 11th, at 11 a m; Elm City, Sept. 11th, at 2 p m.

T. J. W. Broom, Sec. Ex. Committee.

GREENLEAF ITEMS.

Everything dull in Greenleaf except mosquito bills.

Crops are fine in this section considering the backward start in the spring.

Mr. R. C. Mazingo, who has been making headquarters in Rocky Mt., is at home on business.

Miss Ruth Bardin is visiting relatives at Greensboro.

Misses Mildred Sugg and Sabra Brogden are visiting friends at Wallace.

Quite a number of our Greenleaf people took in the Jamestown Exposition last week and report a fine time.

Mr. Jas. T. Turner, of Baltimore, spent a few hours with us Monday.

Miss Irene Kates, of Washington, has returned home from a visit to relatives in Greenleaf.

Mr. W. H. Hightower, of New York, is visiting his brother Mr. W. R. Hightower here, but will go to Colorado for his health in a few days.

Mr. G. E. Hodgins is at home on business from Greensboro.

Mr. Ed Davis, who has been running a general repair shop here, has installed a chain mill that runs by steam so he will be prepared to serve his customers in short order.
