

NOT GUILTY.

So Says The Jury For Mrs. Bradley To-day.

The Verdict is Received With Sensational Demonstrations Unprecedented in Washington.

(Special Wire to the ARGUS.)

Washington Dec. 3.—Shortly before 10:30 today the jury filed into the court and declared Mrs. Annie Bradley "not guilty" of the charge of wilful murder of Senator Brown, of Utah, one year ago, in a Washington Hotel.

It was December 8th, of last year, when she shot and killed him in his own room in the Hotel Raleigh, she coming all the way from Utah and entering the hotel before he knew she was in Washington.

Mrs. Bradley passed a night of pain and mental anguish, almost collapsing at times.

The scene in the Court room when the verdict of "not guilty" was announced is indescribable. Its like was never seen in Washington.

Mrs. Bradley said today that she did not know where she and her two little sons would go, but declared later that she would return to Utah. She is about hopeless, however, of her own future. She says she is conscience-stricken, and lives only for her children.

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS IN SESSION.

The Business Sessions Will Continue Through the Greater Part of the Week.

(By special wire to THE ARGUS.)

Austin, Texas, Dec. 3.—The Texas division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy began its twelfth annual convention in the capital today with every indication that it will be the most successful meeting in the history of the organization. The delegates are numerous and representative of every section of the State. The majority of them are being entertained in private homes.

The business sessions will continue through the greater part of the week and will be devoted to the consideration of annual reports, and discussion of proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws and the election of officers for the year.

Another feature which will help to make the convention a notable one will be the dedication of the new Confederate Women's Home.

BETTER THAN MEDICINE.

Breathe Hyomei's Tonic Healing and be Cured of Catarrh.

Nature has a remedy for catarrh, a treatment that is far better than dosing the stomach with medicine and drugs.

It is the healing oils and balsoms of Hyomei which medicate the air you breathe, reaching the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs and restoring health to mucous membrane.

The use of Hyomei is like a curative internal air bath, and has the same healing and antiseptic effect as the air where the pine forest give off their fragrant and healing balsoms.

Breathe the invigorating and healing Hyomei and see how quickly you will get relief from catarrh. If it does not help you there will not be a penny expense, as J. H. Hill & Son agree to refund the money if it fails to cure. The complete Hyomei outfit costs only $1.00.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Ambitions and Prospects of Men Strutting and Fretting Their Hour on the Stage.

(Special to THE ARGUS.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 3. It is now reported that former Gov. Heyward, of South Carolina, has decided not to be a candidate for the seat of United States Senator Latimer.

Major G. V. Menzies, who is being urged by his friends to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of Indiana, is a son-in-law of the late Governor Hovey of that State.

A movement against sending a Bryan delegation to the Democratic National Convention is said to be gaining much strength in Alabama. It is headed by Walter Percy, a prominent lawyer of Birmingham.

Senator Kittredge, of South Dakota, says that if the Republican National Convention was to be held now his State would send a solid Taft delegation and that in his opinion the Secretary of War would undoubtedly be nominated.

L. A. Vorys, Secretary Taft's political manager in Ohio, has issued a statement to the effect that he is for an early State convention of the Republican party in Ohio to select delegates to the national convention.

Nine cities will submit bids for the Democratic National Convention when the national committee meets in Washington next week. They are Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Denver, St. Paul, Milwaukee, Louisville, Atlantic City and Long Branch.

Daniel Sinclair, who died recently at his home in Winona, was chairman of the Minnesota delegation in the National Republican Convention of 1880 and as such gained prominence by pushing the candidacy of William Windom. Mr. Sinclair's persistence was one of the factors contributing to the defeat of Blaine and the nomination of Garfield.

Few new members of the Senate attracted more attention at the opening of Congress yesterday than Jeff Davis, the successor of Senator Berry, of Arkansas, and former governor of that State. Senator Davis is a younger man than his predecessor, a fluent talker and rather handsome in appearance. He enjoys the reputation of being a champion of the "plain people" and is counted upon to contribute to the liveliness of the Senate proceedings as soon as he becomes familiar with its surroundings.

There are indications that Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, is to have a fight for re-election. He is being opposed by an element in the State including some of the younger blood in politics and which is taking advantage of a new primary law to make trouble for Senator Hansbrough, who has held the office for eighteen years. The new law provides for the naming of United States Senators by primary elections, and Senator Hansbrough will have to go to the polls next year under its provisions.

Gen. Leon Jastremski, candidate for the nomination of governor of Louisiana, and who recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, is about sixty-five years of age and a native of France. He is the son of an eminent French physician who settled in Louisiana nearly three-quarters of a century ago. Though born in France he is of Polish origin, his father having migrated to the United States following his participation in the Polish insurrection of 1830-32.

To the old-timer at the opening of Congress yesterday one of the most conspicuous things was the absence from the floor of the House of General Grosvenor, of Ohio, whose patriarchal and venerable appearance for years focused the attention of the galleries, and whose wit and disposition to banter many a time made the hall ring with laughter when the situation was so intense as to seem as if nothing but bitter passion could find expression.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments, must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerves, all sense, and all blood elements. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, causes nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well
