Items of Interest in and Around the City.

The alarm of fire about midnight last night was occasioned by the burning of a negro tenement house on the property of Mr. N. B. Outlaw, over near Herman Park. The fire department was promptly on the scene and the flames were speedily extinguished, leaving much of the house yet standing.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O'Berry have gone to Atkinson, in Pender county, the home of Mrs. O'Berry's venerable mother, Mrs. Eliza Moore, who, we are distressed to chronicle, is reported to be critically ill. Mrs. Moore has many friends in this city, where she sometimes visits, and we all wish for her an early and safe recovery.

Mrs. W. R. Hollowell was summoned to Charlotte, yesterday morning on the early train by a night phone that her venerable father, Mr. E. L. Vail, was critically ill. She arrived at his bedside at 9 o'clock, and the end came at 10:30. Her hosts of friends in this city and county and throughout the State will deeply sympathize with her in her sad bereavement.

The members of the "Round Dozen Club," of Mt. Olive, an organization composed of leading literary ladies of that progressive town, came up to the city at noon today to take dinner with one of their most popular members now a resident of Goldsboro—Miss Lucy Hatch. It goes without saying that it was an enjoyable occasion. It could not be otherwise with Miss Hatch as hostess and the congenial "Round Dozen" as guests, and with the Best Town in the State as the rendezvous.

A romantic marriage, which was entirely a surprise, as well to the families of the contracting parties as to their many friends, occurred Monday night about 9 o'clock, when Mr. Henry Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Jones, and Miss Margaret Castex, the beautiful and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Castex, and one of the most appreciated members of the Goldsboro Graded School, presented themselves to Rev. F. W. Farries, accompanied by witnesses and provided with license, and requested that he make them man and wife, which he accordingly did. The happy young couple immediately drove to the westbound Southern train, which they boarded for a bridal trip. The ARGUS wishes them health, happiness and prosperity through length of days.

Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock a fatal and shocking accident occurred at the power house of the consolidated Electric Light and Water plant of our city, whereby Mr. Frank Caldwell, one of the employees, a son of Mr. J. H. Caldwell, of Fork township, and a young man liked by all who knew him, lost his life instantly. He was caught by the belt of the big fly wheel and thrown against the engine in such a helpless position that the piston rod struck him on the head killing him instantly. The remains were viewed by Coroner Stanley, but an inquest was deemed unnecessary. The body of the unfortunate young man was taken to Lemon Springs, in Lee county, on the early train this morning, for interment beside a sister who is buried there. The ARGUS deeply sympathizes with the so sorely afflicted family in their sudden and sorrowful bereavement.

WARRICK-EDWARDS.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Edwards, in this city, Thursday night, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties and a small circle of special friends, Mr. Jos. S. Warrick, our city Tax Collector, and a young man highly esteemed by all who know him, and Miss Lula Edwards, who holds the admiration of all her friends for her sterling traits of character, were happily united in the holy bond of wedlock, Rev. F. W. Farries, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

The bridal attendants were Miss Clyda Caldwell, of Lake City, S. C., with Mr. W. V. Woodard, and Miss Alice Warrick, sister of the groom, with Mr. J. C. Keene.

Immediately after the ceremony a bridal banquet was served and all indeed "went merry as a marriage bell."

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and useful bridal presents and have already entered upon the pleasant occupation of housekeeping at the comfortable home of the groom on Park Avenue.

The ARGUS joins their hosts of friends in wishing them all happiness and prosperity.

DAMON AND PYTHIAS.

A Great Production of The Famous Play by Home Talent.

Rehearsals for the above play, to be presented at the Messenger Opera House January 9th, are going on regularly, and Mr. Ed J. Addy, of Chicago, who has been engaged by Ruffin Lodge No. 6, K. of P., to stage the production, says that he is more than pleased with the cast now arranged.

He claims that Miss Rachel Borden as Hermione, and Miss Freda Cobb Latta as Cleopatra will be hard to equal, even by professionals. There is a bouyaney in their work that holds the hearer in a spell.

Mr. Harry J. Baker as Damon and Mr. Frank Giddens as Pythias, make a fine appearance, and their clear enunciation and deep sympathy with their parts, add to the impressiveness.

The other twenty-five characters are well selected, and are enthusiastic for the success of the performance.

The Pythias are to be congratulated on being able to enlist such a company of real historic talent and it speaks well for our city.

Women's Pains

"I was a total wreck," writes Mrs. Beulah Rowley, of Champoeg, Oregon, "from pains I had suffered, for 4 years, every month. Sometimes I would be unconscious for 12 hours at a stretch. I did not know that anything could stop the pain entirely, but Wine of Cardui did. I advise all women suffering with painful periods to use Cardui and be relieved."

It does this by regulating the functions and toning up all the Internal female organs to health. It is a pure, specific, reliable, female remedy, with a record of 70 years of success. It has benefited a million others. Why not you? Try it.
